

The Outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (Sunday morning, May 24, 33)

Acts 2:1–13

- 1 When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.
- 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.
- 3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them.
- 4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.
- 5 Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation under heaven.
- 6 And when this sound occurred, the crowd came together, and were bewildered because each one of them was hearing them speak in his own language.
- 7 They were amazed and astonished, saying, “Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?
- 8 And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born?
- 9 Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,
- 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya around Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,
- 11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them in our own tongues speaking of the mighty deeds of God.”
- 12 And they all continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”
- 13 But others were mocking and saying, “They are full of sweet wine.”
