

January 14 Questions

- Today we read about the first _____ of Jesus (John 1:35–51). The word “disciple” (mathētēs) means “learner, pupil, _____.” Being a disciple means entering into a _____ with the one you are following. Our calling as Jesus’ disciple is to follow Him, learn from Him, and _____ Him.
- One of the two disciples who left John the Baptist and followed Jesus was _____. Andrew was from _____ of Galilee. His father was John the fisherman and his brother was _____ (Peter).
- The other disciple who left John the Baptist to follow Jesus was _____, the author of this gospel.
- Andrew found his brother and said, “We have found the _____!” (which means _____). The word itself is a transliteration of the Hebrew word meaning “the _____ One.” The OT backdrop for today’s reading is _____. Jesus is the _____ of Yahweh, the _____ of Israel and the _____ of God.
- Being a disciple of Jesus means _____ others to follow Him. We’re supposed to be out there saying, “Come and see!” just like Nathanael, just like Andrew.
- Jesus looked at Simon, Andrew’s brother, and said, “You are Simon the son of John. You shall be called _____ (which means _____).” Cephas is the transliteration of the Aramaic word for “_____”. The equivalent Greek expression is _____.
- Philip was the first disciple who was directly _____ by Jesus. Philip was from _____, just like Andrew and Peter.
- Nathanael was from _____. Nathanael’s name is not in the lists of the twelve apostles that are given in Matthew 10 and Luke 6, and this has led many to identify him as _____.
- Philip told Nathanael, “We have found him of whom _____ in the Law and also the _____ wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.” Jesus is mentioned in _____ –“The Lord your God will raise up for you a _____ like me from among you...”
- Jesus said to Nathanael, “Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!” Jesus’s point is: “Behold, a descendant of _____ the _____ in whom there is no deceit!”
- Jesus said, “You will see greater things than these. Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see _____ opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the _____ of _____.” This statement alludes to Jacob’s vision of the ladder between heaven and earth (Gen 28:12). Jacob understood the vision to mean that _____ had come down from heaven to earth. Indeed, Jesus was exactly that—the Messiah, the _____ of God incarnate, come down from heaven to earth.
- ‘Son of Man’ was Jesus’ favorite way of telling people who he really was without actually saying, “I am the _____.” The title comes from _____. The Son of Man is none other than the Messiah of Psalm 2, the King of Israel, and the Son of God incarnate.
