The Davidic Covenant (c. 995 BC)
2 Samuel 7	1 Chronicles 17
God's Promise to David
1 It happened that the king settled in his house. (Now Yahweh had given rest to him from all his enemies all around.)	1 And as David lived in his house,
2 And the king said to Nathan the prophet,	David said to Nathan the prophet,
"Look, please, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark	"Look, I live in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of God is staying in the middle of the tent."	of Yahweh is under tent curtains."
3 Nathan said to the king, "Go and do all that is in your heart, for Yahweh is with you."	2 And Nathan said to David, "Whatever is in your heart, do, for God is with you."
4 But it happened that night, the word of Yahweh came to Nathan, saying,	3 And it happened that same night the word of God came to Nathan, saying,
5 "Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus says Yahweh:	4 "Go and say to David my servant, 'Thus says Yahweh,
"Are you the one to build for me a house for my dwelling? 6 For I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought up the Israelites from Egypt until this day; rather , I was going	"You are not to build a house for me to live in , 5 for I have not lived in a house from the day that I brought out Israel unto this day. I have been about in a tent and in a tabernacle.	from tent to tent and from tabernacle to tabernacle.
7 In all of my going about among all the Israelites, did I speak	6 In every place I have moved about, did I say a word with one of the tribes of Israel whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why did you not build me a cedar house?'"	one word with the judges of Israel I commanded to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why have you not built for me a house of cedar?'"'
8 So then, thus you shall say to my servant David, 'Thus says	7 So now, thus you shall say to my servant David, 'Thus says
Yahweh of hosts, "I took you from the pasture from following	Yahweh of hosts, "I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be a leader over my people, over Israel,	the sheep, to be leader over my people Israel,

They will not tremble any longer, and the children of wickedness	and be in anguish no longer. And wicked men will not afflict them again, as in the former days.	will no longer wear them down as before,
11 In the manner that I appointed judges over my people Israel,	10 from the day that I commanded judges over my people Israel.
I will give you rest from all your enemies. And Yahweh declares	And I will subdue your enemies, and I declare to you that Yahweh will build a house for you.	to you that Yahweh will build for you a house.
12 When your days are full	11 And it shall be that when your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you who will go out from your body, and I will	to go and sleep with your ancestors, then I will raise up your seed after you, who will be one of your sons, and I will establish his kingdom.	establish his kingdom.

David's Response to God
18 Then King David went and sat before Yahweh and said,	16 Then King David went and sat before Yahweh and said,
"Who am I, my lord Yahweh, and what is my house that you	"Who am I, O Yahweh God, and what is my house that you have brought me up to this place?	have brought me thus far?
19 Still, this was insignificant in your eyes, my lord Yahweh,	17 And this was a small matter in your eyes, O God.
and also you have spoken about the house of your servant	And you have spoken concerning the house of your servant from afar, and this may be the teaching of humans, my lord Yahweh.for a long time and have shown me future generations to come, O Yahweh God.20 What more can David say to you? You know your servant, my lord Yahweh.18 What more can David do to you for honoring your servant? Now you know your servant.21 Because of your word and according to your heart, you have done all of this great thing, in order to let your servant know.19 O Yahweh, for the sake of your servant and according to your heart you have done all this greatness, to make known all these great things.22 Therefore you are great, my lord Yahweh, for there is no en like you, and there is no god except you, in all that we have heard with our ears.20 O Yahweh, to these is none like you, and there is no God except you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.23 Who is like your people, like Israel? Israel is the one nation on earth whose God led them, in order to redeem a people for himself, and to do for you the great and awesome things for your land in the presence of your people whom he redeemed for himself from Egypt, from the nations and their gods.11 Ad who is like your people Israel for yourself as a people forever, and you, O Yahweh, have become their God.12 And you made your people Israel an everlasting nation for yourself. And you, O Yahweh, have become their God.25 So then, Yahweh God, the word that you have spoken. concerning your servant and concerning his house, confirm it forever, and do just as you have promised. 26 Your name shall be great forever,24 And let your name be established and be magnified forever, at And let your name be established and be magnified forever,

Chronological Notes

- 1) I placed 2 Samuel 7 here in the reading plan due to the comment in 7:1 that God had given David "relief from all his enemies on all sides" (NET). This indicates that more than the Philistines are in view, since the Amalekites, Edomites, Moabites, Ammonites and Arameans were all enemies of Israel.
- 2) I placed the birth of Solomon after the Davidic Covenant of 2 Samuel 7 for two reasons: a) it seems doubtful that the siege of Rabbah lasted for almost another full year after the death of David and Bathsheba's first son (cf. 12:26), and b) the tenor of the message from Nathan suggests that the son who would build God's house after David was not yet born (cf. David's charge to Solomon in 1 Chr 22:9).
