Joseph's Dream (mid 3 BC)

Matthew 1:18–25a

- 18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ happened this way. While his mother Mary was engaged to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit.
- 19 Because Joseph, her husband to be, was a righteous man, and because he did not want to disgrace her, he intended to divorce her privately.
- 20 When he had contemplated this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit.
- 21 She will give birth to a son and you will name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”
- 22 This all happened so that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled:
- 23 “Look! The virgin will conceive and bear a son, and they will call him Emmanuel,” which means “God with us.” [\[Isa 7:14\]](#)
- 24 When Joseph awoke from sleep he did what the angel of the Lord told him. He took his wife,
- 25a but did not have marital relations with her until she gave birth to a son,

The Birth of Jesus (late 3 or early 2 BC)

Luke 2:1–7

- 1 Now in those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus to register all the empire for taxes.
- 2 This was the first registration, taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.
- 3 Everyone went to his own town to be registered.
- 4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family line of David.
- 5 He went to be registered with Mary, who was promised in marriage to him, and who was expecting a child.
- 6 While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child.
- 7 And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

While Shepherds Watched (day of the birth)

Luke 2:8–20

- 8 Now there were shepherds nearby living out in the field, keeping guard over their flock at night.
- 9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were absolutely terrified.
- 10 But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid! Listen carefully, for I proclaim to you good news that brings great joy to all the people:
- 11 Today your Savior is born in the city of David. He is Christ the Lord.
- 12 This will be a sign for you: You will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger.”
- 13 Suddenly a vast, heavenly army appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,
- 14 “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among people with whom he is pleased!”
- 15 When the angels left them and went back to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, that the Lord has made known to us.”
- 16 So they hurried off and located Mary and Joseph, and found the baby lying in a manger.
- 17 When they saw him, they related what they had been told about this child,
- 18 and all who heard it were astonished at what the shepherds said.
- 19 But Mary treasured up all these words, pondering in her heart what they might mean.
- 20 So the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen; everything was just as they had been told.

Jesus' Circumcision and Naming (8 days after birth)

Matthew 1:25b

Luke 2:21

25b whom he [Joseph] named Jesus.

21 At the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Jesus' Royal Jewish Lineage (8 days after birth)

Matthew 1:1–17

Introduction

1 This is the record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

Abraham to David

2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,
 3 Judah the father of Perez and Zerah (by Tamar), Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram,
 4 Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,
 5 Salmon the father of Boaz (by Rahab), Boaz the father of Obed (by Ruth), Obed the father of Jesse,
 6a and Jesse the father of David the king. cf. [1 Chr 2:3–15]

David to Exile (Jeconiah/Jehoiachin)

6b David was the father of Solomon (by the wife of Uriah),
 7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,
 8 Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, Joram the father of Uzziah,
 9 Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,
 10 Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah,
 11 and Josiah the father of Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon. cf. [1 Chr 3:10–14]

Exile (Jeconiah/Jehoiachin) to Jesus

12 After the deportation to Babylon, Jeconiah became the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,
 13 Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, Abiud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor,
 14 Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Achim, Achim the father of Eliud,
 15 Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob,
 16 and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, by whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

Summary

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon, fourteen generations, and from the deportation to Babylon to Christ, fourteen generations.

Jesus' Human Lineage (8 days after birth)

Luke 3:23b–38

Jesus to David

23b He [Jesus] was the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Heli,
 24 the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph,
 25 the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,
 26 the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda,
 27 the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri,
 28 the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er,
 29 the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi,
 30 the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim,
 31 the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan, the son of David,

David to Abraham

32 the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Sala, the son of Nahshon,
 33 the son of Amminadab, the son of Admin, the son of Arni, the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, 34a the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham,

Abraham to Adam

34b the son of Terah, the son of Nahor,
 35 the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah,
 36 the son of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech,
 37 the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, 38 the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

Luke 2:22–39a

Jesus' Presentation

22 Now when the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Joseph and Mary brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord

23 (just as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male will be set apart to the Lord"), [Exod 13:2, 12, 15]

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what is specified in the law of the Lord, a pair of doves or two young pigeons. [Lev 12:8]

Simeon's Prophecy

25 Now there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon who was righteous and devout, looking for the restoration of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 So Simeon, directed by the Spirit, came into the temple courts, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what was customary according to the law,

28 Simeon took him in his arms and blessed God, saying,

29 "Now, according to your word, Sovereign Lord, permit your servant to depart in peace.

30 For my eyes have seen your salvation

31 that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples:

32 a light,

for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel."

33 So the child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him.

34 Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "Listen carefully: This child is destined to be the cause of the falling and rising of many in Israel and to be a sign that will be rejected. cf. [Isa 8:14–15]

35 Indeed, as a result of him the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul as well!"

Anna's Testimony

36 There was also a prophetess, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old, having been married to her husband for seven years until his death.

37 She had lived as a widow since then for eighty-four years. She never left the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day.

38 At that moment, she came up to them and began to give thanks to God and to speak about the child to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

Luke's Conclusion (he does not mention the Magi or the flight to Egypt)

39a So when Joseph and Mary had performed everything according to the law of the Lord,

Visit of the Magi (2 BC)

Matthew 2:1–12

1 After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, in the time of King Herod, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem

2 saying, "Where is the one who is born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him."

3 When King Herod heard this he was alarmed, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 After assembling all the chief priests and experts in the law, he asked them where the Christ was to be born.

5 "In Bethlehem of Judea," they said, "for it is written this way by the prophet:

6 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,

are in no way least among the rulers of Judah, for out of you will come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel.'" [Mic 5:2]

7 Then Herod privately summoned the wise men and determined from them when the star had appeared.

8 He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and look carefully for the child. When you find him, inform me so that I can go and worship him as well."

9 After listening to the king they left, and once again the star they saw when it rose led them until it stopped above the place where the child was.

10 When they saw the star they shouted joyfully.

11 As they came into the house and saw the child with Mary his mother, they bowed down and worshiped him. They opened their treasure boxes and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 After being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back by another route to their own country.

Flight to Egypt / Massacre of the Innocents (2 BC)

Matthew 2:13–18

13 After they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to look for the child to kill him.”

14 Then he got up, took the child and his mother during the night, and went to Egypt.

15 He stayed there until Herod died. In this way what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet was fulfilled: “I called my Son out of Egypt.” [Hos 11:1]

16 When Herod saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, he became enraged. He sent men to kill all the children in Bethlehem and throughout the surrounding region from the age of two and under, according to the time he had learned from the wise men.

17 Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled:

18 “A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud wailing,
Rachel weeping for her children, and she did not want to be comforted, because they were gone.” [Jer 31:15]

Chronological Notes

- 1) For more detail on the historical accuracy of Luke’s chronological notation concerning Quirinius (Luke 2:2), see the following: Harold W. Hoehner, “Chronological Aspects of the Life of Christ Part I: The Date of Christ’s Birth,” BSac 131:520 (Oct 1973): 338–351; Wayne Brindle, “The Census and Quirinius: Luke 2.2,” JETS 21.1 (March 1984): 43–52; Jared M. Compton, “Once More: Quirinius’s Census,” DBSJ 14 (2009): 45–54 and John H. Rhoads, “Josephus Misdated the Census of Quirinius,” JETS 54.1 (March 2011): 65–87.
- 2) Visit of the Magi.
 - A) It seems unlikely that Joseph and Mary would have returned to Nazareth immediately after Jesus’ birth, only to return to Jerusalem a month and a half later. The more likely scenario would be for them to have stayed with relatives in Bethlehem until the forty day purification period was completed (cf. Lev 12). However, the question remains: did the magi visit them before or after Jesus’ presentation at the temple? The answer is found in Luke 2:28 where it records that Joseph and Mary offered “a pair of doves or two young pigeons”—the offering prescribed for those who were poor (Lev 12:8). Had the Magi visited them before the presentation at the temple, Joseph and Mary, who were careful to observe the Law, could have afforded the more costly offering of a sheep (cf. Matt 2:11—the gift of “gold”).¹ Thus we conclude that the Magi’s visit to Bethlehem occurred just after Jesus’ presentation at the temple.
 - B) What of the star which the Magi reported seeing prior to their journey to Jerusalem? There have been many proposals which attempt to explain the astronomical phenomenon described by the Magi.² However, there is not enough data in Matthew’s account to determine definitively which proposal is correct. “At most we can say that the star could have appeared as early as 4 BC, no more than two years before Jesus’ birth.”³

Return to Nazareth (late 1 BC or early AD 1)

Matthew 2:19–23

Luke 2:39b

19 After Herod had died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt
 20 saying, “Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child’s life are dead.”
 21 So he got up and took the child and his mother and returned to the land of Israel.
 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. After being warned in a dream, he went to the regions of Galilee.
 23 He came to a town called Nazareth and lived there. Then what had been spoken by the prophets was fulfilled, that Jesus would be called a Nazarene. cf. [Ps 22:6–8]

39b they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth.

John’s Childhood (1 BC – AD 10)

Luke 1:80a

80a And the child kept growing and becoming strong in spirit,

Jesus’ Childhood (1 BC – AD 10)

Luke 2:40

40 And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom, and the favor of God was upon him.

In My Father’s House (Nisan [April] 11)

Luke 2:41–51

41 Now Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem every year for the feast of the Passover.
 42 When he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom.
 43 But when the feast was over, as they were returning home, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it,
 44 but (because they assumed that he was in their group of travelers) they went a day’s journey. Then they began to look for him among their relatives and acquaintances.
 45 When they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.
 46 After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.
 47 And all who heard Jesus were astonished at his understanding and his answers.
 48 When his parents saw him, they were overwhelmed. His mother said to him, “Child, why have you treated us like this? Look, your father and I have been looking for you anxiously.”
 49 But he replied, “Why were you looking for me? Didn’t you know that I must be in my Father’s house?”
 50 Yet his parents did not understand the remark he made to them.
 51 Then he went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them. But his mother kept all these things in her heart.

John’s Adolescence and Early Manhood (11–29)

Luke 1:80b

80b and he was in the wilderness until the day he was revealed to Israel.

Jesus’ Adolescence and Early Manhood (11–29)

Luke 2:52

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and with people.

The Gospel—Mark’s Preface (Spring 29)

Mark 1:1

1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

John’s Public Ministry—Historical Setting (Spring 29)

Luke 3:1–2

1 In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip was tetrarch of the region of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene,
2 during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the wilderness.

John’s Public Ministry—The Messiah’s Messenger (Spring 29)

Matthew 3:1–6

Mark 1:2–6

Luke 3:3–6

1 In those days John the Baptist came into the wilderness of Judea proclaiming,
2 “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

3 For he is the one about whom Isaiah the prophet had spoken:

“The voice of one shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make his paths straight.’”

4 Now John wore clothing made from camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and his diet consisted of locusts and wild honey.

5 Then people from Jerusalem, as well as all Judea and all the region around the Jordan, were going out to him,

6 and he was baptizing them in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

4 In the wilderness John the baptizer began preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

2 As it is written in Isaiah the prophet, “Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way, [Mal 3:1; Exod 23:20]

3 the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make his paths straight.’”

6 John wore a garment made of camel’s hair with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.

5 People from the whole Judean countryside and all of Jerusalem were going out to him, and he was baptizing them in the Jordan River as they confessed their sins.

3 He went into all the region around the Jordan River, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

“The voice of one shouting in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be brought low, and the crooked will be made straight, and the rough ways will be made smooth, 6 and all humanity will see the salvation of God.’” [Isa 40:3–5]

John’s Public Ministry—John’s Preaching (Spring 29)

Matthew 3:7–10

Luke 3:7–14

7 But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, “You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 Therefore produce fruit that proves your repentance,
9 and don’t think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

10 Even now the ax is laid at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

7 So John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, “You offspring of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 Therefore produce fruit that proves your repentance, and don’t begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones!

9 Even now the ax is laid at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.”

10 So the crowds were asking him, “What then should we do?”

11 John answered them, “The person who has two tunics must share with the person who has none, and the person who has

	food must do likewise.” 12 Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, “Teacher, what should we do?” 13 He told them, “Collect no more than you are required to.” 14 Then some soldiers also asked him, “And as for us—what should we do?” He told them, “Take money from no one by violence or by false accusation, and be content with your pay.”

John’s Public Ministry—Concerning the Christ (Spring 29)

Matthew 3:11–12	Mark 1:7–8	Luke 3:15–18
11 “I baptize you with water, for repentance, but the one coming after me is more powerful than I am—I am not worthy to carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clean out his threshing floor and will gather his wheat into the storehouse, but the chaff he will burn up with inextinguishable fire.” [Isa 66:24]	7a He proclaimed, 8a I baptize you with water, 7b “One more powerful than I am is coming after me; I am not worthy to bend down and untie the strap of his sandals. 8b but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”	15 While the people were filled with anticipation and they all wondered whether perhaps John could be the Christ, 16 John answered them all, “I baptize you with water, but one more powerful than I am is coming—I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 17 His winnowing fork is in his hand to clean out his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but the chaff he will burn up with inextinguishable fire.” 18 And in this way, with many other exhortations, John proclaimed good news to the people.

Chronological Notes

1) Jesus’ Public Ministry.

- A) Luke 3:1 places Jesus’ baptism in the “fifteenth year of Tiberius.” Most historians and many biblical scholars put Tiberius’ 15th year in AD 29.¹ “Because of the difficulty of fitting the entire ministry of Jesus into a one and one-half year period, from ancient times the most favored view is that Jesus had a 3½ year ministry. The Gospel of John explicitly mentions a number of feasts, including three Passovers (first: John 2:13, 23; second: 6:4; third: 11:55 [twice]; 12:1; 13:1; 18:39; 19:14), Tabernacles (John 7:2), Dedication (John 10:22) and an unnamed feast, which must be either Tabernacles or Pentecost (John 5:1). In addition, the Synoptic Gospels report the disciples plucking grain near the beginning of Jesus’ Galilean ministry when John is silent about a Passover. This implies a fourth Passover during Jesus’ ministry (Matt 12:1; Mark 2:23; Luke 6:1). Since Jesus’ baptism took place before the first Passover mentioned in John (John 1:32), Jesus’ ministry began some months before. Therefore, the Gospel of John implies a 3½ year ministry.”²

² Steinmann, 260–61.

2) Order of events.

- A) The synoptic gospels—Matthew, Mark and Luke—all have the same general order of events for Jesus' life and ministry. While the Synoptics disagree on the order of events within certain time periods (e.g., Galilean Ministry), overall the order is chronological: Jesus' birth, John's ministry, Jesus' ministry, the Passion Week, the Resurrection and the Ascension. In cases of disagreement on ordering, my synopsis will be following Mark's order of events. This is in keeping with the majority of harmonies available today (e.g., A. T. Robertson, R. L. Thomas & S. Gundry, Kurt Aland, Floyd Jones, S. L. Cox & K. H. Easley, Orville Daniel, Ralph D. Heim, George W. Knight, E. Burton & E. J. Goodspeed, J. F. Carter, Mark A. Fahling, Burton H. Throckmorton, E. Robinson & Riddle, John MacArthur, F. R. Coulter).³ One notable exception is Bernard Orchard, whose A Synopsis of the Four Gospels in Greek is the only implementation of the Two-Gospel Hypothesis (2GH) of which I am aware (following Matthean priority).

³ This is due to the fact that most scholars believe that Mark was written first (known as Markan priority). See the discussions in D. A. Carson & Douglas J. Moo, An Introduction to the New Testament, Second Ed., (Zondervan, 2005): 77–104 and Andreas J. Kostenberger, L. Scott Kellum, Charles L. Quarles, The Cradle, the Cross, and the Crown, (B&H Academic, 2009): 158–175.

John's Public Ministry—Jesus' Baptism (Summer 29)

Matthew 3:13–17	Mark 1:9–11	Luke 3:21–23a
13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to John to be baptized by him in the Jordan River. 14 But John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you come to me?" 15 So Jesus replied to him, "Let it happen now, for it is right for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then John yielded to him. 16 After Jesus was baptized, just as he was coming up out of the water, the heavens opened and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming on him. 17 And a voice from heaven said, "This is my one dear Son; in him I take great delight."	9 Now in those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan River. 10 And just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. 11 And a voice came from heaven: "You are my one dear Son; in you I take great delight."	21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus also was baptized. And while he was praying, the heavens opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my one dear Son; in you I take great delight." 23a So Jesus, when he began his ministry, was about thirty years old.

Jesus' Temptations in the Wilderness (Summer/Autumn 29 – 40 days)

Matthew 4:1–11	Mark 1:12–13	Luke 4:1–13
1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 After he fasted forty days and forty nights he was famished. 3 The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become bread." 4 But he answered, "It is written, 'Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'" [Deut 8:3] 5 Then the devil took him to the holy city, had him stand on the highest point of the temple, 6 and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you' and 'with their hands they will lift you up, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'" 7 Jesus said to him, "Once again it is written:	12 The Spirit immediately drove him into the wilderness. 13 He was in the wilderness forty days, enduring temptations from Satan. He was with wild animals,	1 Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, 2 where for forty days he endured temptations from the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and when they were completed, he was famished. 3 The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." 4 Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Man does not live by bread alone.'" 9 Then the devil brought him to Jerusalem, had him stand on the highest point of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, 10 for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' 11 and 'with their hands they will lift you up, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.'" [Ps 91:11–12] 12 Jesus answered him, "It is said,

'You are not to put the Lord your God to the test.'” [Deut 6:16] 8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their grandeur. 9 And he said to him, “I will give you all these things if you throw yourself to the ground and worship me.” 10 Then Jesus said to him, “Go away, Satan! For it is written: 'You are to worship the Lord your God and serve only him.'” [Deut 6:13; 10:20] 11 Then the devil left him, and angels came and began ministering to his needs.	and angels were ministering to his needs.	'You are not to put the Lord your God to the test.'” 5 Then the devil led him up to a high place and showed him in a flash all the kingdoms of the world. 6 And he said to him, “To you I will grant this whole realm— and the glory that goes along with it, for it has been relinquished to me, and I can give it to anyone I wish. 7 So then, if you will worship me, all this will be yours.” 8 Jesus answered him, “It is written, 'You are to worship the Lord your God and serve only him.'” 13 So when the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until a more opportune time.

John's Public Ministry—“I Am Not the Christ” (Autumn 29 – Day 1)

John 1:19–28

19 Now this was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, “Who are you?”

20 He confessed—he did not deny but confessed—“I am not the Christ!”

21 So they asked him, “Then who are you? Are you Elijah?” He said, “I am not!” “Are you the Prophet?” He answered, “No!”

22 Then they said to him, “Who are you? Tell us so that we can give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

23 John said, “I am the voice of one shouting in the wilderness, 'Make straight the way for the Lord,' as Isaiah the prophet said.” [Isa 40:3]

24 (Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.)

25 So they asked John, “Why then are you baptizing if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?”

26 John answered them, “I baptize with water. Among you stands one whom you do not recognize,

27 who is coming after me. I am not worthy to untie the strap of his sandal!”

28 These things happened in Bethany across the Jordan River where John was baptizing.

John's Public Ministry—The Lamb of God (Autumn 29 – Day 2)

John 1:29–34

29 On the next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!

30 This is the one about whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who is greater than I am, because he existed before me.’

31 I did not recognize him, but I came baptizing with water so that he could be revealed to Israel.”

32 Then John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending like a dove from heaven, and it remained on him.

33 And I did not recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘The one on whom you see the Spirit descending and remaining—this is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’

34 I have both seen and testified that this man is the Chosen One of God.”

Jesus' First Disciples—Peter, Andrew and John (Autumn 29 – Day 3)

John 1:35–42

35 Again the next day John was standing there with two of his disciples.

36 Gazing at Jesus as he walked by, he said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”

37 When John's two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

38 Jesus turned around and saw them following and said to them, “What do you want?” So they said to him, “Rabbi” (which is translated Teacher), “where are you staying?”
 39 Jesus answered, “Come and you will see.” So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. Now it was about four o’clock in the afternoon.
 40 Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two disciples who heard what John said and followed Jesus.
 41 He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah!” (which is translated Christ).
 42 Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

Jesus’ First Disciples—Philip and Nathanael (Autumn 29 – Day 4)

John 1:43–51

43 On the next day Jesus wanted to set out for Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Follow me.”
 44 (Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the town of Andrew and Peter.)
 45 Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the one Moses wrote about in the law, and the prophets also wrote about—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.”
 46 Nathanael replied, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth?” Philip replied, “Come and see.”
 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and exclaimed, “Look, a true Israelite in whom there is no deceit!”
 48 Nathanael asked him, “How do you know me?” Jesus replied, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”
 49 Nathanael answered him, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the king of Israel!”
 50 Jesus said to him, “Because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree, do you believe? You will see greater things than these.”
 51 He continued, “I tell all of you the solemn truth—you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man.”

Jesus’ First Sign—Wedding at Cana in Galilee (Autumn 29 – Day 6)

John 2:1–11

1 Now on the third day [it was a three-day journey to the wedding—the fourth, fifth and sixth days] there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there,
 2 and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding.
 3 When the wine ran out, Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no wine left.”
 4 Jesus replied, “Woman, why are you saying this to me? My time has not yet come.”
 5 His mother told the servants, “Whatever he tells you, do it.”
 6 Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washing, each holding twenty or thirty gallons.
 7 Jesus told the servants, “Fill the water jars with water.” So they filled them up to the very top.
 8 Then he told them, “Now draw some out and take it to the head steward,” and they did.
 9 When the head steward tasted the water that had been turned to wine, not knowing where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), he called the bridegroom
 10 and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the cheaper wine when the guests are drunk. You have kept the good wine until now!”
 11 Jesus did this as the first of his miraculous signs, in Cana of Galilee. In this way he revealed his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

Jesus at Capernaum (Autumn 29)

John 2:12

12 After this he went down to Capernaum with his mother and brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there a few days.

Jesus' First Cleansing of the Temple Complex at Passover (April 30)

John 2:13–22

13 Now the Jewish feast of Passover was near, so Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 He found in the temple courts those who were selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting at tables.

15 So he made a whip of cords and drove them all out of the temple courts, with the sheep and the oxen. He scattered the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.

16 To those who sold the doves he said, "Take these things away from here! Do not make my Father's house a marketplace!"

17 His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will devour me." [Ps 69:9]

18 So then the Jewish leaders responded, "What sign can you show us, since you are doing these things?"

19 Jesus replied, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up again."

20 Then the Jewish leaders said to him, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and are you going to raise it up in three days?"

21 But Jesus was speaking about the temple of his body.

22 So after he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the saying that Jesus had spoken.

Jesus and Nicodemus (April 30)

John 2:23–3:21

Jesus' Miracles in Jerusalem

2:23 Now while Jesus was in Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover, many people believed in his name because they saw the miraculous signs he was doing.

24 But Jesus would not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people.

25 He did not need anyone to testify about man, for he knew what was in man.

The New Birth

3:1 Now a certain man, a Pharisee named Nicodemus, who was a member of the Jewish ruling council,

2 came to Jesus at night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the miraculous signs that you do unless God is with him."

3 Jesus replied, "I tell you the solemn truth, unless a person is born from above, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter his mother's womb and be born a second time, can he?"

5 Jesus answered, "I tell you the solemn truth, unless a person is born of water and spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

6 What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Do not be amazed that I said to you, 'You must all be born from above.'

8 The wind blows wherever it will, and you hear the sound it makes, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." cf. [Ezek 36:25–27; 11:19–20; Jer 31:33–34]

9 Nicodemus replied, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you don't understand these things?"

11 I tell you the solemn truth, we speak about what we know and testify about what we have seen, but you people do not accept our testimony.

12 If I have told you people about earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you about heavenly things?

13 No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven—the Son of Man.

14 Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, cf. [Num 21:8–9]

15 so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life."

16 For this is the way God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.

17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world should be saved through him.

18 The one who believes in him is not condemned. The one who does not believe has been condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God.

19 Now this is the basis for judging: that the light has come into the world and people loved the darkness rather than the light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For everyone who does evil deeds hates the light and does not come to the light, so that their deeds will not be exposed.

21 But the one who practices the truth comes to the light, so that it may be plainly evident that his deeds have been done in God.

Early Judean Ministry—John Superseded by Jesus (April–November 30)

John 3:22–36

22 After this, Jesus and his disciples came into Judean territory, and there he spent time with them and was baptizing.
 23 John was also baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there, and people were coming to him and being baptized.
 24 (For John had not yet been thrown into prison.)
 25 Now a dispute came about between some of John’s disciples and a certain Jew concerning ceremonial washing.
 26 So they came to John and said to him, “Rabbi, the one who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River, about whom you testified—see, he is baptizing, and everyone is flocking to him!”
 27 John replied, “No one can receive anything unless it has been given to him from heaven.
 28 You yourselves can testify that I said, ‘I am not the Christ,’ but rather, ‘I have been sent before him.’ cf. [Mal 3:1]
 29 The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands by and listens for him, rejoices greatly when he hears the bridegroom’s voice. This then is my joy, and it is complete.
 30 He must become more important while I become less important.”
 31 The one who comes from above is superior to all. The one who is from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks about earthly things. The one who comes from heaven is superior to all.
 32 He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts his testimony.
 33 The one who has accepted his testimony has confirmed clearly that God is truthful.
 34 For the one whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for he does not give the Spirit sparingly.
 35 The Father loves the Son and has placed all things under his authority.
 36 The one who believes in the Son has eternal life. The one who rejects the Son will not see life, but God’s wrath remains on him.

Early Judean Ministry—John’s Imprisonment (November/December 30)

Matthew 14:3–5	Mark 6:17–20	Luke 3:19–20
3 For Herod had arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, 4 because John had repeatedly told him, “It is not lawful for you to have her.” 5 Although Herod wanted to kill John, he feared the crowd because they accepted John as a prophet.	17 For Herod himself had sent men, arrested John, and bound him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, because Herod had married her. 18 For John had repeatedly told Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.” 19 So Herodias nursed a grudge against him and wanted to kill him. But she could not 20 because Herod stood in awe of John and protected him, since he knew that John was a righteous and holy man. When Herod heard him, he was thoroughly baffled, and yet he liked to listen to John.	19 But when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and because of all the evil deeds that he had done, 20 Herod added this to them all: He locked up John in prison.

Early Judean Ministry—Jesus Decides to Leave Judea (November/December 30)

Matthew 4:12	Mark 1:14a	Luke 4:14a	John 4:1–3
12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been imprisoned,	14a Now after John was imprisoned,		1 Now when Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard that he was winning and baptizing more disciples than

he went into Galilee.	Jesus went into Galilee	14a Then Jesus, in the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee,	John 2 (although Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples were), 3 he left Judea and set out once more for Galilee.

Through Samaria—The Woman at the Well (November/December 30 – 2 days in Sychar)

John 4:4–42

At the Town of Sychar

4 But he had to pass through Samaria.

5 Now he came to a Samaritan town called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. [Gen 48:21–22]

6 Jacob’s well was there, so Jesus, since he was tired from the journey, sat right down beside the well. It was about noon.

Jesus’ Conversation with the Samaritan Woman

7 A Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give me some water to drink.”

8 (For his disciples had gone off into the town to buy supplies.)

9 So the Samaritan woman said to him, “How can you—a Jew—ask me, a Samaritan woman, for water to drink?” (For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered her, “If you had known the gift of God and who it is who said to you, ‘Give me some water to drink,’ you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.”

11 “Sir,” the woman said to him, “you have no bucket and the well is deep; where then do you get this living water?”

12 Surely you’re not greater than our ancestor Jacob, are you? For he gave us this well and drank from it himself, along with his sons and his livestock.”

13 Jesus replied, “Everyone who drinks some of this water will be thirsty again.

14 But whoever drinks some of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again, but the water that I will give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up to eternal life.” cf. [Isa 55:1–3]

15 The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water.”

16 He said to her, “Go call your husband and come back here.”

17 The woman replied, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “Right you are when you said, ‘I have no husband,’

18 for you have had five husbands, and the man you are living with now is not your husband. This you said truthfully!”

19 The woman said to him, “Sir, I see that you are a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, cf. [Gen 12:6–7; 33:18–20; Deut 11:29] and you people say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.”

21 Jesus said to her, “Believe me, woman, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

22 You people worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, because salvation is from the Jews.

23 But a time is coming—and now is here—when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such people to be his worshipers.

24 God is spirit, and the people who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

25 The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (the one called Christ); “whenever he comes, he will tell us everything.”

26 Jesus said to her, “I, the one speaking to you, am he.”

The Disciples Return

27 Now at that very moment his disciples came back. They were shocked because he was speaking with a woman. However, no one said, “What do you want?” or “Why are you speaking with her?”

28 Then the woman left her water jar, went off into the town and said to the people,

29 “Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Surely he can’t be the Messiah, can he?”

30 So they left the town and began coming to him.

Workers for the Harvest

31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

32 But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

33 So the disciples began to say to one another, “No one brought him anything to eat, did they?”

34 Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of the one who sent me and to complete his work.

35 Don't you say, 'There are four more months and then comes the harvest?' I tell you, look up and see that the fields are already white for harvest!

36 The one who reaps receives pay and gathers fruit for eternal life, so that the one who sows and the one who reaps can rejoice together.

37 For in this instance the saying is true, 'One sows and another reaps.'

38 I sent you to reap what you did not work for; others have labored and you have entered into their labor."

The Samaritans Believe

39 Now many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the report of the woman who testified, "He told me everything I ever did."

40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they began asking him to stay with them. He stayed there two days, 41 and because of his word many more believed.

42 They said to the woman, "No longer do we believe because of your words, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this one really is the Savior of the world."

Galilean Ministry—A Warm Welcome (November/December 30)

John 4:43–45

43 After the two days he departed from there to Galilee.

44 (For Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.)

45 So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him because they had seen all the things he had done in Jerusalem at the feast (for they themselves had gone to the feast).

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Preaches the Gospel (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 4:17

Mark 1:14b–15

Luke 4:14b–15

17 From that time Jesus began to preach this message:

“Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near.”

14b and proclaimed the gospel of God.

15 He said, “The time is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe the gospel!”

14b and news about him spread throughout the surrounding countryside.
15 He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by all.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus’ Second Sign: Healing an Official’s Son (December 30 – March 31)

John 4:46–54

46 Now he came again to Cana in Galilee where he had made the water wine. In Capernaum there was a certain royal official whose son was sick.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come back from Judea to Galilee, he went to him and begged him to come down and heal his son, who was about to die.

48 So Jesus said to him, “Unless you people see signs and wonders you will never believe!”

49 “Sir,” the official said to him, “come down before my child dies.”

50 Jesus told him, “Go home; your son will live.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and set off for home.

51 While he was on his way down, his slaves met him and told him that his son was going to live.

52 So he asked them the time when his condition began to improve, and they told him, “Yesterday at one o’clock in the afternoon the fever left him.”

53 Then the father realized that it was the very time Jesus had said to him, “Your son will live,” and he himself believed along with his entire household.

54 Jesus did this as his second miraculous sign when he returned from Judea to Galilee.

Galilean Ministry—Rejection at Nazareth (December 30 – March 31)

Luke 4:16–30

16 Now Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read,

17 and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,

18 *“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and the regaining of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed,*

19 to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor.” [Isa 61:1–2a]

20 Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fixed on him.

21 Then he began to tell them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled even as you heard it being read.”

22 All were speaking well of him, and were amazed at the gracious words coming out of his mouth. They said, “Isn’t this Joseph’s son?”

23 Jesus said to them, “No doubt you will quote to me the proverb, ‘Physician, heal yourself!’ and say, ‘What we have heard that you did in Capernaum, do here in your hometown too.’”

24 And he added, “I tell you the truth, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown.”

25 But in truth I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in Elijah’s days, when the sky was shut up three and a half years, and there was a great famine over all the land.
 26 Yet Elijah was sent to none of them, but only to a woman who was a widow at Zarephath in Sidon. cf. [1 Kgs 17:8–24]
 27 And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, yet none of them was cleansed except Naaman the Syrian.” cf. [2 Kgs 5:1–19]
 28 When they heard this, all the people in the synagogue were filled with rage.
 29 They got up, forced him out of the town, and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff.
 30 But he passed through the crowd and went on his way.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Makes Capernaum His Home (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 4:13–16	Mark 1:21a	Luke 4:31a
13 While in Galilee, he moved from Nazareth to make his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 so that what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled: 15 “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way by the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— 16 the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, and on those who sit in the region and shadow of death a light has dawned.” [Isa 9:1–2]	21a Then they went to Capernaum.	31a So he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee,

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Calls Four Fishermen (December 30 – March 31)

Luke 5:1–11
1 Now Jesus was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing around him to hear the word of God. 2 He saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gotten out of them and were washing their nets. 3 He got into one of the boats, which was Simon’s, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then Jesus sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. 4 When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and lower your nets for a catch.” 5 Simon answered, “Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing! But at your word I will lower the nets.” 6 When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets started to tear. 7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they were about to sink. 8 But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” 9 For Peter and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, 10 and so were James and John, Zebedee’s sons, who were Simon’s business partners. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” 11 So when they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
Matthew 4:18–22	Mark 1:16–20
18 As he was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen). 19 He said to them, “Follow me, and I will turn you into fishers of people.” 20 They left their nets immediately and followed him. 21 Going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets.	16 As he went along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew, Simon’s brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen). 17 Jesus said to them, “Follow me, and I will turn you into fishers of people.” 18 They left their nets immediately and followed him. 19 Going on a little farther, he saw James, the son of Zebedee, and John his brother in their boat mending nets.

Then he called them. 22 They immediately left the boat and their father and followed him.	20 Immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed him.

Galilean Ministry—A Demon in the Synagogue (December 30 – March 31)

Mark 1:21b–28	Luke 4:31b–37
21b When the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 The people there were amazed by his teaching, because he taught them like one who had authority, not like the experts in the law. 23 Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 “Leave us alone, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!” 25 But Jesus rebuked him: “Silence! Come out of him!” 26 After throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit cried out with a loud voice and came out of him. 27 They were all amazed so that they asked each other, “What is this? A new teaching with authority! He even commands the unclean spirits and they obey him.” 28 So the news about him spread quickly throughout all the region around Galilee.	31b and on the Sabbath he began to teach the people. 32 They were amazed at his teaching, because he spoke with authority. 33 Now in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 “Ha! Leave us alone, Jesus the Nazarene! Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God.” 35 But Jesus rebuked him: “Silence! Come out of him!” Then, after the demon threw the man down in their midst, he came out of him without hurting him. 36 They were all amazed and began to say to one another, “What’s happening here? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!” 37 So the news about him spread into all areas of the region.

Chronological Notes

- 1) The similarities and differences between the synoptic accounts of Peter’s call (Matt 4:18–22; Mark 1:16–20; Luke 5:1–11) have caused scholars to come to different conclusions about the relationship of the two accounts. Some see them as different descriptions of the same event¹ while others see them as two separate events.² For now, I have chosen to group the events together in the reading.
- 2) Elements of Peter’s call resemble the post-resurrection story in John 21:1–14, but arguments for an originally post-resurrection setting for Luke’s tradition are unconvincing. Moreover, as Abogunrin has rightly noted, “The differences between the accounts are more striking than the similarities.”³

Galilean Ministry—Healings at Capernaum (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 8:14–17	Mark 1:29–34	Luke 4:38–41
14 Now when Jesus entered Peter’s house, he saw his mother-in-law lying down, sick with a fever. 15 He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she got up and began to serve them. 16 When it was evening, many demon-possessed people were brought to him. He drove out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick. 17 In this way what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet was fulfilled: “He took our weaknesses and carried our diseases.” [Isa 53:4]	29 Now as soon as they left the synagogue, they entered Simon and Andrew’s house, with James and John. 30 Simon’s mother-in-law was lying down, sick with a fever, so they spoke to Jesus at once about her. 31 He came and raised her up by gently taking her hand. Then the fever left her and she began to serve them. 32 When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and demon-possessed. 33 The whole town gathered by the door. 34 So he healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons. But he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.	38 After Jesus left the synagogue, he entered Simon’s house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a high fever, and they asked Jesus to help her. 39 So he stood over her, commanded the fever, and it left her. Immediately she got up and began to serve them. 40 As the sun was setting, all those who had any relatives sick with various diseases brought them to Jesus. He placed his hands on every one of them and healed them. 41 Demons also came out of many, crying out, “You are the Son of God!” But he rebuked them, and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

Galilean Ministry—Preaching Tour of Galilee (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 4:23–25	Mark 1:35–39	Luke 4:42–44
23 Jesus went throughout all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all kinds of disease and sickness among the people. 24 So a report about him spread throughout Syria. People brought to him all who suffered with various illnesses and afflictions, those who had seizures, paralytics, and those possessed by demons, and he healed them. 25 And large crowds followed him from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and beyond the Jordan River.	35 Then Jesus got up early in the morning when it was still very dark, departed, and went out to a deserted place, and there he spent time in prayer. 36 Simon and his companions searched for him. 37 When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.” 38 He replied, “Let us go elsewhere, into the surrounding villages, so that I can preach there too. For that is what I came out here to do.” 39 So he went into all of Galilee preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.	42 The next morning Jesus departed and went to a deserted place. Yet the crowds were seeking him, and they came to him and tried to keep him from leaving them. 43 But Jesus said to them, “I must proclaim the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns too, for that is what I was sent to do.” 44 So he continued to preach in the synagogues of Judea.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Heals a Leper (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 8:2-4	Mark 1:40-45	Luke 5:12-16
2 And a leper approached, and bowed low before him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." 3 He stretched out his hand and touched him saying, "I am willing. Be clean!" Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 Then Jesus said to him, "See that you do not speak to anyone, but go, show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."	40 Now a leper came to him and fell to his knees, asking for help. "If you are willing, you can make me clean," he said. 41 Moved with compassion, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean!" 42 The leprosy left him at once, and he was clean. 43 Immediately Jesus sent the man away with a very strong warning. 44 He told him, "See that you do not say anything to anyone, but go, show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them." 45 But as the man went out he began to announce it publicly and spread the story widely, so that Jesus was no longer able to enter any town openly but stayed outside in remote places. Still they kept coming to him from everywhere.	12 While Jesus was in one of the towns, a man came to him who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he bowed down with his face to the ground and begged him, "Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean." 13 So he stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be clean!" And immediately the leprosy left him. 14 Then he ordered the man to tell no one, but commanded him, "Go and show yourself to a priest, and bring the offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them." 15 But the news about him spread even more, and large crowds were gathering together to hear him and to be healed of their illnesses. 16 Yet Jesus himself frequently withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralytic (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 9:1-8	Mark 2:1-12	Luke 5:17-26
1 After getting into a boat he crossed to the other side and came to his own town. 2 Just then some people brought to him a paralytic lying on a stretcher.	1 Now after some days, when he returned to Capernaum, the news spread that he was at home. 2 So many gathered that there was no longer any room, not even by the door, and he preached the word to them. 3 Some people came bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four of them. 4 When they were not able to bring him in because of the crowd, they removed the roof above Jesus. Then, after tearing it out, they lowered the stretcher the paralytic was lying on.	17 Now on one of those days, while he was teaching, there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting nearby (who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem), and the power of the Lord was with him to heal. 18 Just then some men showed up, carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher. They were trying to bring him in and place him before Jesus. 19 But since they found no way to carry him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down on the stretcher through the roof tiles right in front of Jesus.

When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Have courage, son! Your sins are forgiven." 3 Then some of the experts in the law said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming!" 4 When Jesus saw their reaction he said, "Why do you respond with evil in your hearts?" 5 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'? 6 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then he said to the paralytic—"Stand up, take your stretcher, and go home." 7 And he stood up and went home. 8 When the crowd saw this, they were afraid and honored God who had given such authority to men.	5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." 6 Now some of the experts in the law were sitting there, turning these things over in their minds: 7 "Why does this man speak this way? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" 8 Now immediately, when Jesus realized in his spirit that they were contemplating such thoughts, he said to them, "Why are you thinking such things in your hearts?" 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up, take your stretcher, and walk'? 10 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins,"—he said to the paralytic— 11 "I tell you, stand up, take your stretcher, and go home." 12 And immediately the man stood up, took his stretcher, and went out in front of them all. They were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"	20 When Jesus saw their faith he said, "Friend, your sins are forgiven." 21 Then the experts in the law and the Pharisees began to think to themselves, "Who is this man who is uttering blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" 22 When Jesus perceived their hostile thoughts, he said to them, "Why are you raising objections within yourselves?" 23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Stand up and walk'? 24 But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralyzed man—"I tell you, stand up, take your stretcher and go home." 25 Immediately he stood up before them, picked up the stretcher he had been lying on, and went home, glorifying God. 26 Then astonishment seized them all, and they glorified God. They were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen incredible things today."

Galilean Ministry—The Call of Matthew (December 30 – March 31)
Matthew 9:9–13	Mark 2:13–17	Luke 5:27–32
9 As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him. And he got up and followed him. 10 As Jesus was having a meal in Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with Jesus and his disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw this they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 12 When Jesus heard this he said, "Those who are healthy don't need a physician, but those who are sick do." 13 Go and learn what this saying means:	13 Jesus went out again by the sea. The whole crowd came to him, and he taught them. 14 As he went along, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him. And he got up and followed him. 15 As Jesus was having a meal in Levi's home, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. 16 When the experts in the law and the Pharisees saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, they said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 17 When Jesus heard this he said to them, "Those who are healthy don't need a physician, but those who are sick do."	27 After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax booth. "Follow me," he said to him. 28 And he got up and followed him, leaving everything behind. 29 Then Levi gave a great banquet in his house for Jesus, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others sitting at the table with them. 30 But the Pharisees and their experts in the law complained to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" 31 Jesus answered them, "Those who are well don't need a physician, but those who are sick do."

'I want mercy and not sacrifice.' [Hos 6:6] For I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."	I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners."	32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Galilean Ministry—Question about Fasting (December 30 – March 31)

Matthew 9:14–17	Mark 2:18–22	Luke 5:33–39
14 Then John’s disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don’t fast?” 15 Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast. 16 No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, because the patch will pull away from the garment and the tear will be worse. 17 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise the skins burst and the wine is spilled out and the skins are destroyed. Instead they put new wine into new wineskins and both are preserved.”	18 Now John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. So they came to Jesus and said, “Why do the disciples of John and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don’t fast?” 19 Jesus said to them, “The wedding guests cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they do not fast. 20 But the days are coming when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and at that time they will fast. 21 No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and the tear becomes worse. 22 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins; otherwise, the wine will burst the skins, and both the wine and the skins will be destroyed. Instead new wine is poured into new wineskins.”	33 Then they said to him, “John’s disciples frequently fast and pray, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours continue to eat and drink.” 34 So Jesus said to them, “You cannot make the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you? 35 But those days are coming, and when the bridegroom is taken from them, at that time they will fast.” 36 He also told them a parable: “No one tears a patch from a new garment and sews it on an old garment. If he does, he will have torn the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old. 37 And no one pours new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins and will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. 38 Instead new wine must be poured into new wineskins. 39 No one after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says, ‘The old is good enough.’”

In Jerusalem—Jesus’ Third Sign: Healing the Sick on the Sabbath (March 27 – April 3, 31)

John 5

Jesus, in Jerusalem for the Feast of Tabernacles, Heals a Man at the Pool of Bethesda

- 1 After this there was a Jewish feast, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
- 2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool called Bethzatha in Aramaic, which has five covered walkways.
- 3 A great number of sick, blind, lame, and paralyzed people were lying in these walkways.
- 4 [vv. 3b-4 are not found in the earliest and best manuscripts; the NET translation thus omits them]
- 5 Now a man was there who had been disabled for thirty-eight years.
- 6 When Jesus saw him lying there and when he realized that the man had been disabled a long time already, he said to him, “Do you want to become well?”
- 7 The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up. While I am trying to get into the water, someone else goes down there before me.”
- 8 Jesus said to him, “Stand up! Pick up your mat and walk.”
- 9 Immediately the man was healed, and he picked up his mat and started walking. (Now that day was a Sabbath.)

Trouble with the Jewish Leaders

- 10 So the Jewish leaders said to the man who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath, and you are not permitted to carry your mat.”
- 11 But he answered them, “The man who made me well said to me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”
- 12 They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Pick up your mat and walk?’”
- 13 But the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had slipped out, since there was a crowd in that place.
- 14 After this Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, “Look, you have become well. Don’t sin any more, lest anything worse happen to you.”
- 15 The man went away and informed the Jewish leaders that Jesus was the one who had made him well.
- 16 Now because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jewish leaders began persecuting him.

17 So he told them, “My Father is working until now, and I too am working.”

18 For this reason the Jewish leaders were trying even harder to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was also calling God his own Father, thus making himself equal with God.

Jesus’ Discourse on the Son’s Equality with the Father

19 So Jesus answered them, “I tell you the solemn truth, the Son can do nothing on his own initiative, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, the Son does likewise.

20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he does, and will show him greater deeds than these, so that you will be amazed.

21 For just as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whomever he wishes.

22 Furthermore, the Father does not judge anyone, but has assigned all judgment to the Son,

23 so that all people will honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The one who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.

24 “I tell you the solemn truth, the one who hears my message and believes the one who sent me has eternal life and will not be condemned, but has crossed over from death to life.

25 I tell you the solemn truth, a time is coming—and is now here—when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.

26 For just as the Father has life in himself, thus he has granted the Son to have life in himself,

27 and he has granted the Son authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

28 “Do not be amazed at this, because a time is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice

29 and will come out—the ones who have done what is good to the resurrection resulting in life, and the ones who have done what is evil to the resurrection resulting in condemnation.

30 I can do nothing on my own initiative. Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I do not seek my own will, but the will of the one who sent me.

31 “If I testify about myself, my testimony is not true.

32 There is another who testifies about me, and I know the testimony he testifies about me is true.

33 You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.

34 (I do not accept human testimony, but I say this so that you may be saved.)

35 He was a lamp that was burning and shining, and you wanted to rejoice greatly for a short time in his light.

36 “But I have a testimony greater than that from John. For the deeds that the Father has assigned me to complete—the deeds I am now doing—testify about me that the Father has sent me.

37 And the Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You people have never heard his voice nor seen his form at any time, 38 nor do you have his word residing in you, because you do not believe the one whom he sent.

39 You study the scriptures thoroughly because you think in them you possess eternal life, and it is these same scriptures that testify about me, cf. [Isa 42:1–7]

40 but you are not willing to come to me so that you may have life.

41 “I do not accept praise from people,

42 but I know you, that you do not have the love of God within you.

43 I have come in my Father’s name, and you do not accept me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will accept him.

44 How can you believe, if you accept praise from one another and don’t seek the praise that comes from the only God?

45 “Do not suppose that I will accuse you before the Father. The one who accuses you is Moses, in whom you have placed your hope.

46 If you believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. cf. [Deut 18:15]

47 But if you do not believe what Moses wrote, how will you believe my words?”

Galilean Ministry—Man with the Paralyzed Hand (April – December 31)

Matthew 12:9–14	Mark 3:1–6	Luke 6:6–11
9 Then Jesus left that place and entered their synagogue. 10 A man was there who had a withered hand. And they asked Jesus, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” so that they could accuse him. 11 He said to them, “Would not any one of you, if he had one sheep that fell into a pit on the Sabbath, take hold of it and lift it out? [cf. Deut 22:4] 12 How much more valuable is a person than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” 13 Then he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out and it was restored, as healthy as the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted against him, as to how they could assassinate him.	1 Then Jesus entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand. 2 They watched Jesus closely to see if he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they could accuse him. 3 So he said to the man who had the withered hand, “Stand up among all these people.” 4 Then he said to them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or evil, to save a life or destroy it?” But they were silent. 5 After looking around at them in anger, grieved by the hardness of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. 6 So the Pharisees went out immediately and began plotting with the Herodians, as to how they could assassinate him.	6 On another Sabbath, Jesus entered the synagogue and was teaching. Now a man was there whose right hand was withered. 7 The experts in the law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely to see if he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they could find a reason to accuse him. 8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, “Get up and stand here.” So he rose and stood there. 9 Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy it?” 10 After looking around at them all, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” The man did so, and his hand was restored. 11 But they were filled with mindless rage and began debating with one another what they would do to Jesus.

Galilean Ministry—The Servant of the Lord (April – December 31)

Matthew 12:15–21	Mark 3:7–12
15 Now when Jesus learned of this, he went away from there. Great crowds followed him, and he healed them all. 16 But he sternly warned them not to make him known. 17 This fulfilled what was spoken by Isaiah the prophet: 18 “Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I take great delight. I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations. 19 He will not quarrel or cry out, nor will anyone hear his voice in	7 Then Jesus went away with his disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him. And from Judea, 8 Jerusalem, Idumea, beyond the Jordan River, and around Tyre and Sidon a great multitude came to him when they heard about the things he had done. 9 Because of the crowd, he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him so the crowd would not press toward him. 10 For he had healed many, so that all who were afflicted with diseases pressed toward him in order to touch him. 11 And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, “You are the Son of God.” 12 But he sternly ordered them not to make him known.

Galilean Ministry—Appointment of the Twelve Apostles (April – December 31)

Mark 3:13–19

Luke 6:12–16

13 Now Jesus went up the mountain and called for those he wanted, and they came to him.
14 He appointed twelve (whom he named apostles), so that they would be with him and he could send them to preach
15 and to have authority to cast out demons.
16 He appointed twelve: To Simon he gave the name Peter;
17 to James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee, he gave the name Boanerges (that is, “sons of thunder”);
18 and Andrew,
Philip, Bartholomew,
Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus,
Simon the Zealot,
19 and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

12 Now it was during this time that Jesus went out to the mountain to pray, and he spent all night in prayer to God.
13 When morning came, he called his disciples and chose twelve of them, whom he also named apostles:

14a Simon (whom he named Peter),
14c and James, John,

14b and his brother Andrew;
14d Philip, Bartholomew,
15a Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus,
16a Judas the son of James,
15b Simon who was called the Zealot,
16b and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Galilean Ministry—Sermon on the Mount: Setting (April – December 31)

Matthew 5:1–2

Luke 6:17–20a

1 When he saw the crowds, he went up the mountain. After he sat down his disciples came to him.

2 Then he began to teach them by saying:

17 Then he came down with them and stood on a level place. And a large number of his disciples had gathered along with a vast multitude from all over Judea, from Jerusalem, and from the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. They came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases,
18 and those who suffered from unclean spirits were cured.
19 The whole crowd was trying to touch him, because power was coming out from him and healing them all.
20a Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

Matthew 5:3–12

Luke 6:20b–26

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them.
4 “Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
5 “Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

7 “Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
8 “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
9 “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called the children of God.
10 “Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to them.

Galilean Ministry—Sermon on the Mount: Salt and Light (April – December 31)

Matthew 5:13–20

13 “You are the salt of the earth. But if salt loses its flavor, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled on by people.
14 You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill cannot be hidden.
15 People do not light a lamp and put it under a basket but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.
16 In the same way, let your light shine before people, so that they can see your good deeds and give honor to your Father in heaven.
17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have not come to abolish these things but to fulfill them.
18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth pass away not the smallest letter or stroke of a letter will pass from the law until everything takes place.
19 So anyone who breaks one of the least of these commands and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever obeys them and teaches others to do so will be called great in the kingdom of heaven.
20 For I tell you, unless your righteousness goes beyond that of the experts in the law and the Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Galilean Ministry—Sermon on the Mount: OT Law and the Heart (April – December 31)

Matthew 5:21–48

Luke 6:27–30, 32–36

Murder

21 “You have heard that it was said to an older generation, ‘Do not murder,’ and ‘whoever murders will be subjected to judgment.’ [Exod 20:13; Deut 5:17]
22 But I say to you that anyone who is angry with a brother will be subjected to judgment. And whoever insults a brother will be brought before the council, and whoever says ‘Fool’ will be sent to fiery hell.
23 So then, if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you,
24 leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother and then come and present your gift.
25 Reach agreement quickly with your accuser while on the way to court, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the warden, and you will be thrown into prison.
26 I tell you the truth, you will never get out of there until you have paid the last penny!

Adultery

27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘Do not commit adultery.’ [Exod 20:14; Deut 5:18]
28 But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to desire her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.
29 If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away! It is better to lose one of your members than to have your whole body thrown into hell.
30 If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away! It is better to lose one of your members than to have your whole body go into hell.

Divorce

31 “It was said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife must give her a legal document.’ [Deut 24:1–3]
32 But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except for immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Vows

33 “Again, you have heard that it was said to an older generation, ‘Do not break an oath, but fulfill your vows to the Lord.’ [Lev 19:12; Num 30:2; Deut 23:21]
34 But I say to you, do not take oaths at all—not by heaven, because it is the throne of God,
35 not by earth, because it is his footstool, and not by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the great King. cf. [Ps 48:2]

36 Do not take an oath by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black.
 37 Let your word be 'Yes, yes' or 'No, no.' More than this is from the evil one.

Crime and Punishment

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' [Exod 21:24; Lev 24:20; Deut 19:21]

39 But I say to you, do not resist the evildoer.

But whoever strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other to him as well.

40 And if someone wants to sue you and to take your tunic, give him your coat also.

41 And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two.

42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not reject the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love and Hate

43 "You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor' [Lev 19:18] and 'hate your enemy.'

44 But I say to you, love your enemy and pray for those who persecute you,

45 so that you may be like your Father in heaven, since he causes the sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. [cf. Acts 14:17]

46 For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Even the tax collectors do the same, don't they?

47 And if you only greet your brothers, what more do you do? Even the Gentiles do the same, don't they?

48 So then, be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

29 To the person who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other as well, and from the person who takes away your coat, do not withhold your tunic either.

30 Give to everyone who asks you, and do not ask for your possessions back from the person who takes them away.

27 "But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.

32 "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same.

34 And if you lend to those from whom you hope to be repaid, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, so that they may be repaid in full.

35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, because he is kind to ungrateful and evil people.

36 Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Galilean Ministry—Sermon on the Mount: Authentic Righteousness (April – December 31)

Matthew 6:1–18

- 1 “Be careful not to display your righteousness merely to be seen by people. Otherwise you have no reward with your Father in heaven.
- 2 Thus whenever you do charitable giving, do not blow a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in synagogues and on streets so that people will praise them. I tell you the truth, they have their reward.
- 3 But when you do your giving, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing,
- 4 so that your gift may be in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.
- 5 “Whenever you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, because they love to pray while standing in synagogues and on street corners so that people can see them. Truly I say to you, they have their reward.
- 6 But whenever you pray, go into your room, close the door, and pray to your Father in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.
- 7 When you pray, do not babble repetitiously like the Gentiles, because they think that by their many words they will be heard.
- 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.
- 9 So pray this way: Our Father in heaven, may your name be honored,
- 10 may your kingdom come, may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
- 11 Give us today our daily bread,
- 12 and forgive us our debts, as we ourselves have forgiven our debtors.
- 13 And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.
- 14 “For if you forgive others their sins, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.
- 15 But if you do not forgive others, your Father will not forgive you your sins.
- 16 “When you fast, do not look sullen like the hypocrites, for they make their faces unattractive so that people will see them fasting. I tell you the truth, they have their reward.
- 17 When you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face,
- 18 so that it will not be obvious to others when you are fasting, but only to your Father who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

Galilean Ministry—Sermon on the Mount: Kingdom First (April – December 31)

Matthew 6:19–34

- 19 “Do not accumulate for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal.
- 20 But accumulate for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal.
- 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
- 22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. If then your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light.
- 23 But if your eye is diseased, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!
- 24 “No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.
- 25 “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Isn’t there more to life than food and more to the body than clothing?
- 26 Look at the birds in the sky: They do not sow, or reap, or gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren’t you more valuable than they are?
- 27 And which of you by worrying can add even one hour to his life?
- 28 Why do you worry about clothing? Think about how the flowers of the field grow; they do not work or spin.
- 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these!
- 30 And if this is how God clothes the wild grass, which is here today and tomorrow is tossed into the fire to heat the oven, won’t he clothe you even more, you people of little faith?
- 31 So then, don’t worry saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’
- 32 For the unconverted pursue these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them.
- 33 But above all pursue his kingdom and righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.
- 34 So then, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Today has enough trouble of its own.

Galilean Ministry—A Centurion’s Faith (April – December 31)

Matthew 8:5–13	Luke 7:1–10
5 When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him asking for help: 6 “Lord, my servant is lying at home paralyzed, in terrible anguish.” 7 Jesus said to him, “I will come and heal him.” 8 But the centurion replied, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. Instead, just say the word and my servant will be healed. 9 For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go’ and he goes, and to another ‘Come’ and he comes, and to my slave ‘Do this’ and he does it.” 10 When Jesus heard this he was amazed and said to those who followed him, “I tell you the truth, I have not found such faith in anyone in Israel! 11 I tell you, many will come from the east and west to share the banquet with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, 12 but the sons of the kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” 13 Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go; just as you believed, it will be done for you.” And the servant was healed at that hour.	1 After Jesus had finished teaching all this to the people, he entered Capernaum. 2 A centurion there had a slave who was highly regarded, but who was sick and at the point of death. 3 When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders to him, asking him to come and heal his slave. 4 When they came to Jesus, they urged him earnestly, “He is worthy to have you do this for him, 5 because he loves our nation, and even built our synagogue.” 6 So Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to say to him, “Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. 7 That is why I did not presume to come to you. Instead, say the word, and my servant must be healed. 8 For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me. I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.” 9 When Jesus heard this, he was amazed at him. He turned and said to the crowd that followed him, “I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith!” 10 So when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave well.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Raises the Widow’s Son (April – December 31)

Luke 7:11–17
11 Soon afterward Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. 12 As he approached the town gate, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother (who was a widow), and a large crowd from the town was with her. 13 When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, “Do not weep.” 14 Then he came up and touched the bier, and those who carried it stood still. He said, “Young man, I say to you, get up!” 15 So the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him back to his mother. 16 Fear seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying, “A great prophet has appeared among us!” and “God has come to help his people!” 17 This report about Jesus circulated throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Galilean Ministry—Concerning John (April – December 31)

Matthew 11:2–19	Luke 7:18–35
2 Now when John heard in prison about the deeds Christ had done, he sent his disciples to ask a question:	18 John’s disciples informed him about all these things. So John called two of his disciples 19 and sent them to Jesus to ask,

3 “Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?” 4 Jesus answered them, “Go tell John what you hear and see: 5 The blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news proclaimed to them. 6 Blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.” 7 While they were going away, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 8 What did you go out to see? A man dressed in fancy clothes? Look, those who wear fancy clothes are in the homes of kings! 9 What did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 10 This is the one about whom it is written: ‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’ [Mal 3:1] 11 “I tell you the truth, among those born of women, no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he is. 12 From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has suffered violence, and forceful people lay hold of it. 13 For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John appeared. 14 And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah, who is to come. 15 The one who has ears had better listen! 16 “To what should I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to one another, 17 ‘We played the flute for you, yet you did not dance; we wailed in mourning, yet you did not weep.’ 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon!’ 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Look at him, a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is vindicated by her deeds.”	“Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?” 20 When the men came to Jesus, they said, “John the Baptist has sent us to you to ask, ‘Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another?’” 21 At that very time Jesus cured many people of diseases, sicknesses, and evil spirits, and granted sight to many who were blind. 22 So he answered them, “Go tell John what you have seen and heard: The blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor have good news proclaimed to them. 23 Blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me.” 24 When John’s messengers had gone, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 What did you go out to see? A man dressed in fancy clothes? Look, those who wear fancy clothes and live in luxury are in kings’ courts! 26 What did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 27 This is the one about whom it is written, ‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’ 28 I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he is.” 29 (Now all the people who heard this, even the tax collectors, acknowledged God’s justice, because they had been baptized with John’s baptism. 30 However, the Pharisees and the experts in religious law rejected God’s purpose for themselves, because they had not been baptized by John.) 31 “To what then should I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? 32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another, ‘We played the flute for you, yet you did not dance; we wailed in mourning, yet you did not weep.’ 33 For John the Baptist has come eating no bread and drinking no wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon!’ 34 The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look at him, a glutton and a drunk, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ 35 But wisdom is vindicated by all her children.”

Galilean Ministry—Woe on Chorazin and Bethsaida (April – December 31)

Matthew 11:20–30

20 Then Jesus began to criticize openly the cities in which he had done many of his miracles, because they did not repent.
21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! If the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you!

23 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be thrown down to Hades! For if the miracles done among you had been done in Sodom, it would have continued to this day.

24 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom on the day of judgment than for you!”

25 At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children.

26 Yes, Father, for this was your gracious will.

27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son decides to reveal him.

28 Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke on you and learn from me, because I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy to bear, and my load is not hard to carry.”

Galilean Ministry—Much Forgiveness, Much Love (April – December 31)

Luke 7:36–50

36 Now one of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so he went into the Pharisee’s house and took his place at the table.
 37 Then when a woman of that town, who was a sinner, learned that Jesus was dining at the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil.
 38 As she stood behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. She wiped them with her hair, kissed them, and anointed them with the perfumed oil.
 39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching him, that she is a sinner.”
 40 So Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” He replied, “Say it, Teacher.”
 41 “A certain creditor had two debtors; one owed him five hundred silver coins, and the other fifty.
 42 When they could not pay, he canceled the debts of both. Now which of them will love him more?”
 43 Simon answered, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt canceled.” Jesus said to him, “You have judged rightly.”
 44 Then, turning toward the woman, he said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I entered your house. You gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair.
 45 You gave me no kiss of greeting, but from the time I entered she has not stopped kissing my feet.
 46 You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with perfumed oil.
 47 Therefore I tell you, her sins, which were many, are forgiven, thus she loved much; but the one who is forgiven little loves little.”
 48 Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”
 49 But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, “Who is this, who even forgives sins?”
 50 He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Galilean Ministry—Women Support Christ’s Ministry (April – December 31)

Luke 8:1–3

1 Some time afterward he went on through towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The twelve were with him,
 2 and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and disabilities: Mary (called Magdalene), from whom seven demons had gone out,
 3 and Joanna the wife of Cuza (Herod’s household manager), Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their own resources.

Galilean Ministry—A Blasphemous Accusation (April – December 31)

Matthew 12:22–37

22 Then they brought to him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute. Jesus healed him so that he could speak and see.
 23 All the crowds were amazed and said, “Could this one be the Son of David?” cf. [2 Sam 7:12–16; 1 Chr 17:11–14]
 24 But when the Pharisees heard this they said,
 “He does not cast out demons except by the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons!”
 25 Now when Jesus realized what they were thinking, he said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and no town or house divided against itself will stand.
 26 So if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself.
 How then will his kingdom stand?

Mark 3:20–30

20 Now Jesus went home, and a crowd gathered so that they were not able to eat.
 21 When his family heard this they went out to restrain him, for they said, “He is out of his mind.”
 22 The experts in the law who came down from Jerusalem said,
 “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and,
 “By the ruler of demons he casts out demons.”
 23 So he called them and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan cast out Satan?
 24 If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom will not be able to stand.
 25 If a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.
 26 And if Satan rises against himself and is divided, he is not able to stand and his end has come.

27 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? For this reason they will be your judges. 28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has already overtaken you. 29 How else can someone enter a strong man’s house and steal his property, unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can thoroughly plunder the house. 30 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. 31 For this reason I tell you, people will be forgiven for every sin and blasphemy, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. 32 Whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come. 33 “Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is known by its fruit. 34 Offspring of vipers! How are you able to say anything good, since you are evil? For the mouth speaks from what fills the heart. 35 The good person brings good things out of his good treasury, and the evil person brings evil things out of his evil treasury. 36 I tell you that on the day of judgment, people will give an account for every worthless word they speak. 37 For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”	27 But no one is able to enter a strong man’s house and steal his property unless he first ties up the strong man. Then he can thoroughly plunder his house. 28 I tell you the truth, people will be forgiven for all sins, even all the blasphemies they utter. 29 But whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, but is guilty of an eternal sin” 30 (because they said, “He has an unclean spirit”).

Galilean Ministry—An Evil Generation Asks for a Sign (April – December 31)
Matthew 12:38–45
38 Then some of the experts in the law along with some Pharisees answered him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.” 39 But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 For just as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish for three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. [cf. Jonah 1:17] 41 The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented when Jonah preached to them—and now, something greater than Jonah is here! [cf. Jonah 3] 42 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon—and now, something greater than Solomon is here! [cf. 1 Kgs 10:1–10; 2 Chr 9:1–12] 43 “When an unclean spirit goes out of a person, it passes through waterless places looking for rest but does not find it. 44 Then it says, ‘I will return to the home I left.’ When it returns, it finds the house empty, swept clean, and put in order. 45 Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there, so the last state of that person is worse than the first. It will be that way for this evil generation as well!”

Galilean Ministry—Christ’s Spiritual Family (April – December 31)
Matthew 12:46–50	Mark 3:31–35	Luke 8:19–21
46 While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers came and stood outside, asking to speak to him. 47 Someone told him, “Look, your mother and your brothers are standing outside	31 Then Jesus’ mother and his brothers came. Standing outside, they sent word to him, to summon him. 32 A crowd was sitting around him and they said to him, “Look, your mother and your brothers are outside	19 Now Jesus’ mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not get near him because of the crowd. 20 So he was told, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside,

wanting to speak to you.” 48 To the one who had said this, Jesus replied, “Who is my mother and who are my brothers?” 49 And pointing toward his disciples he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! 50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”	looking for you.” 33 He answered them and said, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” 34 And looking at those who were sitting around him in a circle, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers! 35 For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”	wanting to see you.” 21 But he replied to them, “My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it.”

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Setting (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:1–3a	Mark 4:1–2	Luke 8:4

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Sower and Soils (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:3b–9	Mark 4:3–9	Luke 8:5–8
3b "Listen! A sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. 5 Other seeds fell on rocky ground where they did not have much soil. They sprang up quickly because the soil was not deep. 6 But when the sun came up, they were scorched, and because they did not have sufficient root, they withered. 7 Other seeds fell among the thorns, and they grew up and choked them. 8 But other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some a hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. 9 The one who has ears had better listen!"	3 "Listen! A sower went out to sow. 4 And as he sowed, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it. 5 Other seed fell on rocky ground where it did not have much soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep. 6 When the sun came up it was scorched, and because it did not have sufficient root, it withered. 7 Other seed fell among the thorns, and they grew up and choked it, and it did not produce grain. 8 But other seed fell on good soil and produced grain, sprouting and growing; some yielded thirty times as much, some sixty, and some a hundred times." 9 And he said, "Whoever has ears to hear had better listen!"	5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled on, and the wild birds devoured it. 6 Other seed fell on rock, and when it came up, it withered because it had no moisture. 7 Other seed fell among the thorns, and they grew up with it and choked it. 8 But other seed fell on good soil and grew, and it produced a hundred times as much grain." As he said this, he called out, "The one who has ears to hear had better listen!"

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Growing Seed (April – December 31)

Mark 4:26–29

26 He also said, "The kingdom of God is like someone who spreads seed on the ground.

27 He goes to sleep and gets up, night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows, though he does not know how.

28 By itself the soil produces a crop, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head.

29 And when the grain is ripe, he sends in the sickle because the harvest has come."

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Wheat and Tares (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:24–30

24 He presented them with another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a person who sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while everyone was sleeping, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away.

26 When the plants sprouted and bore grain, then the weeds also appeared.

27 So the slaves of the owner came and said to him, 'Sir, didn't you sow good seed in your field? Then where did the weeds come from?'

28 He said, 'An enemy has done this.' So the slaves replied, 'Do you want us to go and gather them?'

29 But he said, 'No, since in gathering the weeds you may uproot the wheat with them.'

30 Let both grow together until the harvest. At harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned, but then gather the wheat into my barn."""

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Mustard Seed (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:31–32	Mark 4:30–32
31 He gave them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. 32 It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest garden plant and becomes a tree, so that the wild birds come and nest in its branches."	30 He also asked, "To what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use to present it?" 31 It is like a mustard seed that when sown in the ground, even though it is the smallest of all the seeds in the ground— 32 when it is sown, it grows up, becomes the greatest of all garden plants, and grows large branches so that the wild birds can nest in its shade."

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Leavened Loaf (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:33–36a	Mark 4:33–34
33 He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour until all the dough had risen." 34 Jesus spoke all these things in parables to the crowds; he did not speak to them without a parable. 35 This fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has been hidden from the foundation of the world." [Ps 78:2] 36a Then he left the crowds and went into the house.	33 So with many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear. 34 He did not speak to them without a parable. But privately he explained everything to his own disciples.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Sower and Soils Explained (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:10–23	Mark 4:10–25	Luke 8:9–18
10 Then the disciples came to him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" 11 He replied, "You have been given the opportunity to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but they have not. 12 For whoever has will be given more, and will have an abundance. But whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him. 13 For this reason I speak to them in parables: Although they see they do not see, and although they hear they do not hear nor do they understand. 14 And concerning them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: 'You will listen carefully yet will never understand, you will look closely yet will never comprehend. 15 For the heart of this people has become dull; they are hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes, so that they would	10 When he was alone, those around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. 11 He said to them, "The secret of the kingdom of God has been given to you. But to those outside, everything is in parables, 12 so that although they look they may look but not see, and although they hear they may hear but not understand, so they may not repent and be forgiven."	9 Then his disciples asked him what this parable meant. 10 He said, "You have been given the opportunity to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but for others they are in parables, so that although they see they may not see, and although they hear they may not understand.

not see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them.’ [Isa 6:9–10] 16 “But your eyes are blessed because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 For I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it. 18 “So listen to the parable of the sower: 19 When anyone hears the word about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches what was sown in his heart; this is the seed sown along the path. 20 The seed sown on rocky ground is the person who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy. 21 But he has no root in himself and does not endure; when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately he falls away. 22 The seed sown among thorns is the person who hears the word, but worldly cares and the seductiveness of wealth choke the word, so it produces nothing. 23 But as for the seed sown on good soil, this is the person who hears the word and understands. He bears fruit, yielding a hundred, sixty, or thirty times what was sown.”	13 He said to them, “Don’t you understand this parable? Then how will you understand any parable? 14 The sower sows the word. 15 These are the ones on the path where the word is sown: Whenever they hear, immediately Satan comes and snatches the word that was sown in them. 16 These are the ones sown on rocky ground: As soon as they hear the word, they receive it with joy. 17 But they have no root in themselves and do not endure. Then, when trouble or persecution comes because of the word, immediately they fall away. 18 Others are the ones sown among thorns: They are those who hear the word, 19 but worldly cares, the seductiveness of wealth, and the desire for other things come in and choke the word, and it produces nothing. 20 But these are the ones sown on good soil: They hear the word and receive it and bear fruit, one thirty times as much, one sixty, and one a hundred.” 21 He also said to them, “A lamp isn’t brought to be put under a basket or under a bed, is it? Isn’t it to be placed on a lampstand? 22 For nothing is hidden except to be revealed, and nothing concealed except to be brought to light. 23 If anyone has ears to hear, he had better listen!” 24 And he said to them, “Take care about what you hear. The measure you use will be the measure you receive, and more will be added to you. 25 For whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.”	11 “Now the parable means this: The seed is the word of God. 12 Those along the path are the ones who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. 13 Those on the rock are the ones who receive the word with joy when they hear it, but they have no root. They believe for a while, but in a time of testing fall away. 14 As for the seed that fell among thorns, these are the ones who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the worries and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. 15 But as for the seed that landed on good soil, these are the ones who, after hearing the word, cling to it with an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with steadfast endurance. 16 “No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in can see the light. 17 For nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing concealed that will not be made known and brought to light. 18 So listen carefully, for whoever has will be given more, but whoever does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken from him.”

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Wheat and Tares Explained (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:36b–43

36b And his disciples came to him saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."

37 He answered, "The one who sowed the good seed is the Son of Man.

38 The field is the world and the good seed are the people of the kingdom. The weeds are the people of the evil one,

39 and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

40 As the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be at the end of the age.

41 The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather from his kingdom everything that causes sin as well as all lawbreakers.

42 They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. The one who has ears had better listen!

Galilean Ministry—Jesus' Parables: Kingdom of Heaven (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:44–53

44 "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure, hidden in a field, that a person found and hid. Then because of joy he went and sold all that he had and bought that field.

45 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls.

46 When he found a pearl of great value, he went out and sold everything he had and bought it.

47 "Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea that caught all kinds of fish.

48 When it was full, they pulled it ashore, sat down, and put the good fish into containers and threw the bad away.

49 It will be this way at the end of the age. Angels will come and separate the evil from the righteous

50 and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 "Have you understood all these things?" They replied, "Yes."

52 Then he said to them, "Therefore every expert in the law who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his treasure what is new and old."

53 Now when Jesus finished these parables, he moved on from there.

Galilean Ministry—Jesus Calms the Storm (April – December 31)

Matthew 8:18, 23–27	Mark 4:35–41	Luke 8:22–25
18 Now when Jesus saw a large crowd around him, he gave orders to go to the other side of the lake. 23 As he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. 24 And a great storm developed on the sea so that the waves began to swamp the boat. But he was asleep. 25 So they came and woke him up saying, “Lord, save us! We are about to die!” 26 But he said to them, “Why are you cowardly, you people of little faith?” Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and it was dead calm. 27 And the men were amazed and said, “What sort of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him!”	35 On that day, when evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s go across to the other side of the lake.” 36 So after leaving the crowd, they took him along, just as he was, in the boat, and other boats were with him. 37 Now a great windstorm developed and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was nearly swamped. 38 But he was in the stern, sleeping on a cushion. They woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, don’t you care that we are about to die?” 39 So he got up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Be quiet! Calm down!” Then the wind stopped, and it was dead calm. 40 And he said to them, “Why are you cowardly? Do you still not have faith?” 41 They were overwhelmed by fear and said to one another, “Who then is this? Even the wind and sea obey him!”	22 One day Jesus got into a boat with his disciples and said to them, “Let’s go across to the other side of the lake.” So they set out, 23 and as they sailed he fell asleep. Now a violent windstorm came down on the lake, and the boat started filling up with water, and they were in danger. 24 They came and woke him, saying, “Master, Master, we are about to die!” So he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they died down, and it was calm. 25 Then he said to them, “Where is your faith?” But they were afraid and amazed, saying to one another, “Who then is this? He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him!”

Galilean Ministry—The Gerasene Demoniacs (April – December 31)

Matthew 8:28–34	Mark 5:1–20	Luke 8:26–39
28 When he came to the other side, to the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were extremely violent, so that no one was able to pass by that way. 29 They cried out, “Son of God, leave us alone! Have you come here to torment us before the time?”	1 So they came to the other side of the lake, to the region of the Gerasenes. 2 Just as Jesus was getting out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit came from the tombs and met him. 3 He lived among the tombs, and no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain. 4 For his hands and feet had often been bound with chains and shackles, but he had torn the chains apart and broken the shackles in pieces. No one was strong enough to subdue him. 5 Each night and every day among the tombs and in the mountains, he would cry out and cut himself with stones. 6 When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him. 7 Then he cried out with a loud voice, “Leave me alone, Jesus, Son of the Most High God! I implore you by God—do not torment me!” 8 (For Jesus had said to him, “Come out of that man, you unclean spirit!”)	26 So they sailed over to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. 27 As Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man from the town met him who was possessed by demons. For a long time this man had worn no clothes and had not lived in a house, but among the tombs. 28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell down before him, and shouted with a loud voice, “Leave me alone, Jesus, Son of the Most High God! I beg you, do not torment me!” 29 For Jesus had started commanding the evil spirit to come out of the man.

30 A large herd of pigs was feeding some distance from them. 31 Then the demons begged him, "If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs." 32 And he said, "Go!" So they came out and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake and drowned in the water. 33 The herdsmen ran off, went into the town, and told everything that had happened to the demon-possessed men. 34 Then the entire town came out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.	9 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "My name is Legion, for we are many." 10 He begged Jesus repeatedly not to send them out of the region. 11 There on the hillside, a great herd of pigs was feeding. 12 And the demonic spirits begged him, "Send us into the pigs. Let us enter them." 13 Jesus gave them permission. So the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs. Then the herd rushed down the steep slope into the lake, and about two thousand were drowned in the lake. 14 Now the herdsmen ran off and spread the news in the town and countryside, and the people went out to see what had happened. 15 They came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed man sitting there, clothed and in his right mind—the one who had the "Legion"—and they were afraid. 16 Those who had seen what had happened to the demon-possessed man reported it, and they also told about the pigs. 17 Then they asked Jesus to leave their region. 18 As he was getting into the boat the man who had been demon-possessed asked if he could go with him. 19 But Jesus did not permit him to do so. Instead, he said to him, "Go to your home and to your people and tell them what the Lord has done for you, that he had mercy on you." 20 So he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis what Jesus had done for him, and all were amazed.	(For it had seized him many times, so he would be bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard. But he would break the restraints and be driven by the demon into deserted places.) 30 Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," because many demons had entered him. 31 And they began to beg him not to order them to depart into the abyss. 32 Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and the demonic spirits begged Jesus to let them go into them. He gave them permission. 33 So the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd of pigs rushed down the steep slope into the lake and drowned. 34 When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they ran off and spread the news in the town and countryside. 35 So the people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus. They found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. 36 Those who had seen it told them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been healed. 37 Then all the people of the Gerasenes and the surrounding region asked Jesus to leave them alone, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and left. 38 The man from whom the demons had gone out begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 "Return to your home, and declare what God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole town what Jesus had done for him.

Galilean Ministry—Jairus' Daughter Restored and a Woman Healed (April – December 31)

Matthew 9:18–26	Mark 5:21–43	Luke 8:40–56
18 As he was saying these things, a ruler came, bowed low before him, and said, “My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her and she will live.” 19 Jesus and his disciples got up and followed him. 20 But a woman who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years came up behind him and touched the edge of his cloak. 21 For she kept saying to herself, “If only I touch his cloak, I will be healed.” 22 But when Jesus turned and saw her he said, “Have courage, daughter! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was healed from that hour.	21 When Jesus had crossed again in a boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he was by the sea. 22 Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came up, and when he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet. 23 He asked him urgently, “My little daughter is near death. Come and lay your hands on her so that she may be healed and live.” 24 Jesus went with him, and a large crowd followed and pressed around him. 25 Now a woman was there who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years. 26 She had endured a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet instead of getting better, she grew worse. 27 When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, 28 for she kept saying, “If only I touch his clothes, I will be healed.” 29 At once the bleeding stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. 30 Jesus knew at once that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” 31 His disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing against you and you say, ‘Who touched me?’” 32 But he looked around to see who had done it. 33 Then the woman, with fear and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. 34 He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be healed of your disease.” 35 While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler’s house saying, “Your daughter has died. Why trouble the teacher any longer?”	40 Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, because they were all waiting for him. 41 Then a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue, came up. Falling at Jesus’ feet, he pleaded with him to come to his house, 42 because he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. As Jesus was on his way, the crowds pressed around him. 43 Now a woman was there who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years but could not be healed by anyone. 44 She came up behind Jesus and touched the edge of his cloak, and at once the bleeding stopped. 45 Then Jesus asked, “Who was it who touched me?” When they all denied it, Peter said, “Master, the crowds are surrounding you and pressing against you!” 46 But Jesus said, “Someone touched me, for I know that power has gone out from me.” 47 When the woman saw that she could not escape notice, she came trembling and fell down before him. In the presence of all the people, she explained why she had touched him and how she had been immediately healed. 48 Then he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace.” 49 While he was still speaking, someone from the synagogue ruler’s house came and said, “Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer.”

23 When Jesus entered the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the disorderly crowd, 24 he said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but asleep." And they began making fun of him. 25 But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and gently took her by the hand, and the girl got up. 26 And the news of this spread throughout that region.	36 But Jesus, paying no attention to what was said, told the synagogue ruler, "Do not be afraid; just believe." 37 He did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. 38 They came to the house of the synagogue ruler where he saw noisy confusion and people weeping and wailing loudly. 39 When he entered he said to them, "Why are you distressed and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." 40 And they began making fun of him. But he put them all outside and he took the child's father and mother and his own companions and went into the room where the child was. 41 Then, gently taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, get up." 42 The girl got up at once and began to walk around (she was twelve years old). They were completely astonished at this. 43b and told them to give her something to eat. 43a He strictly ordered that no one should know about this,	50 But when Jesus heard this, he told him, "Do not be afraid; just believe, and she will be healed." 51 Now when he came to the house, Jesus did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother. 52 Now they were all wailing and mourning for her, but he said, "Stop your weeping; she is not dead but asleep." 53 And they began making fun of him, because they knew that she was dead. 54 But Jesus gently took her by the hand and said, "Child, get up." 55a Her spirit returned, and she got up immediately. 56a Her parents were astonished, 55b Then he told them to give her something to eat. 56b but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Galilean Ministry—Healing the Blind and Driving Out a Demon (April – December 31)

Matthew 9:27–34

27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, shouting, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

28 When he went into the house, the blind men came to him. Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then he touched their eyes saying, "Let it be done for you according to your faith."

30 And their eyes were opened. Then Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about this."

31 But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that entire region.

32 As they were going away, a man who could not talk and was demon-possessed was brought to him.

33 After the demon was cast out, the man who had been mute spoke. The crowds were amazed and said, "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel!"

34 But the Pharisees said, "By the ruler of demons he casts out demons."

Galilean Ministry—Final Visit to Nazareth (April – December 31)

Matthew 13:54–58	Mark 6:1–6a
54 Then he came to his hometown and began to teach the people in their synagogue. They were astonished and said, “Where did this man get such wisdom and miraculous powers? 55 Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother named Mary? And aren’t his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? 56 And aren’t all his sisters here with us? Where did he get all this?” 57 And so they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own house.” 58 And he did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.	1 Now Jesus left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. 2 When the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard him were astonished, saying, “Where did he get these ideas? And what is this wisdom that has been given to him? What are these miracles that are done through his hands? 3 Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And aren’t his sisters here with us?” And so they took offense at him. 4 Then Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown, and among his relatives, and in his own house.” 5 He was not able to do a miracle there, except to lay his hands on a few sick people and heal them. 6a And he was amazed because of their unbelief.

Galilean Ministry—Commissioning of the Twelve (April – December 31)

Matthew 9:35–11:1	Mark 6:6b–13	Luke 9:1–6
9:35 Then Jesus went throughout all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and sickness. 36 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were bewildered and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. 37 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. 38 Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest.” 10:1 Jesus called his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits so they could cast them out and heal every kind of disease and sickness. 2 Now these are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (called Peter), and Andrew his brother; James son of Zebedee and John his brother; 3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; 4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him. 5 Jesus sent out these twelve, instructing them as follows: “Do not go to Gentile regions and do not enter any Samaritan town. 6 Go instead to the lost sheep of the	6b Then he went around among the villages and taught. 7 Jesus called the twelve and began to send them out two by two. He gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8 He instructed them	1 After Jesus called the twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, 2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3 He said to them,

house of Israel. 7 As you go, preach this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven is near!’ 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, cast out demons. Freely you received, freely give. 9 Do not take gold, silver, or copper in your belts, 10 no bag for the journey, or an extra tunic, or sandals or staff, for the worker deserves his provisions. 11 Whenever you enter a town or village, find out who is worthy there and stay with them until you leave. 12 As you enter the house, give it greetings. 13 And if the house is worthy, let your peace come on it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. 14 And if anyone will not welcome you or listen to your message, shake the dust off your feet as you leave that house or that town. 15 I tell you the truth, it will be more bearable for the region of Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town! 16 “I am sending you out like sheep surrounded by wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. 17 Beware of people, because they will hand you over to councils and flog you in their synagogues. 18 And you will be brought before governors and kings because of me, as a witness to them and the Gentiles. 19 Whenever they hand you over for trial, do not worry about how to speak or what to say, for what you should say will be given to you at that time. 20 For it is not you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you. 21 “Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rise against parents and have them put to death. 22 And you will be hated by everyone because of my name. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 23 Whenever they persecute you in one place, flee to another. I tell you the truth, you will not finish going through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. 24 “A disciple is not greater than his	to take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— 9 and to put on sandals but not to wear two tunics. 10 He said to them, “Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the area. 11 If a place will not welcome you or listen to you, as you go out from there, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.”	“Take nothing for your journey—no staff, no bag, no bread, no money, and do not take an extra tunic. 4 Whatever house you enter, stay there until you leave the area. 5 Wherever they do not receive you, as you leave that town, shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them.” teacher, nor a slave greater than his master.

25 It is enough for the disciple to become like his teacher, and the slave like his master. If they have called the head of the house 'Beelzebul,' how much more will they defame the members of his household!

26 "Do not be afraid of them, for nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing is secret that will not be made known.

27 What I say to you in the dark, tell in the light, and what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the housetops.

28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Instead, fear the one who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Aren't two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them falls to the ground apart from your Father's will.

30 Even all the hairs on your head are numbered.

31 So do not be afraid; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

32 "Whoever, then, acknowledges me before people, I will acknowledge before my Father in heaven.

33 But whoever denies me before people, I will deny him also before my Father in heaven.

34 "Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

35 For I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law,

36 and a man's enemies will be the members of his household. [Mic 7:6]

37 "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And whoever does not take up his cross and follow me is not worthy of me.

39 Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life because of me will find it.

40 "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.

41 Whoever receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward. Whoever receives a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

42 And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple, I tell you the truth, he will never lose his reward.” 11:1 When Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in their towns.	12 So they went out and preached that all should repent. 13 They cast out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.	6 Then they departed and went throughout the villages, proclaiming the good news and healing people everywhere.

Herod Antipas Beheads John (Tebeth 32 [Dec 31/Jan 32])

Matthew 14:1–2, 6–12	Mark 6:14–16, 21–29	Luke 9:7–9
Herod Antipas’ Birthday 6 But on Herod’s birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod, 7 so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 Instructed by her mother, she said, “Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter.” 9 Although it grieved the king, because of his oath and the dinner guests he commanded it to be given. 10 So he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12 Then John’s disciples came and took the body and buried it and went and told Jesus. Herod Wonders about Jesus 1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard reports about Jesus,	21 But a suitable day came, when Herod gave a banquet on his birthday for his court officials, military commanders, and leaders of Galilee. 22 When his daughter Herodias came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his dinner guests. The king said to the girl, “Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you.” 23 He swore to her, “Whatever you ask I will give you, up to half my kingdom.” 24 So she went out and said to her mother, “What should I ask for?” Her mother said, “The head of John the baptizer.” 25 Immediately she hurried back to the king and made her request: “I want the head of John the Baptist on a platter immediately.” 26 Although it grieved the king deeply, he did not want to reject her request because of his oath and his guests. 27 So the king sent an executioner at once to bring John’s head, and he went and beheaded John in prison. 28 He brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When John’s disciples heard this, they came and took his body and placed it in a tomb. 14 Now King Herod heard this, for Jesus’ name had become known. Some were saying, “John the baptizer has been raised from	7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard about everything that was happening, and he was thoroughly perplexed, because some people were saying that John had been raised from

2 and he said to his servants, “This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead! And because of this, miraculous powers are at work in him.”	the dead, and because of this, miraculous powers are at work in him.” 15 Others said, “He is Elijah.” Others said, “He is a prophet, like one of the prophets from the past.” 16 But when Herod heard this, he said, “John, whom I beheaded, has been raised!”	the dead, 8 while others were saying that Elijah had appeared, and still others that one of the prophets of long ago had risen. 9 Herod said, “I had John beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?” So Herod wanted to learn about Jesus.

Galilean Districts Ministry—Feeding of the 5,000 (Nisan [April] 32)

Matthew 14:13–21	Mark 6:30–44	Luke 9:10–17	John 6:1–13
The Disciples Return	30 Then the apostles gathered around Jesus and told him everything they had done and taught.	10 When the apostles returned, they told Jesus everything they had done.
Jesus Relocates 13 Now when Jesus heard this [about John’s death] he went away from there privately in a boat to an isolated place.	31 He said to them, “Come with me privately to an isolated place and rest a while” (for many were coming and going, and there was no time to eat). 32 So they went away by themselves in a boat to some remote place.	Then he took them with him and they withdrew privately to a town called Bethsaida.	1 After this Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (also called the Sea of Tiberias).
The Crowds Follow But when the crowd heard about it, they followed him on foot from the towns.	33 But many saw them leaving and recognized them, and they hurried on foot from all the towns and arrived there ahead of them.	11 But when the crowds found out, they followed him.	2 A large crowd was following him because they were observing the miraculous signs he was performing on the sick.
Jesus Has Compassion 14 As he got out he saw the large crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.	34 As Jesus came ashore he saw the large crowd and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he taught them many things.	He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and cured those who needed healing.
“The hour is late” 15 When evening arrived, his disciples came to him saying, “This is an isolated place and the hour is already late.	35 When it was already late, his disciples came to him and said, “This is an isolated place and it is already very late.	12 Now the day began to draw to a close, so the twelve came and said to Jesus,	3 So Jesus went on up the mountainside and sat down there with his disciples. 4 (Now the Jewish feast of the Passover was near.) 5 Then Jesus, when he looked up and saw that a large crowd was coming to him,

Send the crowds away so that they can go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”	36 Send them away so that they can go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.”	“Send the crowd away, so they can go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and food, because we are in an isolated place.”
Jesus Tests His Disciples 16 But he replied, “They don’t need to go. Textual Notes

- 1) Concerning “to Bethsaida” in Mark 6:45.¹
 - A) “The text is attested by the great majority of witnesses, but it creates the difficulty that Bethsaida was on the northeast shore of the lake, in the region where the feeding took place according to Luke 9:10, not on “the other side.” It is better to accept the Caesarean text, which omits εἰς τὸ πέραν and gives only πρὸς (εἰς) Βηθσαϊδάν: P⁴⁵ W λ q sy^s. For a defense of the primitiveness of this reading see L. Vaganay, “Mk 6:45,” RB 49 (1940), pp. 5–32. The longer reading of Mark appears to be a conflated variant reuniting the shorter reading supported by the Caesarean text with the different reading of Matthew 14:22. Mark evidently uses εἰς τὸ πέραν to indicate a change of location by boat where the destination of the voyage is unspecified (cf. Chs. 4:35; 5:21; 8:13 with 6:32, 53; 8:10) or quite general (Ch. 5:1). See further C. C. McCown, ‘The Problem of the Site of Bethsaida,’ JPOS 10 (1930): 32–58; J. O’Hara, ‘Two Bethsaidas or One?’ Scripture 15 (1963): 24–27.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Bread of Life (Nisan [April] 32)

John 6:22–71

The Crowds Come Looking for Jesus

22 The next day the crowd that remained on the other side of the lake realized that only one small boat had been there, and that Jesus had not boarded it with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone.

23 But some boats from Tiberias came to shore near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks.

24 So when the crowd realized that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and came to Capernaum looking for Jesus.

25 When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

Jesus’ Discourse on the Bread of Life

26 Jesus replied, “I tell you the solemn truth, you are looking for me not because you saw miraculous signs, but because you ate all the loaves of bread you wanted.

27 Do not work for the food that disappears, but for the food that remains to eternal life—the food which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has put his seal of approval on him.”

28 So then they said to him, “What must we do to accomplish the deeds God requires?”

29 Jesus replied, “This is the deed God requires—to believe in the one whom he sent.”

30 So they said to him, “Then what miraculous sign will you perform, so that we may see it and believe you? What will you do?”

31 Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, just as it is written, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’ cf. [Exod 16:4; Ps 78:23–24]

32 Then Jesus told them, “I tell you the solemn truth, it is not Moses who has given you the bread from heaven, but my Father is giving you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

34 So they said to him, “Sir, give us this bread all the time!”

35 Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life. The one who comes to me will never go hungry, and the one who believes in me will never be thirsty.

36 But I told you that you have seen me and still do not believe.

37 Everyone whom the Father gives me will come to me, and the one who comes to me I will never send away.

38 For I have come down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me.

39 Now this is the will of the one who sent me—that I should not lose one person of every one he has given me, but raise them all up at the last day.

40 For this is the will of my Father—for everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him to have eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.”

41 Then the Jews who were hostile to Jesus began complaining about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven,”

42 and they said, “Isn’t this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

43 Jesus replied, “Do not complain about me to one another.

44 No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, ‘And they will all be taught by God.’ [Isa 54:13] Everyone who hears and learns from the Father comes to me.

46 (Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God—he has seen the Father.)

47 I tell you the solemn truth, the one who believes has eternal life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

50 This is the bread that has come down from heaven, so that a person may eat from it and not die.

51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats from this bread he will live forever. The bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

52 Then the Jews who were hostile to Jesus began to argue with one another, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

53 Jesus said to them, “I tell you the solemn truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in yourselves.

54 The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.

55 For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

56 The one who eats my flesh and drinks my blood resides in me, and I in him.

57 Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so the one who consumes me will live because of me.

58 This is the bread that came down from heaven; it is not like the bread your ancestors ate, but then later died. The one who eats this bread will live forever.”

59 Jesus said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Depart

60 Then many of his disciples, when they heard these things, said, “This is a difficult saying! Who can understand it?”

61 When Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining about this, he said to them, “Does this cause you to be offended?”

62 Then what if you see the Son of Man ascending where he was before?”

63 The Spirit is the one who gives life; human nature is of no help! The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

64 But there are some of you who do not believe.” (For Jesus had already known from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.)

65 So Jesus added, “Because of this I told you that no one can come to me unless the Father has allowed him to come.”

66 After this many of his disciples quit following him and did not accompany him any longer.

Peter’s Confession

67 So Jesus said to the twelve, “You don’t want to go away too, do you?”

68 Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.

69 We have come to believe and to know that you are the Holy One of God!”

70 Jesus replied, “Didn’t I choose you, the twelve, and yet one of you is the devil?”

71 (Now he said this about Judas son of Simon Iscariot, for Judas, one of the twelve, was going to betray him.)

Galilean Districts Ministry—Jesus Avoids Judea (Spring/Summer 32)

John 7:1

1 After this Jesus traveled throughout Galilee. He stayed out of Judea because the Jewish leaders wanted to kill him.

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Tradition of the Elders (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 15:1–20

Mark 7:1–23

1 Then Pharisees and experts in the law came from Jerusalem to Jesus and said,

2 “Why do your disciples disobey the tradition of the elders? For they don’t wash their hands when they eat.”

3 He answered them, “And why do you disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition?

4 For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’ [Exod 20:12] and ‘Whoever insults his father or mother must be put to death.’ [Exod 21:17]

5 But you say, ‘If someone tells his father or mother, “Whatever help you would have received from me is given to God,”

6 he does not need to honor his father.’

You have nullified the word of God on account of your tradition.

7 Hypocrites! Isaiah prophesied correctly about you when he said,

8 ‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me,

9 and they worship me in vain, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.’” [Isa 29:13]

10 Then he called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand.

11 What defiles a person is not what goes into the mouth; it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles a person.”

12 Then the disciples came to him and said, “Do you know that when the Pharisees heard this saying they were offended?”

13 And he replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted.

14 Leave them! They are blind guides. If someone who is blind leads another who is blind, both will fall into a pit.”

15 But Peter said to him, “Explain this parable to us.”

16 Jesus said, “Even after all this, are you still so foolish?

17 Don’t you understand that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach and then passes

1 Now the Pharisees and some of the experts in the law who came from Jerusalem gathered around him.

2 And they saw that some of Jesus’ disciples ate their bread with unclean hands, that is, unwashed.

3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they perform a ritual washing, holding fast to the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. They hold fast to many other traditions: the washing of cups, pots, kettles, and dining couches.)

5 The Pharisees and the experts in the law asked him, “Why do your disciples not live according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with unwashed hands?”

9 He also said to them, “You neatly reject the commandment of God in order to set up your tradition.

10 For Moses said, ‘Honor your father and your mother,’ and, ‘Whoever insults his father or mother must be put to death.’

11 But you say that if anyone tells his father or mother, ‘Whatever help you would have received from me is corban’ (that is, a gift for God), 12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother.

13 Thus you nullify the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And you do many things like this.”

6 He said to them, “Isaiah prophesied correctly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

‘This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 They worship me in vain, teaching as doctrine the commandments of men.’

8 Having no regard for the command of God, you hold fast to human tradition.”

14 Then he called the crowd again and said to them, “Listen to me, everyone, and understand.

15 There is nothing outside of a person that can defile him by going into him. Rather, it is what comes out of a person that defiles him.”

16 [If anyone has ears to hear, he should listen.]

17 Now when Jesus had left the crowd and entered the house, his disciples asked him about the parable.

18 He said to them, “Are you so foolish?

Don’t you understand that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him?

19 For it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and then goes

out into the sewer? 18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these things defile a person. 19 For out of the heart come evil ideas, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. 20 These are the things that defile a person; it is not eating with unwashed hands that defiles a person.”	out into the sewer.” (This means all foods are clean.) 20 He said, “What comes out of a person defiles him. 21 For from within, out of the human heart, come evil ideas, sexual immorality, theft, murder, 22 adultery, greed, evil, deceit, debauchery, envy, slander, pride, and folly. 23 All these evils come from within and defile a person.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—A Gentile Mother’s Faith (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 15:21–28	Mark 7:24–30
21 After going out from there, Jesus went to the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22 A Canaanite woman from that area came and cried out, “Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is horribly demon-possessed!” 23 But he did not answer her a word. Then his disciples came and begged him, “Send her away, because she keeps on crying out after us.” 24 So he answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” 25 But she came and bowed down before him and said, “Lord, help me!” 26 “It is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs,” he said. 27 “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “but even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.” 28 Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, your faith is great! Let what you want be done for you.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.	24 After Jesus left there, he went to the region of Tyre. When he went into a house, he did not want anyone to know, but he was not able to escape notice. 25 Instead, a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him and came and fell at his feet. 26 The woman was a Greek, of Syrophenician origin. She asked him to cast the demon out of her daughter. 27 He said to her, “Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not right to take the children’s bread and to throw it to the dogs.” 28 She answered, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table eat the children’s crumbs.” 29 Then he said to her, “Because you said this, you may go. The demon has left your daughter.” 30 She went home and found the child lying on the bed, and the demon gone.

Galilean Districts Ministry—Jesus in Decapolis (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 15:29–38	Mark 7:31–8:9
Jesus Heals Many 29 When he left there, Jesus went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up a mountain, where he sat down. 30 Then large crowds came to him bringing with them the lame, blind, crippled, mute, and many others. They laid them at his feet, and he healed them.	7:31 Then Jesus went out again from the region of Tyre and came through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee in the region of the Decapolis. 32 They brought to him a deaf man who had difficulty speaking, and they asked him to place his hands on him. 33 After Jesus took him aside privately, away from the crowd, he put his fingers in the man’s ears, and after spitting, he touched his tongue. 34 Then he looked up to heaven and said with a sigh, “Ephphatha” (that is, “Be opened”). 35 And immediately the man’s ears were opened, his tongue

31 As a result, the crowd was amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, the lame walking, and the blind seeing, and they praised the God of Israel. Jesus Feeds 4,000 32 Then Jesus called the disciples and said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have already been here with me three days and they have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry since they may faint on the way.” 33 The disciples said to him, “Where can we get enough bread in this desolate place to satisfy so great a crowd?” 34 Jesus said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” They replied, “Seven—and a few small fish.” 35 After instructing the crowd to sit down on the ground, 36 he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after giving thanks, he broke them and began giving them to the disciples, who then gave them to the crowds. 37 They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. 38 Not counting children and women, there were four thousand men who ate.	loosened, and he spoke plainly. 36 Jesus ordered them not to tell anything. But as much as he ordered them not to do this, they proclaimed it all the more. 37 People were completely astounded and said, “He has done everything well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.” 8:1 In those days there was another large crowd with nothing to eat. So Jesus called his disciples and said to them, 2 “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have already been here with me three days, and they have nothing to eat. 3 If I send them home hungry, they will faint on the way, and some of them have come from a great distance.” 4 His disciples answered him, “Where can someone get enough bread in this desolate place to satisfy these people?” 5 He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” They replied, “Seven.” 6 Then he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. After he took the seven loaves and gave thanks, he broke them and began giving them to the disciples to serve. So they served the crowd. 7 They also had a few small fish. After giving thanks for these, he told them to serve these as well. 8 Everyone ate and was satisfied, and they picked up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. 9 There were about four thousand who ate. Then he dismissed them.

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Sign of Jonah (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 15:39–16:4	Mark 8:10–12
15:39 After sending away the crowd, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan. 16:1 Now when the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus, they asked him to show them a sign from heaven. 2 He said, “When evening comes you say, ‘It will be fair weather, because the sky is red,’ 3 and in the morning, ‘It will be stormy today, because the sky is red and darkening.’ You know how to judge correctly the appearance of the sky, but you cannot evaluate the signs of the times. 4a A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah.” [cf. Jon 1:17]	10 Immediately he got into a boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. 11 Then the Pharisees came and began to argue with Jesus, asking for a sign from heaven to test him. 12 Sighing deeply in his spirit he said, “Why does this generation look for a sign? I tell you the truth, no sign will be given to this generation.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 16:4b–12	Mark 8:13–21
4b Then he left them and went away. 5 When the disciples went to the other side, they forgot to take bread. 6 “Watch out,” Jesus said to them, “beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” 7 So they began to discuss this among themselves, saying, “It is because we brought no bread.” 8 When Jesus learned of this, he said, “You who have such little faith! Why are you arguing among yourselves about having no bread? 9 Do you still not understand? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? 10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many baskets you took up? 11 How could you not understand that I was not speaking to you about bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!” 12 Then they understood that he had not told them to be on guard against the yeast in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.	13 Then he left them, got back into the boat, and went to the other side. 14 Now they had forgotten to take bread, except for one loaf they had with them in the boat. 15 And Jesus ordered them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!” 16 So they began to discuss with one another about having no bread. 17 When he learned of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you arguing about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Have your hearts been hardened? 18 Though you have eyes, don’t you see? And though you have ears, can’t you hear? [cf. Jer 5:21] Don’t you remember? 19 When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?” They replied, “Twelve.” 20 “When I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand, how many baskets full of pieces did you pick up?” They replied, “Seven.” 21 Then he said to them, “Do you still not understand?”

Galilean Districts Ministry—Blind Man at Bethsaida (Spring/Summer 32)

Mark 8:22–26
22 Then they came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to Jesus and asked him to touch him. 23 He took the blind man by the hand and brought him outside of the village. Then he spit on his eyes, placed his hands on his eyes and asked, “Do you see anything?”

24 Regaining his sight he said, “I see people, but they look like trees walking.”

25 Then Jesus placed his hands on the man’s eyes again. And he opened his eyes, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly.

26 Jesus sent him home, saying, “Do not even go into the village.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—Peter’s Great Confession (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 16:13–20	Mark 8:27–30	Luke 9:18–21
13 When Jesus came to the area of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” 14 They answered, “Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” 15 He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” 16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” 17 And Jesus answered him, “You are blessed, Simon son of Jonah, because flesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but my Father in heaven! 18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.” 20 Then he instructed his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.	27 Then Jesus and his disciples went to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” 28 They said, “John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and still others, one of the prophets.” 29 He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Christ.” 30 Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.	18 Once when Jesus was praying by himself, and his disciples were nearby, he asked them, “Who do the crowds say that I am?” 19 They answered, “John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others that one of the prophets of long ago has risen.” 20 Then he said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered, “The Christ of God.” 21 But he forcefully commanded them not to tell this to anyone,

Galilean Districts Ministry—Jesus Predicts His Death and Resurrection (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 16:21–23	Mark 8:31–33	Luke 9:22
21 From that time on Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. 22 So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him: “God forbid, Lord! This must not happen to you!” 23 But he turned and said to Peter, Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you are not setting your mind on God’s interests, but on man’s.”	31 Then Jesus began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and after three days rise again. 32 He spoke openly about this. So Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. 33 But after turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are not setting your mind on God’s interests, but on man’s.”	22 saying, “The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and experts in the law, and be killed, and on the third day be raised.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—If Any Man Would Come After Me (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 16:24–28	Mark 8:34–9:1	Luke 9:23–27
24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. 26 For what does it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but forfeits his life? Or what can a person give in exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man will come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will reward each person according to what he has done. [cf. Ps 62:12; Prov 24:12] 28 I tell you the truth, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.”	8:34 Then Jesus called the crowd, along with his disciples, and said to them, “If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. 35 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and for the gospel will save it. 36 For what benefit is it for a person to gain the whole world, yet forfeit his life? 37 What can a person give in exchange for his life? 38 For if anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.” 9:1 And he said to them, “I tell you the truth, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God come with power.”	23 Then he said to them all, “If anyone wants to become my follower, he must deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow me. 24 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. 25 For what does it benefit a person if he gains the whole world but loses or forfeits himself? 26 For whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. 27 But I tell you most certainly, there are some standing here who will not experience death before they see the kingdom of God.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Transfiguration (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 17:1–8	Mark 9:2–8	Luke 9:28–36a
1 Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John the brother of James, and led them privately up a high mountain. 2 And he was transfigured before them. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. 3 Then Moses and Elijah also appeared before them, talking with him. 4 So Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, I will make three shelters—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” 5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my one dear Son, in whom I take great delight. Listen to him!” 6 When the disciples heard this, they were overwhelmed with fear and threw themselves down with their faces to the ground. 7 But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” he said. “Do not be afraid.” 8 When they looked up, all they saw was Jesus alone.	2 Six days later Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John and led them alone up a high mountain privately. And he was transfigured before them, 3 and his clothes became radiantly white, more so than any launderer in the world could bleach them. 4 Then Elijah appeared before them along with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 So Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” 6 (For they were afraid, and he did not know what to say.) 7 Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came from the cloud, “This is my one dear Son. Listen to him!” 8 Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more except Jesus.	28 Now about eight days after these sayings, Jesus took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up the mountain to pray. 29 As he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became very bright, a brilliant white. 30 Then two men, Moses and Elijah, began talking with him. 31 They appeared in glorious splendor and spoke about his departure that he was about to carry out at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and those with him were quite sleepy, but as they became fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. 33 Then as the men were starting to leave, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah”— not knowing what he was saying. 34 As he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. 35 Then a voice came from the cloud, saying, “This is my Son, my Chosen One. Listen to him!” 36a After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.

Galilean Districts Ministry—Making Sense of Isaiah and Malachi (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 17:9–13	Mark 9:9–13	Luke 9:36b
9 As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Do not tell anyone about the vision until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.”	9 As they were coming down from the mountain, he gave them orders not to tell anyone what they had seen until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. 10 They kept this statement to	36b So they kept silent and told no one at that time anything of what they had seen.

10 The disciples asked him, “Why then do the experts in the law say that Elijah must come first?” [cf. Mal 4:5–6] 11 He answered, “Elijah does indeed come first and will restore all things. 12b In the same way, the Son of Man will suffer at their hands.” [cf. Isa 53] 12a And I tell you that Elijah has already come. Yet they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted. 13 Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them about John the Baptist.	themselves, discussing what this rising from the dead meant. 11 Then they asked him, “Why do the experts in the law say that Elijah must come first?” 12 He said to them, “Elijah does indeed come first, and restores all things. And why is it written that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be despised? 13 But I tell you that Elijah has certainly come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—The Power of Faith (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 17:14–21	Mark 9:14–29	Luke 9:37–43a
14 When they came to the crowd, a man came to him, knelt before him, 15 and said, “Lord, have mercy on my son, because he has seizures and suffers terribly, for he often falls into the fire and into the water. 16 I brought him to your disciples, but they were not able to heal him.” 17 Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverse generation! How much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I endure you? Bring him here to me.”	14 When they came to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and experts in the law arguing with them. 15 When the whole crowd saw him, they were amazed and ran at once and greeted him. 16 He asked them, “What are you arguing about with them?” 17 A member of the crowd said to him, “Teacher, I brought you my son, who is possessed by a spirit that makes him mute. 18 Whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes rigid. I asked your disciples to cast it out, but they were not able to do so.” 19 He answered them, “You unbelieving generation! How much longer must I be with you? How much longer must I endure you? Bring him to me.” 20 So they brought the boy to him. When the spirit saw him, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell on the ground and rolled around, foaming at the mouth. 21 Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?” And he said, “From childhood. 22 It has often thrown him into fire or water to destroy him. But if you are able	37 Now on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. 38 Then a man from the crowd cried out, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son—he is my only child! 39 A spirit seizes him, and he suddenly screams; it throws him into convulsions and causes him to foam at the mouth. It hardly ever leaves him alone, torturing him severely. 40 I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not do so.” 41 Jesus answered, “You unbelieving and perverse generation! How much longer must I be with you and endure you? Bring your son here.” 42 As the boy was approaching, the demon threw him to the ground and shook him with convulsions.

18 Then Jesus rebuked the demon and it came out of him, and the boy was healed from that moment. 19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?” 20 He told them, “It was because of your little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; nothing will be impossible for you.” 21 [many mss do not contain this verse]	to do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” 23 Then Jesus said to him, “‘If you are able?’ All things are possible for the one who believes.” 24 Immediately the father of the boy cried out and said, “I believe; help my unbelief!” 25 Now when Jesus saw that a crowd was quickly gathering, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.” 26 It shrieked, threw him into terrible convulsions, and came out. The boy looked so much like a corpse that many said, “He is dead!” 27 But Jesus gently took his hand and raised him to his feet, and he stood up. 28 Then, after he went into the house, his disciples asked him privately, “Why couldn’t we cast it out?” 29 He told them, “This kind can come out only by prayer.” [some mss add ‘and fasting’]	But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. 43a Then they were all astonished at the mighty power of God.

Galilean Districts Ministry—Jesus’ Second Prediction of His Death (Spring/Summer 32)
Matthew 17:22–23	Mark 9:30–32	Luke 9:43b–45
22 When they gathered together in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men. 23 They will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised.” And they became greatly distressed.	30 They went out from there and passed through Galilee. But Jesus did not want anyone to know, 31 for he was teaching his disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of men. They will kill him, and after three days he will rise.” 32 But they did not understand this statement and were afraid to ask him.	43b But while the entire crowd was amazed at everything Jesus was doing, he said to his disciples, 44 “Take these words to heart, for the Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.” 45 But they did not understand this statement; its meaning had been concealed from them, so that they could not grasp it. Yet they were afraid to ask him about this statement.

Galilean Districts Ministry—Paying the Temple Tax (Spring/Summer 32)
Matthew 17:24–27
24 After they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and said, “Your teacher pays the double drachma tax, doesn’t he?”

25 He said, “Yes.” When Peter came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, “What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly kings collect tolls or taxes—from their sons or from foreigners?”

26 After he said, “From foreigners,” Jesus said to him, “Then the sons are free.

27 But so that we don’t offend them, go to the lake and throw out a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth, you will find a four drachma coin. Take that and give it to them for me and you.”

Galilean Districts Ministry—Who is the Greatest? (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 18:1–5	Mark 9:33–37	Luke 9:46–48
1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus saying, “Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” 2 He called a child, had him stand among them, 3 and said, “I tell you the truth, unless you turn around and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven! 4 Whoever then humbles himself like this little child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5 And whoever welcomes a child like this in my name welcomes me.	33 Then they came to Capernaum. After Jesus was inside the house he asked them, “What were you discussing on the way?” 34 But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. 35 After he sat down, he called the twelve and said to them, “If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and servant of all.” 36 He took a little child and had him stand among them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, 37 “Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me.”	46 Now an argument started among the disciples as to which of them might be the greatest. 47 But when Jesus discerned their innermost thoughts, he took a child, had him stand by his side, 48 and said to them, “Whoever welcomes this child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me, for the one who is least among you all is the one who is great.”

ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a huge millstone hung around his neck and to be drowned in the open sea. 7 Woe to the world because of stumbling blocks! It is necessary that stumbling blocks come, but woe to the person through whom they come. 8 If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. 9 And if your eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into fiery hell. 10 “See that you do not disdain one of these little ones. Galilean Districts Ministry—Sin, Restoration and Forgiveness (Spring/Summer 32)

Matthew 18:15–35

Treatment of a Sinning Brother

15 “If your brother sins, go and show him his fault when the two of you are alone. If he listens to you, you have regained your brother.

16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others with you, so that at the testimony of two or three witnesses every matter may be established. [\[Deut 19:15\]](#)

17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. If he refuses to listen to the church, treat him like a Gentile or a tax collector.

18 “I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven.

19 Again, I tell you the truth, if two of you on earth agree about whatever you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you.
20 For where two or three are assembled in my name, I am there among them.”

The Basis of Forgiveness

21 Then Peter came to him and said, “Lord, how many times must I forgive my brother who sins against me? As many as seven times?”

22 Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, I tell you, but seventy-seven times!

23 “For this reason, the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves.

24 As he began settling his accounts, a man who owed ten thousand talents was brought to him.

25 Because he was not able to repay it, the lord ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, children, and whatever he possessed, and repayment to be made.

26 Then the slave threw himself to the ground before him, saying, ‘Be patient with me, and I will repay you everything.’

27 The lord had compassion on that slave and released him, and forgave him the debt.

28 After he went out, that same slave found one of his fellow slaves who owed him one hundred silver coins. So he grabbed him by the throat and started to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe me!’

29 Then his fellow slave threw himself down and begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will repay you.’

30 But he refused. Instead, he went out and threw him in prison until he repaid the debt.

31 When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were very upset and went and told their lord everything that had taken place.

32 Then his lord called the first slave and said to him, ‘Evil slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me!

33 Should you not have shown mercy to your fellow slave, just as I showed it to you?’

34 And in anger his lord turned him over to the prison guards to torture him until he repaid all he owed.

35 So also my heavenly Father will do to you, if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart.”

To Jerusalem—Jesus’ Brothers Ridicule Him (Tishri [October] 32)

John 7:2–9

2 Now the Jewish feast of Tabernacles was near.

3 So Jesus’ brothers advised him, “Leave here and go to Judea so your disciples may see your miracles that you are performing.

4 For no one who seeks to make a reputation for himself does anything in secret. If you are doing these things, show yourself to the world.”

5 (For not even his own brothers believed in him.)

6 So Jesus replied, “My time has not yet arrived, but you are ready at any opportunity!

7 The world cannot hate you, but it hates me, because I am testifying about it that its deeds are evil.

8 You go up to the feast yourselves. I am not going up to this feast because my time has not yet fully arrived.”

9 When he had said this, he remained in Galilee.

To Jerusalem—Journey through Samaria (Tishri [October] 32)

Luke 9:51–56

John 7:10

51 Now when the days drew near for him to be taken up, Jesus set out resolutely to go to Jerusalem.

52 He sent messengers on ahead of him. As they went along, they entered a Samaritan village to make things ready in advance for him, 53 but the villagers refused to welcome him, because he was determined to go to Jerusalem.

54 Now when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, “Lord, do you want us to call fire to come down from heaven and consume them?”

55 But Jesus turned and rebuked them,

56 and they went on to another village.

10 But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then Jesus himself also went up, not openly but in secret.

To Jerusalem—Following Jesus (Tishri [October] 32)

Matthew 8:19–22	Luke 9:57–62
19 Then an expert in the law came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.” 20 Jesus said to him, “Foxes have dens, and the birds in the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.” 21 Another of the disciples said to him, “Lord, let me first go and bury my father.” 22 But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”	57 As they were walking along the road, someone said to him, “I will follow you wherever you go.” 58 Jesus said to him, “Foxes have dens and the birds in the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.” 59 Jesus said to another, “Follow me.” But he replied, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.” 60 But Jesus said to him, “Let the dead bury their own dead, but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.” 61 Yet another said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say goodbye to my family.” 62 Jesus said to him, “No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.”

Late Judean Ministry—Jesus at the Feast of Tabernacles (Tishri [October] 32)

John 7:11–31

- 11 So the Jewish leaders were looking for him at the feast, asking, “Where is he?”
- 12 There was a lot of grumbling about him among the crowds. Some were saying, “He is a good man,” but others, “He deceives the common people.”
- 13 However, no one spoke openly about him for fear of the Jewish leaders.
- 14 When the feast was half over, Jesus went up to the temple courts and began to teach.
- 15 Then the Jewish leaders were astonished and said, “How does this man know so much when he has never had formal instruction?”
- 16 So Jesus replied, “My teaching is not from me, but from the one who sent me.
- 17 If anyone wants to do God’s will, he will know about my teaching, whether it is from God or whether I speak from my own authority.
- 18 The person who speaks on his own authority desires to receive honor for himself; the one who desires the honor of the one who sent him is a man of integrity, and there is no unrighteousness in him.
- 19 Hasn’t Moses given you the law? Yet not one of you keeps the law! Why do you want to kill me?”
- 20 The crowd answered, “You’re possessed by a demon! Who is trying to kill you?”
- 21 Jesus replied, “I performed one miracle and you are all amazed.
- 22 However, because Moses gave you the practice of circumcision (not that it came from Moses, but from the forefathers), you circumcise a male child on the Sabbath.
- 23 But if a male child is circumcised on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses is not broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely well on the Sabbath?
- 24 Do not judge according to external appearance, but judge with proper judgment.”
- 25 Then some of the residents of Jerusalem began to say, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill?”
- 26 Yet here he is, speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to him. Do the rulers really know that this man is the Christ?
- 27 But we know where this man comes from. Whenever the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from.”
- 28 Then Jesus, while teaching in the temple courts, cried out, “You both know me and know where I come from! And I have not come on my own initiative, but the one who sent me is true. You do not know him,
- 29 but I know him, because I have come from him and he sent me.”
- 30 So then they tried to seize Jesus, but no one laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come.
- 31 Yet many of the crowd believed in him and said, “Whenever the Christ comes, he won’t perform more miraculous signs than this man did, will he?”

Late Judean Ministry—Frustrated Attempt to Arrest Jesus (Tishri [October] 32)

John 7:32–52

- 32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about Jesus, so the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.
- 33 Then Jesus said, “I will be with you for only a little while longer, and then I am going to the one who sent me.
- 34 You will look for me but will not find me, and where I am you cannot come.”
- 35 Then the Jewish leaders said to one another, “Where is he going to go that we cannot find him? He is not going to go to the Jewish people dispersed among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, is he?”
- 36 What did he mean by saying, ‘You will look for me but will not find me, and where I am you cannot come?’”
- 37 On the last day of the feast, the greatest day, Jesus stood up and shouted out, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me, and
- 38 let the one who believes in me drink. Just as the scripture says, ‘From within him will flow rivers of living water.’” cf. [Isa 55:1]
- 39 (Now he said this about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were going to receive, for the Spirit had not yet been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)
- 40 When they heard these words, some of the crowd began to say, “This really is the Prophet!”
- 41 Others said, “This is the Christ!” But still others said, “No, for the Christ doesn’t come from Galilee, does he?”
- 42 Don’t the scriptures say that the Christ is a descendant of David and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?” cf. [2 Sam 7:12–16; Ps 89:3–4, 35–37; Isa 9:7; 11:1; 55:3; Mic 5:2]
- 43 So there was a division in the crowd because of Jesus.
- 44 Some of them were wanting to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him.
- 45 Then the officers returned to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, “Why didn’t you bring him back with you?”
- 46 The officers replied, “No one ever spoke like this man!”
- 47 Then the Pharisees answered, “You haven’t been deceived too, have you?”
- 48 None of the rulers or the Pharisees have believed in him, have they?”
- 49 But this rabble who do not know the law are accursed!”
- 50 Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus before and who was one of the rulers, said, cf. [John 3:1–21]

51 “Our law doesn’t condemn a man unless it first hears from him and learns what he is doing, does it?”

52 They replied, “You aren’t from Galilee too, are you? Investigate carefully and you will see that no prophet comes from Galilee!”

Late Judean Ministry—A Woman Caught in Adultery (Tishri [October] 32)

John 7:53–8:11

7:53 [[And each one departed to his own house.

8:1 But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

2 Early in the morning he came to the temple courts again. All the people came to him, and he sat down and began to teach them.

3 The experts in the law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught committing adultery. They made her stand in front of them

4 and said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery.

5 In the law Moses commanded us to stone to death such women. What then do you say?” cf. [Lev 20:10; Deut 22:22–24]

6 (Now they were asking this in an attempt to trap him, so that they could bring charges against him.) Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground with his finger.

7 When they persisted in asking him, he stood up straight and replied, “Whoever among you is guiltless may be the first to throw a stone at her.”

8 Then he bent over again and wrote on the ground.

9 Now when they heard this, they began to drift away one at a time, starting with the older ones, until Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

10 Jesus stood up straight and said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

11 She replied, “No one, Lord.” And Jesus said, “I do not condemn you either. Go, and from now on do not sin any more.”]]

Late Judean Ministry—The Light of the World (Tishri [October] 32)

John 8:12–20

12 Then Jesus spoke out again, “I am the light of the world. The one who follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

13 So the Pharisees objected, “You testify about yourself; your testimony is not true!”

14 Jesus answered, “Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going. But you people do not know where I came from or where I am going.

15 You people judge by outward appearances; I do not judge anyone.

16 But if I judge, my evaluation is accurate, because I am not alone when I judge, but I and the Father who sent me do so together.

17 It is written in your law that the testimony of two men is true. cf. [Deut 17:6; 19:15]

18 I testify about myself and the Father who sent me testifies about me.”

19 Then they began asking him, “Who is your father?” Jesus answered, “You do not know either me or my Father. If you knew me you would know my Father too.”

20 (Jesus spoke these words near the offering box while he was teaching in the temple courts. No one seized him because his time had not yet come.)

Late Judean Ministry—Jesus Predicts His Departure (Tishri [October] 32)

John 8:21–59

21 Then Jesus said to them again, “I am going away, and you will look for me but will die in your sin. Where I am going you cannot come.”

22 So the Jewish leaders began to say, “Perhaps he is going to kill himself, because he says, ‘Where I am going you cannot come.’”

23 Jesus replied, “You people are from below; I am from above. You people are from this world; I am not from this world.

24 Thus I told you that you will die in your sins. For unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins.”

25 So they said to him, “Who are you?” Jesus replied, “What I have told you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge about you, but the Father who sent me is truthful, and the things I have heard from him I speak to the world.”

27 (They did not understand that he was telling them about his Father.)

28 Then Jesus said, “When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing on my own initiative, but I speak just what the Father taught me.

29 And the one who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, because I always do those things that please him.”

30 While he was saying these things, many people believed in him.

31 Then Jesus said to those Judeans who had believed him, “If you continue to follow my teaching, you are really my disciples

32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

33 “We are descendants of Abraham,” they replied, “and have never been anyone’s slaves! How can you say, ‘You will become free?’”

34 Jesus answered them, “I tell you the solemn truth, everyone who practices sin is a slave of sin.

35 The slave does not remain in the family forever, but the son remains forever.

36 So if the son sets you free, you will be really free.

37 I know that you are Abraham’s descendants. But you want to kill me, because my teaching makes no progress among you.

38 I am telling you the things I have seen while with the Father; as for you, practice the things you have heard from the Father!”

39 They answered him, “Abraham is our father!” Jesus replied, “If you are Abraham’s children, you would be doing the deeds of Abraham. cf. [Gal 3:6–7; Rom 9:6–8]

40 But now you are trying to kill me, a man who has told you the truth I heard from God. Abraham did not do this!

41 You people are doing the deeds of your father.” Then they said to Jesus, “We were not born as a result of immorality! We have only one Father, God himself.”

42 Jesus replied, “If God were your Father, you would love me, for I have come from God and am now here. I have not come on my own initiative, but he sent me.

43 Why don’t you understand what I am saying? It is because you cannot accept my teaching.

44 You people are from your father the devil, and you want to do what your father desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and does not uphold the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he lies, he speaks according to his own nature, because he is a liar and the father of lies.

45 But because I am telling you the truth, you do not believe me.

46 Who among you can prove me guilty of any sin? If I am telling you the truth, why don’t you believe me?

47 The one who belongs to God listens and responds to God’s words. You don’t listen and respond, because you don’t belong to God.”

48 The Judeans replied, “Aren’t we correct in saying that you are a Samaritan and are possessed by a demon?”

49 Jesus answered, “I am not possessed by a demon, but I honor my Father—and yet you dishonor me.

50 I am not trying to get praise for myself. There is one who demands it, and he also judges.

51 I tell you the solemn truth, if anyone obeys my teaching, he will never see death.”

52 Then the Judeans responded, “Now we know you’re possessed by a demon! Both Abraham and the prophets died, and yet you say, ‘If anyone obeys my teaching, he will never experience death.’

53 You aren’t greater than our father Abraham who died, are you? And the prophets died too! Who do you claim to be?”

54 Jesus replied, “If I glorify myself, my glory is worthless. The one who glorifies me is my Father, about whom you people say, ‘He is our God.’

55 Yet you do not know him, but I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him, and I obey his teaching.

56 Your father Abraham was overjoyed to see my day, and he saw it and was glad.”

57 Then the Judeans replied, “You are not yet fifty years old! Have you seen Abraham?”

58 Jesus said to them, “I tell you the solemn truth, before Abraham came into existence, I am!”

59 Then they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out from the temple area.

Textual Notes

- 1) The story of the woman caught in adultery is separated from the rest of the text by double brackets. This is done to visually indicate doubt on the part of most scholars that this story is part of John’s original gospel manuscript. For a good discussion of this issue, see Andreas J. Kostenberger, John: Baker Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament, (Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Academic, 2004), pp. 245–249.¹

Late Judean Ministry—Commissioning of the Seventy (November 32)

Luke 10:1–16

- 1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them on ahead of him two by two into every town and place where he himself was about to go.
- 2 He said to them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest.
- 3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs surrounded by wolves.
- 4 Do not carry a money bag, a traveler’s bag, or sandals, and greet no one on the road.
- 5 Whenever you enter a house, first say, ‘May peace be on this house!’
- 6 And if a peace-loving person is there, your peace will remain on him, but if not, it will return to you.
- 7 Stay in that same house, eating and drinking what they give you, for the worker deserves his pay. Do not move around from house to house.
- 8 Whenever you enter a town and the people welcome you, eat what is set before you.
- 9 Heal the sick in that town and say to them, ‘The kingdom of God has come upon you!’
- 10 But whenever you enter a town and the people do not welcome you, go into its streets and say,
- 11 ‘Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this: The kingdom of God has come.’
- 12 I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town!
- 13 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
- 14 But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you!
- 15 And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be thrown down to Hades!
- 16 “The one who listens to you listens to me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects the one who sent me.”

Late Judean Ministry—Return of the Seventy (November 32)

Luke 10:17–24

- 17 Then the seventy-two returned with joy, saying, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name!”
- 18 So he said to them, “I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven.
- 19 Look, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions and on the full force of the enemy, and nothing will hurt you.
- 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names stand written in heaven.”
- 21 On that same occasion Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intelligent, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this was your gracious will.
- 22 All things have been given to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son decides to reveal him.”
- 23 Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said privately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!
- 24 For I tell you that many prophets and kings longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.”

Late Judean Ministry—Who Is My Neighbor? (November 32)

Luke 10:25–37

- 25 Now an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus, saying, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”
- 26 He said to him, “What is written in the law? How do you understand it?”
- 27 The expert answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and love your neighbor as yourself.” [Deut 6:5; Lev 19:18]
- 28 Jesus said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.” [Lev 18:5]
- 29 But the expert, wanting to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”
- 30 Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him up, and went off, leaving him half dead.
- 31 Now by chance a priest was going down that road, but when he saw the injured man he passed by on the other side.
- 32 So too a Levite, when he came up to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.
- 33 But a Samaritan who was traveling came to where the injured man was, and when he saw him, he felt compassion for him.
- 34 He went up to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever else you spend, I will repay you when I come back this way.'

36 Which of these three do you think became a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?"

37 The expert in religious law said, "The one who showed mercy to him." So Jesus said to him, "Go and do the same."

Late Judean Ministry—Mary and Martha (November 32)

Luke 10:38–42

38 Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him as a guest.

39 She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he said.

40 But Martha was distracted with all the preparations she had to make, so she came up to him and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister has left me to do all the work alone? Tell her to help me."

41 But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things, 42 but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the best part; it will not be taken away from her."

Late Judean Ministry—Teach Us to Pray (November 32)

Luke 11:1–13

1 Now Jesus was praying in a certain place. When he stopped, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

2 So he said to them, "When you pray, say:

Father, may your name be honored;
may your kingdom come.

3 Give us each day our daily bread,

4 and forgive us our sins,

for we also forgive everyone who sins against us.

And do not lead us into temptation."

5 Then he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

6 because a friend of mine has stopped here while on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him.'

7 Then he will reply from inside, 'Do not bother me. The door is already shut, and my children and I are in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything.'

8 I tell you, even though the man inside will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of the first man's sheer persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs.

9 "So I tell you: Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

10 For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

11 What father among you, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish?

12 Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion?

13 If you then, although you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Late Judean Ministry—A House Divided (November 32)

Luke 11:14–36

14 Now he was casting out a demon that was mute. When the demon had gone out, the man who had been mute began to speak, and the crowds were amazed.

15 But some of them said, "By the power of Beelzebul, the ruler of demons, he casts out demons."

16 Others, to test him, began asking for a sign from heaven.

17 But Jesus, realizing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is destroyed, and a divided household falls.

18 So if Satan too is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? I ask you this because you claim that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.

19 Now if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges.

20 But if I cast out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has already overtaken you.

21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his possessions are safe.

22 But when a stronger man attacks and conquers him, he takes away the first man's armor on which the man relied and divides up his plunder.

23 Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.

24 “When an unclean spirit goes out of a person, it passes through waterless places looking for rest but not finding any. Then it says, ‘I will return to the home I left.’

25 When it returns, it finds the house swept clean and put in order.

26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there, so the last state of that person is worse than the first.”

27 As he said these things, a woman in the crowd spoke out to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you and the breasts at which you nursed!”

28 But he replied, “Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and obey it!”

29 As the crowds were increasing, Jesus began to say, “This generation is a wicked generation; it looks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. cf. [Jonah 3]

30 For just as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so the Son of Man will be a sign to this generation.

31 The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the people of this generation and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon—and now, something greater than Solomon is here! cf. [1 Kgs 10:1–3]

32 The people of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented when Jonah preached to them—and now, something greater than Jonah is here!

33 “No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a hidden place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, so that those who come in can see the light.

34 Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is diseased, your body is full of darkness.

35 Therefore see to it that the light in you is not darkness.

36 If then your whole body is full of light, with no part in the dark, it will be as full of light as when the light of a lamp shines on you.”

Chronological Notes

- 1) Thomas & Gundry comment on Luke 11:15—“The same accusation was made about a year before when a similar debate ensued. Jesus used the same three arguments he had used on the earlier occasion. That the two encounters were distinct from each other is seen by three factors: 1) Luke appears to place this debate in Judea while the earlier one was in Galilee. 2) In Luke’s account the man healed is dumb, but in Matthew’s he is blind and dumb. Luke, in line with his medical orientation, would hardly have failed to mention the blindness if this were the man’s condition. 3) Events that follow the two episodes are quite different, namely, the initiation of parabolic teaching in the earlier case and breakfast with a Pharisee in the later.”¹

Late Judean Ministry—Woes to Scribes and Pharisees (November 32)

Luke 11:37–54

37 As he spoke, a Pharisee invited Jesus to have a meal with him, so he went in and took his place at the table.
 38 The Pharisee was astonished when he saw that Jesus did not first wash his hands before the meal.
 39 But the Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness.
 40 You fools! Didn’t the one who made the outside make the inside as well?
 41 But give from your heart to those in need, and then everything will be clean for you.
 42 “But woe to you Pharisees! You give a tenth of your mint, rue, and every herb, yet you neglect justice and love for God! But you should have done these things without neglecting the others. cf. [Mic 6:8]
 43 Woe to you Pharisees! You love the best seats in the synagogues and elaborate greetings in the marketplaces!
 44 Woe to you! You are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without realizing it!” cf. [Num 19:11–22]
 45 One of the experts in religious law answered him, “Teacher, when you say these things you insult us too.”
 46 But Jesus replied, “Woe to you experts in religious law as well! You load people down with burdens difficult to bear, yet you yourselves refuse to touch the burdens with even one of your fingers!
 47 Woe to you! You build the tombs of the prophets whom your ancestors killed.
 48 So you testify that you approve of the deeds of your ancestors, because they killed the prophets and you build their tombs!
 49 For this reason also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,’
 50 so that this generation may be held accountable for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed since the beginning of the world,
 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be charged against this generation. cf. [2 Chr 24:20–25]
 52 Woe to you experts in religious law! You have taken away the key to knowledge! You did not go in yourselves, and you hindered those who were going in.”
 53 When he went out from there, the experts in the law and the Pharisees began to oppose him bitterly, and to ask him hostile questions about many things,
 54 plotting against him, to catch him in something he might say.

Late Judean Ministry—Jesus’ Warnings (November 32)

Luke 12

Beware the Leaven of the Pharisees

1 Meanwhile, when many thousands of the crowd had gathered so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to his disciples, “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
 2 Nothing is hidden that will not be revealed, and nothing is secret that will not be made known.
 3 So then whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms will be proclaimed from the housetops.

Fear God

4 “I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more they can do.
 5 But I will warn you whom you should fear: Fear the one who, after the killing, has authority to throw you into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him!
 6 Aren’t five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten before God.
 7 In fact, even the hairs on your head are all numbered. Do not be afraid; you are more valuable than many sparrows.

Acknowledge Christ Before Men

8 “I tell you, whoever acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man will also acknowledge before God’s angels.
 9 But the one who denies me before men will be denied before God’s angels.
 10 And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the person who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.
 11 But when they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you should make your defense or what you should say,
 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that moment what you must say.”

Parable of the Rich Fool

13 Then someone from the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me.”
 14 But Jesus said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator between you two?”
 15 Then he said to them, “Watch out and guard yourself from all types of greed, because one’s life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions.”

16 He then told them a parable: “The land of a certain rich man produced an abundant crop,

17 so he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?’

18 Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

19 And I will say to myself, “You have plenty of goods stored up for many years; relax, eat, drink, celebrate!”

20 But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life will be demanded back from you, but who will get what you have prepared for yourself?’

21 So it is with the one who stores up riches for himself, but is not rich toward God.”

Do Not Worry

22 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear.

23 For there is more to life than food, and more to the body than clothing.

24 Consider the ravens: They do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn, yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds!

25 And which of you by worrying can add an hour to his life?

26 So if you cannot do such a very little thing as this, why do you worry about the rest?

27 Consider how the flowers grow; they do not work or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed like one of these!

28 And if this is how God clothes the wild grass, which is here today and tomorrow is tossed into the fire to heat the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you people of little faith!

29 So do not be overly concerned about what you will eat and what you will drink, and do not worry about such things.

30 For all the nations of the world pursue these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

31 Instead, pursue his kingdom, and these things will be given to you as well.

32 “Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father is well pleased to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor. Provide yourselves purses that do not wear out—a treasure in heaven that never decreases, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.

34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Parable of the Faithful and Foolish Slaves

35 “Get dressed for service and keep your lamps burning;

36 be like people waiting for their master to come back from the wedding celebration, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.

37 Blessed are those slaves whom their master finds alert when he returns! I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, have them take their place at the table, and will come and wait on them!

38 Even if he comes in the second or third watch of the night and finds them alert, blessed are those slaves!

39 But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

40 You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.”

41 Then Peter said, “Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for everyone?”

42 The Lord replied, “Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his household servants, to give them their allowance of food at the proper time?

43 Blessed is that slave whom his master finds at work when he returns.

44 I tell you the truth, the master will put him in charge of all his possessions.

45 But if that slave should say to himself, ‘My master is delayed in returning,’ and he begins to beat the other slaves, both men and women, and to eat, drink, and get drunk,

46 then the master of that slave will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not foresee, and will cut him in two, and assign him a place with the unfaithful.

47 That servant who knew his master’s will but did not get ready or do what his master asked will receive a severe beating.

48 But the one who did not know his master’s will and did things worthy of punishment will receive a light beating. From everyone who has been given much, much will be required, and from the one who has been entrusted with much, even more will be asked.

Christ Brings Division, Not Peace

49 “I have come to bring fire on the earth—and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is finished!

51 Do you think I have come to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

52 For from now on there will be five in one household divided, three against two and two against three.

53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.”

Interpreting the Time

54 Jesus also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, ‘A rainstorm is coming,’ and it does.

55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and there is.

56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how can you not know how to interpret the present time?

Judge What is Right

57 “And why don’t you judge for yourselves what is right?

58 As you are going with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, so that he will not drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59 I tell you, you will never get out of there until you have paid the very last cent!”

Late Judean Ministry—Repent or Perish (November 32)

Luke 13:1–9

1 Now there were some present on that occasion who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

2 He answered them, “Do you think these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered these things?

3 No, I tell you! But unless you repent, you will all perish as well!

4 Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower in Siloam fell on them, do you think they were worse offenders than all the others who live in Jerusalem?

5 No, I tell you! But unless you repent you will all perish as well!”

6 Then Jesus told this parable: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it and found none.

7 So he said to the worker who tended the vineyard, ‘For three years now, I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and each time I inspect it I find none. Cut it down! Why should it continue to deplete the soil?’

8 But the worker answered him, ‘Sir, leave it alone this year too, until I dig around it and put fertilizer on it.

9 Then if it bears fruit next year, very well, but if not, you can cut it down.”

Late Judean Ministry—A Woman Healed on the Sabbath (November 32)

Luke 13:10–21

10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath,

11 and a woman was there who had been disabled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten herself up completely.

12 When Jesus saw her, he called her to him and said, “Woman, you are freed from your infirmity.”

13 Then he placed his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God.

14 But the president of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, “There are six days on which work should be done! So come and be healed on those days, and not on the Sabbath day.”

15 Then the Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from its stall, and lead it to water?

16 Then shouldn’t this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be released from this imprisonment on the Sabbath day?”

17 When he said this all his adversaries were humiliated, but the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things he was doing.

18 Thus Jesus asked, “What is the kingdom of God like? To what should I compare it?

19 It is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the wild birds nested in its branches.”

20 Again he said, “To what should I compare the kingdom of God?

21 It is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of flour until all the dough had risen.”

Late Judean Ministry—Healing a Man Born Blind (November 32)

John 9

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

1 Now as Jesus was passing by, he saw a man who had been blind from birth.

2 His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who committed the sin that caused him to be born blind, this man or his parents?”

3 Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but he was born blind so that the acts of God may be revealed through what happens to him.

4 We must perform the deeds of the one who sent me as long as it is daytime. Night is coming when no one can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

6 Having said this, he spat on the ground and made some mud with the saliva. He smeared the mud on the blind man’s eyes

7 and said to him, “Go wash in the pool of Siloam” (which is translated “sent”). So the blind man went away and washed, and came back seeing.

Reaction of the Blind Man’s Neighbors

8 Then the neighbors and the people who had seen him previously as a beggar began saying, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?”

9 Some people said, “This is the man!” while others said, “No, but he looks like him.” The man himself kept insisting, “I am the one!”

10 So they asked him, “How then were you made to see?”

11 He replied, “The man called Jesus made mud, smeared it on my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ So I went and washed, and was able to see.”

12 They said to him, “Where is that man?” He replied, “I don’t know.”

Examination and Excommunication by the Pharisees

13 They brought the man who used to be blind to the Pharisees.

14 (Now the day on which Jesus made the mud and caused him to see was a Sabbath.)

15 So the Pharisees asked him again how he had gained his sight. He replied, “He put mud on my eyes and I washed, and now I am able to see.”

16 Then some of the Pharisees began to say, “This man is not from God, because he does not observe the Sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such miraculous signs?” Thus there was a division among them.

17 So again they asked the man who used to be blind, “What do you say about him, since he caused you to see?” “He is a prophet,” the man replied.

18 Now the Jewish religious leaders refused to believe that he had really been blind and had gained his sight until at last they summoned the parents of the man who had become able to see.

19 They asked the parents, “Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?”

20 So his parents replied, “We know that this is our son and that he was born blind.

21 But we do not know how he is now able to see, nor do we know who caused him to see. Ask him, he is a mature adult. He will speak for himself.”

22 (His parents said these things because they were afraid of the Jewish religious leaders. For the Jewish leaders had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Christ would be put out of the synagogue.

23 For this reason his parents said, “He is a mature adult, ask him.”)

24 Then they summoned the man who used to be blind a second time and said to him, “Promise before God to tell the truth. We know that this man is a sinner.”

25 He replied, “I do not know whether he is a sinner. I do know one thing—that although I was blind, now I can see.”

26 Then they said to him, “What did he do to you? How did he cause you to see?”

27 He answered, “I told you already and you didn’t listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You people don’t want to become his disciples too, do you?”

28 They heaped insults on him, saying, “You are his disciple! We are disciples of Moses!

29 We know that God has spoken to Moses! We do not know where this man comes from!”

30 The man replied, “This is a remarkable thing, that you don’t know where he comes from, and yet he caused me to see!

31 We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but if anyone is devout and does his will, God listens to him.

32 Never before has anyone heard of someone causing a man born blind to see.

33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.”

34 They replied, “You were born completely in sinfulness, and yet you presume to teach us?” So they threw him out.

Jesus Seeks Out the Blind Man

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, so he found the man and said to him, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

36 The man replied, “And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?”

37 Jesus told him, “You have seen him; he is the one speaking with you.”

38 He said, “Lord, I believe,” and he worshiped him.

Blindness of the Pharisees

39 Jesus said, “For judgment I have come into this world, so that those who do not see may gain their sight, and the ones who see may become blind.”

40 Some of the Pharisees who were with him heard this and asked him, “We are not blind too, are we?”

41 Jesus replied, “If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin, but now because you claim that you can see, your guilt remains.”

Late Judean Ministry—The Good Shepherd (November 32)

John 10:1–21

1 “I tell you the solemn truth, the one who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber.

2 The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 The doorkeeper opens the door for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

4 When he has brought all his own sheep out, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they recognize his voice.

5 They will never follow a stranger, but will run away from him, because they do not recognize the stranger’s voice.”

6 Jesus told them this parable, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

7 So Jesus said to them again, “I tell you the solemn truth, I am the door for the sheep.

8 All who came before me were thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them.

9 I am the door. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and will come in and go out, and find pasture.

10 The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come so that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.

11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

12 The hired hand, who is not a shepherd and does not own sheep, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and runs away. So the wolf attacks the sheep and scatters them.

13 Because he is a hired hand and is not concerned about the sheep, he runs away.

14 “I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me—

15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father—and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 I have other sheep that do not come from this sheepfold. I must bring them too, and they will listen to my voice, so that there will be one flock and one shepherd.

17 This is why the Father loves me—because I lay down my life, so that I may take it back again.

18 No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down of my own free will. I have the authority to lay it down, and I have the authority to take it back again. This commandment I received from my Father.”

19 Another sharp division took place among the Jewish people because of these words.

20 Many of them were saying, “He is possessed by a demon and has lost his mind! Why do you listen to him?”

21 Others said, “These are not the words of someone possessed by a demon. A demon cannot cause the blind to see, can it?”

Late Judean Ministry—Jesus at the Feast of Dedication (December 32)

John 10:22–39

22 Then came the feast of the Dedication in Jerusalem.

23 It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple area in Solomon’s Portico.

24 The Jewish leaders surrounded him and asked, “How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly.”

25 Jesus replied, “I told you and you do not believe. The deeds I do in my Father’s name testify about me.

26 But you refuse to believe because you are not my sheep.

27 My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

28 I give them eternal life, and they will never perish; no one will snatch them from my hand.

29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can snatch them from my Father’s hand.

30 The Father and I are one.”

31 The Jewish leaders picked up rocks again to stone him to death.

32 Jesus said to them, “I have shown you many good deeds from the Father. For which one of them are you going to stone me?”

33 The Jewish leaders replied, “We are not going to stone you for a good deed but for blasphemy, because you, a man, are claiming to be God.”

34 Jesus answered, “Is it not written in your law, ‘I said, you are gods’? [Ps 82:6]

35 If those people to whom the word of God came were called ‘gods’ (and the scripture cannot be broken),

36 do you say about the one whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’?

37 If I do not perform the deeds of my Father, do not believe me.

38 But if I do them, even if you do not believe me, believe the deeds, so that you may come to know and understand that I am in the Father and the Father is in me.”

39 Then they attempted again to seize him, but he escaped their clutches.

From Jerusalem to Perea (32/33)

John 10:40–42

40 Jesus went back across the Jordan River again to the place where John had been baptizing at an earlier time, and he stayed there.

41 Many came to him and began to say, "John performed no miraculous sign, but everything John said about this man was true!"

42 And many believed in Jesus there.

Perean Ministry—The Narrow Way (early 33)

Luke 13:22–35

22 Then Jesus traveled throughout towns and villages, teaching and making his way toward Jerusalem.

23 Someone asked him, “Lord, will only a few be saved?” So he said to them, 24 “Exert every effort to enter through the narrow door, because many, I tell you, will try to enter and will not be able to.

25 Once the head of the house gets up and shuts the door, then you will stand outside and start to knock on the door and beg him, ‘Lord, let us in!’ But he will answer you, ‘I don’t know where you come from.’

26 Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.’

27 But he will reply, ‘I don’t know where you come from! Go away from me, all you evildoers!’ cf. [Ps 6:8]

28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves thrown out.

29 Then people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and take their places at the banquet table in the kingdom of God.

30 But indeed, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.”

31 At that time, some Pharisees came up and said to Jesus, “Get away from here, because Herod wants to kill you.”

32 But he said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Look, I am casting out demons and performing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will complete my work.

33 Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, because it is impossible that a prophet should be killed outside Jerusalem.’

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those who are sent to you! How often I have longed to gather your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you would have none of it!

35 Look, your house is forsaken! And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, ‘Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’” [Ps 118:26]

Perean Ministry—Another Sabbath Healing Controversy (early 33)

Luke 14:1–24

1 Now one Sabbath when Jesus went to dine at the house of a leader of the Pharisees, they were watching him closely.

2 There right in front of him was a man suffering from dropsy.

3 So Jesus asked the experts in religious law and the Pharisees, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?”

4 But they remained silent. So Jesus took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away.

5 Then he said to them, “Which of you, if you have a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?”

6 But they could not reply to this.

7 Then when Jesus noticed how the guests chose the places of honor, he told them a parable. He said to them,

8 “When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not take the place of honor, because a person more distinguished than you may have been invited by your host.

9 So the host who invited both of you will come and say to you, ‘Give this man your place.’ Then, ashamed, you will begin to move to the least important place.

10 But when you are invited, go and take the least important place, so that when your host approaches he will say to you, ‘Friend, move up here to a better place.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who share the meal with you.

11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

12 He said also to the man who had invited him, “When you host a dinner or a banquet, don’t invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors so you can be invited by them in return and get repaid.

13 But when you host an elaborate meal, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind.

14 Then you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

15 When one of those at the meal with Jesus heard this, he said to him, “Blessed is everyone who will feast in the kingdom of God!”

16 But Jesus said to him, “A man once gave a great banquet and invited many guests.

17 At the time for the banquet he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, ‘Come, because everything is now ready.’

18 But one after another they all began to make excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please excuse me.’

19 Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going out to examine them. Please excuse me.’

20 Another said, ‘I just got married, and I cannot come.’

21 So the slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the master of the household was furious and said to his slave, ‘Go out quickly to the streets and alleys of the city, and bring in the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’

22 Then the slave said, ‘Sir, what you instructed has been done, and there is still room.’

23 So the master said to his slave, ‘Go out to the highways and country roads and urge people to come in, so that my house will be filled.’

24 For I tell you, not one of those individuals who were invited will taste my banquet!”

Perean Ministry—Cost of Discipleship (early 33)

Luke 14:25–35

25 Now large crowds were accompanying Jesus, and turning to them he said,
 26 “If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother, and wife and children, and brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.
 27 Whoever does not carry his own cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.
 28 For which of you, wanting to build a tower, doesn’t sit down first and compute the cost to see if he has enough money to complete it?
 29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish the tower, all who see it will begin to make fun of him.
 30 They will say, ‘This man began to build and was not able to finish!’
 31 Or what king, going out to confront another king in battle, will not sit down first and determine whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand?
 32 If he cannot succeed, he will send a representative while the other is still a long way off and ask for terms of peace.
 33 In the same way therefore not one of you can be my disciple if he does not renounce all his own possessions.
 34 “Salt is good, but if salt loses its flavor, how can its flavor be restored?
 35 It is of no value for the soil or for the manure pile; it is to be thrown out. The one who has ears to hear had better listen!”

Perean Ministry—Parable of the Lost Sheep, Lost Coin and Lost Son (early 33)

Luke 15

Parable of the Lost Sheep

1 Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming to hear him.
 2 But the Pharisees and the experts in the law were complaining, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.”
 3 So Jesus told them this parable:
 4 “Which one of you, if he has a hundred sheep and loses one of them, would not leave the ninety-nine in the open pasture and go look for the one that is lost until he finds it?
 5 Then when he has found it, he places it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
 6 Returning home, he calls together his friends and neighbors, telling them, ‘Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.’
 7 I tell you, in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need to repent.

Parable of the Lost Coin

8 “Or what woman, if she has ten silver coins and loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search thoroughly until she finds it?
 9 Then when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.’
 10 In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of God’s angels over one sinner who repents.”

Parable of the Lost Son

11 Then Jesus said, “A man had two sons.
 12 The younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the share of the estate that will belong to me.’ So he divided his assets between them.
 13 After a few days, the younger son gathered together all he had and left on a journey to a distant country, and there he squandered his wealth with a wild lifestyle.
 14 Then after he had spent everything, a severe famine took place in that country, and he began to be in need.
 15 So he went and worked for one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.
 16 He was longing to eat the carob pods the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.
 17 But when he came to his senses he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have food enough to spare, but here I am dying from hunger!
 18 I will get up and go to my father and say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
 19 I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired workers.”’
 20 So he got up and went to his father. But while he was still a long way from home his father saw him, and his heart went out to him; he ran and hugged his son and kissed him.
 21 Then his son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’

22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Hurry! Bring the best robe, and put it on him! Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet!
23 Bring the fattened calf and kill it! Let us eat and celebrate,
24 because this son of mine was dead, and is alive again—he was lost and is found!' So they began to celebrate.
25 "Now his older son was in the field. As he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.
26 So he called one of the slaves and asked what was happening.
27 The slave replied, 'Your brother has returned, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he got his son back safe and sound.'
28 But the older son became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and appealed to him,
29 but he answered his father, 'Look! These many years I have worked like a slave for you, and I never disobeyed your commands. Yet you never gave me even a goat so that I could celebrate with my friends!
30 But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your assets with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!'
31 Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and everything that belongs to me is yours.
32 It was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost and is found.'"

Scripture quoted by permission. Perean Ministry—Parable of the Dishonest Manager (early 33)

Luke 16:1–13

1 Jesus also said to the disciples, “There was a rich man who was informed of accusations that his manager was wasting his assets.
 2 So he called the manager in and said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Turn in the account of your administration, because you can no longer be my manager.’
 3 Then the manager said to himself, ‘What should I do, since my master is taking my position away from me? I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m too ashamed to beg.
 4 I know what to do so that when I am put out of management, people will welcome me into their homes.’
 5 So he contacted his master’s debtors one by one. He asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’
 6 The man replied, ‘A hundred measures of olive oil.’ The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and write fifty.’
 7 Then he said to another, ‘And how much do you owe?’ The second man replied, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ The manager said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’
 8 The master commended the dishonest manager because he acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their contemporaries than the people of light.
 9 And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by how you use worldly wealth, so that when it runs out you will be welcomed into the eternal homes.
 10 “The one who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and the one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much.
 11 If then you haven’t been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will entrust you with the true riches?
 12 And if you haven’t been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you your own?
 13 No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.”

Perean Ministry—Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus (early 33)

Luke 16:14–31

Jesus Responds to the Pharisees’ Scorn

14 The Pharisees (who loved money) heard all this and ridiculed him.
 15 But Jesus said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in men’s eyes, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly prized among men is utterly detestable in God’s sight.
 16 “The law and the prophets were until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed, and everyone is urged to enter it.
 17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one tiny stroke of a letter in the law to become void.
 18 “Everyone who divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery, and the one who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

Parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus

19 “There was a rich man who dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day.
 20 But at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus whose body was covered with sores,
 21 who longed to eat what fell from the rich man’s table. In addition, the dogs came and licked his sores.
 22 “Now the poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried.
 23 And in hell, as he was in torment, he looked up and saw Abraham far off with Lazarus at his side.
 24 So he called out, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, because I am in anguish in this fire.’
 25 But Abraham said, ‘Child, remember that in your lifetime you received your good things and Lazarus likewise bad things, but now he is comforted here and you are in anguish.
 26 Besides all this, a great chasm has been fixed between us, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.’
 27 So the rich man said, ‘Then I beg you, father—send Lazarus to my father’s house
 28 (for I have five brothers) to warn them so that they don’t come into this place of torment.’
 29 But Abraham said, ‘They have Moses and the prophets; they must respond to them.’
 30 Then the rich man said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.’
 31 He replied to him, ‘If they do not respond to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Perean Ministry—Four Lessons on Discipleship (early 33)

Luke 17:1–10

- 1 Jesus said to his disciples, “Stumbling blocks are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come!
- 2 It would be better for him to have a millstone tied around his neck and be thrown into the sea than for him to cause one of these little ones to sin.
- 3 Watch yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him.
- 4 Even if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times returns to you saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”
- 5 The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!”
- 6 So the Lord replied, “If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this black mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled out by the roots and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.
- 7 “Would any one of you say to your slave who comes in from the field after plowing or shepherding sheep, ‘Come at once and sit down for a meal’?
- 8 Won’t the master instead say to him, ‘Get my dinner ready, and make yourself ready to serve me while I eat and drink. Then you may eat and drink’?
- 9 He won’t thank the slave because he did what he was told, will he?
- 10 So you too, when you have done everything you were commanded to do, should say, ‘We are slaves undeserving of special praise; we have only done what was our duty.’”

Perean Ministry—Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead (early 33)

John 11:1–44

The Death of Lazarus

- 1 Now a certain man named Lazarus was sick. He was from Bethany, the village where Mary and her sister Martha lived.
- 2 (Now it was Mary who anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and wiped his feet dry with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)
- 3 So the sisters sent a message to Jesus, “Lord, look, the one you love is sick.”
- 4 When Jesus heard this, he said, “This sickness will not lead to death, but to God’s glory, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”
- 5 (Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.)

Jesus Delays

- 6 So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he remained in the place where he was for two more days.
- 7 Then after this, he said to his disciples, “Let us go to Judea again.”
- 8 The disciples replied, “Rabbi, the Jewish leaders were just now trying to stone you to death! Are you going there again?”
- 9 Jesus replied, “Are there not twelve hours in a day? If anyone walks around in the daytime, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.
- 10 But if anyone walks around at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”
- 11 After he said this, he added, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I am going there to awaken him.”
- 12 Then the disciples replied, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”
- 13 (Now Jesus had been talking about his death, but they thought he had been talking about real sleep.)
- 14 Then Jesus told them plainly, “Lazarus has died,
- 15 and I am glad for your sake that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him.”
- 16 So Thomas (called Didymus) said to his fellow disciples, “Let us go too, so that we may die with him.”

Martha and Mary Speak With Jesus Outside Bethany

- 17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had been in the tomb four days already.
- 18 (Now Bethany was less than two miles from Jerusalem,
- 19 so many of the Jewish people of the region had come to Martha and Mary to console them over the loss of their brother.)
- 20 So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary was sitting in the house.
- 21 Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.
- 22 But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will grant you.”
- 23 Jesus replied, “Your brother will come back to life again.”
- 24 Martha said, “I know that he will come back to life again in the resurrection at the last day.”
- 25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live even if he dies,
- 26 and the one who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”
- 27 She replied, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God who comes into the world.”
- 28 And when she had said this, Martha went and called her sister Mary, saying privately, “The Teacher is here and is asking for you.”
- 29 So when Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to him.
- 30 (Now Jesus had not yet entered the village, but was still in the place where Martha had come out to meet him.)

- 31 Then the people who were with Mary in the house consoling her saw her get up quickly and go out. They followed her, because they thought she was going to the tomb to weep there.
- 32 Now when Mary came to the place where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.”
- 33 When Jesus saw her weeping, and the people who had come with her weeping, he was intensely moved in spirit and greatly distressed.
- 34 He asked, “Where have you laid him?” They replied, “Lord, come and see.”
- 35 Jesus wept.
- 36 Thus the people who had come to mourn said, “Look how much he loved him!”
- 37 But some of them said, “This is the man who caused the blind man to see! Couldn’t he have done something to keep Lazarus from dying?”

Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead

- 38 Jesus, intensely moved again, came to the tomb. (Now it was a cave, and a stone was placed across it.)
- 39 Jesus said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of the deceased, replied, “Lord, by this time the body will have a bad smell, because he has been buried four days.”
- 40 Jesus responded, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believe, you would see the glory of God?”
- 41 So they took away the stone. Jesus looked upward and said, “Father, I thank you that you have listened to me.
- 42 I knew that you always listen to me, but I said this for the sake of the crowd standing around here, that they may believe that you sent me.”
- 43 When he had said this, he shouted in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”
- 44 The one who had died came out, his feet and hands tied up with strips of cloth, and a cloth wrapped around his face. Jesus said to them, “Unwrap him and let him go.”

Perean Ministry—The Plot to Kill Jesus (early 33)

John 11:45–54

- 45 Then many of the people, who had come with Mary and had seen the things Jesus did, believed in him.
- 46 But some of them went to the Pharisees and reported to them what Jesus had done.
- 47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees called the council together and said, “What are we doing? For this man is performing many miraculous signs.
- 48 If we allow him to go on in this way, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away our sanctuary and our nation.”
- 49 Then one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said, “You know nothing at all!
- 50 You do not realize that it is more to your advantage to have one man die for the people than for the whole nation to perish.”
- 51 (Now he did not say this on his own, but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the Jewish nation,
- 52 and not for the Jewish nation only, but to gather together into one the children of God who are scattered.)
- 53 So from that day they planned together to kill him.
- 54 Thus Jesus no longer went around publicly among the Judeans, but went away from there to the region near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

Perean Ministry—Ten Lepers Healed (c. March 22–27, 33)

Luke 17:11–37

The Grateful Samaritan

- 11 Now on the way to Jerusalem, Jesus was passing along between Samaria and Galilee.
 12 As he was entering a village, ten men with leprosy met him. They stood at a distance,
 13 raised their voices and said, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.”
 14 When he saw them he said, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” cf. [Lev 13:49; 14:2–4] And as they went along, they were cleansed.
 15 Then one of them, when he saw he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.
 16 He fell with his face to the ground at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. (Now he was a Samaritan.)
 17 Then Jesus said, “Were not ten cleansed? Where are the other nine?
 18 Was no one found to turn back and give praise to God except this foreigner?” cf. [2 Kgs 5:1–19]
 19 Then he said to the man, “Get up and go your way. Your faith has made you well.”

The Coming of Messiah’s Kingdom—The First and Second Comings

- 20 Now at one point the Pharisees asked Jesus when the kingdom of God was coming, so he answered, “The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed, 21 nor will they say, ‘Look, here it is!’ or ‘There!’ For indeed, the kingdom of God is in your midst.”
 22 Then he said to the disciples, “The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.
 23 Then people will say to you, ‘Look, there he is!’ or ‘Look, here he is!’ Do not go out or chase after them.
 24 For just like the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day.
 25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.
 26 Just as it was in the days of Noah, so too it will be in the days of the Son of Man. cf. [Gen 6–7]
 27 People were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage—right up to the day Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came and destroyed them all.
 28 Likewise, just as it was in the days of Lot, people were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building;
 29 but on the day Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all.
 30 It will be the same on the day the Son of Man is revealed.
 31 On that day, anyone who is on the roof, with his goods in the house, must not come down to take them away, and likewise the person in the field must not turn back.
 32 Remember Lot’s wife! cf. [Gen 19]
 33 Whoever tries to keep his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life will preserve it.
 34 I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed; one will be taken and the other left.
 35 There will be two women grinding grain together; one will be taken and the other left.”
 36 [many manuscripts do not contain this verse]
 37 Then the disciples said to him, “Where, Lord?” He replied to them, “Where the dead body is, there the vultures will gather.”

Perean Ministry—Two Parables on Prayer (c. March 22–27, 33)

Luke 18:1–14

Pray With Endurance—God Will Answer Quickly

- 1 Then Jesus told them a parable to show them they should always pray and not lose heart.
 2 He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected people.
 3 There was also a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’
 4 For a while he refused, but later on he said to himself, ‘Though I neither fear God nor have regard for people,
 5 yet because this widow keeps on bothering me, I will give her justice, or in the end she will wear me out by her unending pleas.’”
 6 And the Lord said, “Listen to what the unrighteous judge says!
 7 Won’t God give justice to his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he delay long to help them?
 8 I tell you, he will give them justice speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?”

Pray With Humility—God Resists the Proud

- 9 Jesus also told this parable to some who were confident that they were righteous and looked down on everyone else.
 10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.
 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed about himself like this: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other people: extortionists, unrighteous people, adulterers—or even like this tax collector.
 12 I fast twice a week; I give a tenth of everything I get.’
 13 The tax collector, however, stood far off and would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, ‘God, be merciful to me, sinner that I am!’

14 I tell you that this man went down to his home justified rather than the Pharisee. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Perean Ministry—Concerning Divorce (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 19:1–12

1 Now when Jesus finished these sayings, he left Galilee and went to the region of Judea beyond the Jordan River.
 2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

3 Then some Pharisees came to him in order to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful to divorce a wife for any cause?”

4 He answered,

“Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator made them male and female, [Gen 1:27; 5:2] 5 and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and will be united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh’? [Gen 2:24] 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.” 7 They said to him, “Why then did Moses command us to give a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her?” 8 Jesus said to them, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of your hard hearts, but from the beginning it was not this way.

9 Now I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for immorality, and marries another commits adultery.”

10 The disciples said to him, “If this is the case of a husband with a wife, it is better not to marry!” 11 He said to them, “Not everyone can accept this statement, except those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are some eunuchs who were that way from birth, and some who were made eunuchs by others, and some who became eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who is able to accept this should accept it.”

Mark 10:1–12

1 Then Jesus left that place and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan River. Again crowds gathered to him, and again, as was his custom, he taught them.

2 Then some Pharisees came, and to test him they asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

3 He answered them, “What did Moses command you?” 4 They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of dismissal and to divorce her.” [cf. Deut 24:1–4] 5 But Jesus said to them, “He wrote this commandment for you because of your hard hearts. 6 But from the beginning of creation he made them male and female. 7 For this reason a man will leave his father and mother, 8 and the two will become one flesh. So they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

10 In the house once again, the disciples asked him about this. 11 So he told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her. 12 And if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Perean Ministry—Jesus Blesses the Children (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 19:13–15	Mark 10:13–16	Luke 18:15–17
13 Then little children were brought to him for him to lay his hands on them and pray. But the disciples scolded those who brought them. 14 But Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.” 15 And he placed his hands on them and went on his way.	13 Now people were bringing little children to him for him to touch, but the disciples scolded those who brought them. 14 But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 15 I tell you the truth, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.” 16 After he took the children in his arms, he placed his hands on them and blessed them.	15 Now people were even bringing their babies to him for him to touch. But when the disciples saw it, they began to scold those who brought them. 16 But Jesus called for the children, saying, “Let the little children come to me and do not try to stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. 17 I tell you the truth, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

Perean Ministry—The Rich Young Ruler (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 19:16–30	Mark 10:17–31	Luke 18:18–30
16 Now someone came up to him and said, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to gain eternal life?” 17 He said to him, “Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments.” 18 “Which ones?” he asked. Jesus replied, “Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, 19 honor your father and mother, [Exod 20:12–16; Deut 5:16–20] and love your neighbor as yourself.” [Lev 19:18] 20 The young man said to him, “I have wholeheartedly obeyed all these laws. What do I still lack?” 21 Jesus said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go sell your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.” 22 But when the young man heard this he went away sorrowful, for he was very rich. 23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “I tell you the truth, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven!	17 Now as Jesus was starting out on his way, someone ran up to him, fell on his knees, and said, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 18 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. 19 You know the commandments: ‘Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.’” 20 The man said to him, “Teacher, I have wholeheartedly obeyed all these laws since my youth.” 21 As Jesus looked at him, he felt love for him and said, “You lack one thing. Go, sell whatever you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.” 22 But at this statement, the man looked sad and went away sorrowful, for he was very rich. 23 Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!”	18 Now a certain ruler asked him, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” 19 Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. 20 You know the commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, honor your father and mother.’” 21 The man replied, “I have wholeheartedly obeyed all these laws since my youth.” 22 When Jesus heard this, he said to him, “One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.” 23 But when the man heard this he became very sad, for he was extremely wealthy. 24 When Jesus noticed this, he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the kingdom of God!

24 Again I say, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God.” 25 The disciples were greatly astonished when they heard this and said, “Then who can be saved?” 26 Jesus looked at them and replied, “This is impossible for mere humans, but for God all things are possible.” 27 Then Peter said to him, “Look, we have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?” 28 Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth: In the age when all things are renewed, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29 And whoever has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life. 30 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.	24 The disciples were astonished at these words. But again Jesus said to them, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.” 26 They were even more astonished and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” 27 Jesus looked at them and replied, “This is impossible for mere humans, but not for God; all things are possible for God.” 28 Peter began to speak to him, “Look, we have left everything to follow you!” 29 Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, there is no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for my sake and for the sake of the gospel 30 who will not receive in this age a hundred times as much— homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, fields, all with persecutions— and in the age to come, eternal life. 31 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.”	25 In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.” 26 Those who heard this said, “Then who can be saved?” 27 He replied, “What is impossible for mere humans is possible for God.” 28 And Peter said, “Look, we have left everything we own to follow you!” 29 Then Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, there is no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of God’s kingdom 30 who will not receive many times more in this age— and in the age to come, eternal life.”

Perean Ministry—Parable of the Generous Landowner (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 20:1–16

1 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

2 And after agreeing with the workers for the standard wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 When it was about nine o’clock in the morning, he went out again and saw others standing around in the marketplace without work.

4 He said to them, ‘You go into the vineyard too, and I will give you whatever is right.’

5 So they went. When he went out again about noon and three o’clock that afternoon, he did the same thing.

6 And about five o’clock that afternoon he went out and found others standing around, and said to them, ‘Why are you standing here all day without work?’

7 They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You go and work in the vineyard too.’

8 When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the workers and give the pay starting with the last hired until the first.’

9 When those hired about five o’clock came, each received a full day’s pay.

10 And when those hired first came, they thought they would receive more. But each one also received the standard wage.

11 When they received it, they began to complain against the landowner,

12 saying, ‘These last fellows worked one hour, and you have made them equal to us who bore the hardship and burning heat of the day.’

13 And the landowner replied to one of them, ‘Friend, I am not treating you unfairly. Didn’t you agree with me to work for the standard wage?’

14 Take what is yours and go. I want to give to this last man the same as I gave to you.

15 Am I not permitted to do what I want with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

16 So the last will be first, and the first last.”

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Jesus' Third Prediction of Death and Resurrection (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 20:17–19	Mark 10:32–34	Luke 18:31–34
17 As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve aside privately and said to them on the way, 18 “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and the experts in the law. They will condemn him to death, 19 and will turn him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged severely and crucified. Yet on the third day, he will be raised.”	32 They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem. Jesus was going ahead of them, and they were amazed, but those who followed were afraid. He took the twelve aside again and began to tell them what was going to happen to him. 33 “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and experts in the law. They will condemn him to death and will turn him over to the Gentiles. 34 They will mock him, spit on him, flog him severely, and kill him. Yet after three days, he will rise again.”	31 Then Jesus took the twelve aside and said to them, “Look, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. [cf. Isa 53; Dan 9:24–26] 32 For he will be handed over to the Gentiles; he will be mocked, mistreated, and spat on. 33 They will flog him severely and kill him. Yet on the third day he will rise again.” 34 But the twelve understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what Jesus meant.

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Positions of Greatness (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 20:20–28	Mark 10:35–45
20 Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling down she asked him for a favor. 21 He said to her, “What do you want?” She replied, “Permit these two sons of mine to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.” 22 Jesus answered, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup I am about to drink?” They said to him, “We are able.” 23 He told them, “You will drink my cup, but to sit at my right and at my left is not mine to give. Rather, it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.” 24 Now when the other ten heard this, they were angry with the two brothers. 25 But Jesus called them and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions use their authority over them. 26 It must not be this way among you! Instead whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, 27 and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave— 28 just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”	35 Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to him and said, “Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask.” 36 He said to them, “What do you want me to do for you?” 37 They said to him, “Permit one of us to sit at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.” 38 But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink the cup I drink or be baptized with the baptism I experience?” 39 They said to him, “We are able.” Then Jesus said to them, “You will drink the cup I drink, and you will be baptized with the baptism I experience, 40 but to sit at my right or at my left is not mine to give. It is for those for whom it has been prepared.” 41 Now when the other ten heard this, they became angry with James and John. 42 Jesus called them and said to them, “You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions use their authority over them. 43 But it is not this way among you. Instead whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, 44 and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of all. 45 For even the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Zacchaeus (c. March 22–27, 33)

Luke 19:1–10

- 1 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it.
 2 Now a man named Zacchaeus was there; he was a chief tax collector and was rich.
 3 He was trying to get a look at Jesus, but being a short man he could not see over the crowd.
 4 So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, because Jesus was going to pass that way.
 5 And when Jesus came to that place, he looked up and said to him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly, because I must stay at your house today.”
 6 So he came down quickly and welcomed Jesus joyfully.
 7 And when the people saw it, they all complained, “He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.”
 8 But Zacchaeus stopped and said to the Lord, “Look, Lord, half of my possessions I now give to the poor, and if I have cheated anyone of anything, I am paying back four times as much!”
 9 Then Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this household, because he too is a son of Abraham!
 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Parable of the Nobleman and the Slaves (c. March 22–27, 33)

Luke 19:11–28

- 11 While the people were listening to these things, Jesus proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.
 12 Therefore he said, “A nobleman went to a distant country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return.
 13 And he summoned ten of his slaves, gave them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Do business with these until I come back.’
 14 But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to be king over us!’
 15 When he returned after receiving the kingdom, he summoned these slaves to whom he had given the money. He wanted to know how much they had earned by trading.
 16 So the first one came before him and said, ‘Sir, your mina has made ten minas more.’
 17 And the king said to him, ‘Well done, good slave! Because you have been faithful in a very small matter, you will have authority over ten cities.’
 18 Then the second one came and said, ‘Sir, your mina has made five minas.’
 19 So the king said to him, ‘And you are to be over five cities.’
 20 Then another slave came and said, ‘Sir, here is your mina that I put away for safekeeping in a piece of cloth.
 21 For I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man. You withdraw what you did not deposit and reap what you did not sow.’
 22 The king said to him, ‘I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! So you knew, did you, that I was a severe man, withdrawing what I didn’t deposit and reaping what I didn’t sow?
 23 Why then didn’t you put my money in the bank, so that when I returned I could have collected it with interest?’
 24 And he said to his attendants, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has ten.’
 25 But they said to him, ‘Sir, he has ten minas already!’
 26 ‘I tell you that everyone who has will be given more, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.
 27 But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to be their king, bring them here and slaughter them in front of me!’”
 28 After Jesus had said this, he continued on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Blind Bartimaeus (c. March 22–27, 33)

Matthew 20:29–34

Mark 10:46–52

Luke 18:35–43

29 As they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed them.
 30 Two blind men were sitting by the road.

When they heard that Jesus was passing by, they shouted, “Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!”

31 The crowd scolded

46 They came to Jericho.
 As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.

47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Nazarene, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

48 Many scolded

35 As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the road begging.
 36 When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was going on.
 37 They told him, “Jesus the Nazarene is passing by.”

38 So he called out, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

39 And those who were in front scolded

them to get them to be quiet. But they shouted even more loudly, “Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!” 32 Jesus stopped, called them, and said, “What do you want me to do for you?” 33 They said to him, “Lord, let our eyes be opened.” 34 Moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.	him to get him to be quiet, but he shouted all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” 49 Jesus stopped and said, “Call him.” So they called the blind man and said to him, “Have courage! Get up! He is calling you.” 50 He threw off his cloak, jumped up, and came to Jesus. 51 Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man replied, “Rabbi, let me see again.” 52 Jesus said to him, “Go, your faith has healed you.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the road.	him to get him to be quiet, but he shouted even more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” 40 So Jesus stopped and ordered the beggar to be brought to him. When the man came near, Jesus asked him, 41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He replied, “Lord, let me see again.” 42 Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has healed you.” 43 And immediately he regained his sight and followed Jesus, praising God. When all the people saw it, they too gave praise to God.

Final Journey to Jerusalem—Arrival at Bethany (Friday, March 27, 33)

John 11:55–12:1

11:55 Now the Jewish feast of Passover was near, and many people went up to Jerusalem from the rural areas before the Passover to cleanse themselves ritually.

56 Thus they were looking for Jesus, and saying to one another as they stood in the temple courts, “What do you think? That he won’t come to the feast?”

57 (Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that anyone who knew where Jesus was should report it, so that they could arrest him.)

12:1 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom he had raised from the dead.

Mary Anoints Jesus for His Burial (Saturday, March 28, 33)

Matthew 26:6–13

Mark 14:3–9

John 12:2–11

6 Now while Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, 7 a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of expensive perfumed oil, and she poured it on his head as he was at the table. 8 When the disciples saw this, they became indignant and said, “Why this waste? It could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor!”	3 Now while Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper, reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of costly aromatic oil from pure nard. After breaking open the jar, she poured it on his head. 4 But some who were present indignantly said to one another, “Why this waste of expensive ointment? It could have been sold for more than three hundred silver coins and the money given to the poor!” So they spoke angrily to her.	2 So they prepared a dinner for Jesus there. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was among those present at the table with him. 3 Then Mary took three quarters of a pound of expensive aromatic oil from pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus. She then wiped his feet dry with her hair. (Now the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfumed oil.) 4 But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was going to betray him) said, 5 “Why wasn’t this oil sold for three hundred silver coins and the money given to the poor?” 6 (Now Judas said this not because he was
---	---	--

10 When Jesus learned of this, he said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a good service for me. 11 For you will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me! 12 When she poured this oil on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13 I tell you the truth, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”	6 But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why are you bothering her? She has done a good service for me. 7 For you will always have the poor with you, and you can do good for them whenever you want. But you will not always have me! 8 She did what she could. She anointed my body beforehand for burial. 9 I tell you the truth, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her.”	concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief. As keeper of the money box, he used to steal what was put into it.) 7 So Jesus said, “Leave her alone. She has kept it for the day of my burial. 8 For you will always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me!” 9 Now a large crowd of Judeans learned that Jesus was there, and so they came not only because of him but also to see Lazarus whom he had raised from the dead. 10 So the chief priests planned to kill Lazarus too, 11 for on account of him many of the Jewish people from Jerusalem were going away and believing in Jesus.

Judas Decides to Betray Jesus (Saturday, March 28, 33)
Matthew 26:14–16	Mark 14:10–11	Luke 22:3–6
14 Then one of the twelve, the one named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests 15 and said, “What will you give me to betray him into your hands?” So they set out thirty silver coins for him. 16 From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray him.	10 Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus into their hands. 11 When they heard this, they were delighted and promised to give him money. So Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray him.	3 Then Satan entered Judas, the one called Iscariot, who was one of the twelve. 4 He went away and discussed with the chief priests and officers of the temple guard how he might betray Jesus, handing him over to them. 5 They were delighted and arranged to give him money. 6 So Judas agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus when no crowd was present.

Passion Week—Triumphal Entry (Sunday, March 29, 33)

Matthew 21:1–9	Mark 11:1–10	Luke 19:29–44	John 12:12–19
1 Now when they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 2 telling them, “Go to the village ahead of you. Right away you will find a donkey tied there, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3 If anyone says anything to you, you are to say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.” 6 So the disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. 7 They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them, and he sat on them. 4 This took place to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: 5 “Tell the people of Zion, ‘Look, your king is coming to you, unassuming and seated on a donkey and on a colt the foal of a donkey.’” [Isa 62:11; Zech 9:9] 8 A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.	1 Now as they approached Jerusalem, near Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples 2 and said to them, “Go to the village ahead of you. As soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 3 If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here soon.’” 4 So they went and found a colt tied at a door, outside in the street, and untied it. 5 Some people standing there said to them, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” 6 They replied as Jesus had told them, and the bystanders let them go. 7 Then they brought the colt to Jesus, threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it. 8 Many spread their cloaks on the road and others spread branches they had cut in the fields.	29 Now when he approached Bethphage and Bethany, at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of the disciples, 30 telling them, “Go to the village ahead of you. When you enter it, you will find a colt tied there that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it.’” 32 So those who were sent ahead found it exactly as he had told them. 33 As they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying that colt?” 34 They replied, “The Lord needs it.” 35 Then they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks on the colt, and had Jesus get on it. 36 As he rode along, they spread their cloaks on the road. 37 As he approached the road leading down from the Mount of Olives, the whole crowd of	12a The next day 14 Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written, 15 “Do not be afraid, people of Zion; look, your king is coming, seated on a donkey’s colt!” 12b the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. 13 So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him. They

9 The crowds that went ahead of him and those following kept shouting, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” [Ps 118:26] Hosanna in the highest!”	9 Both those who went ahead and those who followed kept shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” 10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!”	his disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works they had seen: 38 “Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!” 39 But some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, rebuke your disciples.” 40 He answered, “I tell you, if they keep silent, the very stones will cry out!” 41 Now when Jesus approached and saw the city, he wept over it, 42 saying, “If you had only known on this day, even you, the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. 43 For the days will come upon you when your enemies will build an embankment against you and surround you and close in on you from every side. 44 They will demolish you— you and your children within your walls—and they will not leave within you one stone on top of another, because you	began to shout, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!” Blessed is the king of Israel!” 16 (His disciples did not understand these things when they first happened, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him and that these things had happened to him.) 17 So the crowd who had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead were continuing to testify about it. 18 Because they had heard that Jesus had performed this miraculous sign, the crowd went out to meet him. 19 Thus the Pharisees said to one another, “You see that you can do nothing. Look, the world has run off after him!”

Passion Week—Temple Visit (Sunday, March 29, 33)

Matthew 21:10–11, 14–16	Mark 11:11a
10 As he entered Jerusalem the whole city was thrown into an uproar, saying, “Who is this?” 11 And the crowds were saying, “This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee.” 14 The blind and lame came to him in the temple courts, and he healed them. 15 But when the chief priests and the experts in the law saw the wonderful things he did and heard the children crying out in the temple courts, “Hosanna to the Son of David,” they became indignant 16 and said to him, “Do you hear what they are saying?” Jesus said to them, “Yes. Have you never read, ‘Out of the mouths of children and nursing infants you have prepared praise for yourself’?” [Ps 8:2]	11a Then Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the temple.

Passion Week—We Would See Jesus (Sunday, March 29, 33)

John 12:20–50

Some Greeks Request to See Jesus

20 Now some Greeks were among those who had gone up to worship at the feast.

21 So these approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and requested, “Sir, we would like to see Jesus.”

22 Philip went and told Andrew, and they both went and told Jesus.

23 Jesus replied, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

24 I tell you the solemn truth, unless a kernel of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it produces much grain.

25 The one who loves his life destroys it, and the one who hates his life in this world guards it for eternal life.

26 If anyone wants to serve me, he must follow me, and where I am, my servant will be too. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

27 “Now my soul is greatly distressed. And what should I say? ‘Father, deliver me from this hour’? No, but for this very reason I have come to this hour.

28 Father, glorify your name.” Then a voice came from heaven, “I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.”

29 The crowd that stood there and heard the voice said that it had thundered. Others said that an angel had spoken to him.

30 Jesus said, “This voice has not come for my benefit but for yours.

31 Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.”

33 (Now he said this to indicate clearly what kind of death he was going to die.)

34 Then the crowd responded, “We have heard from the law that the Christ will remain forever. How can you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?”

35 Jesus replied, “The light is with you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, so that the darkness may not overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.

36 While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may become sons of light.” When Jesus had said these things, he went away and hid himself from them.

John’s Summary of Jesus’ Ministry to Israel

37 Although Jesus had performed so many miraculous signs before them, they still refused to believe in him,

38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled. He said, “Lord, who has believed our message, and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?” [Isa 53:1]

39 For this reason they could not believe, because again Isaiah said,

40 “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they would not see with their eyes and understand with their heart, and turn to me, and I would heal them.” [\[Isa 6:10\]](#)

41 Isaiah said these things because he saw Christ’s glory, and spoke about him.

42 Nevertheless, even among the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they would not confess Jesus to be the Christ, so that they would not be put out of the synagogue.

43 For they loved praise from men more than praise from God.

44 But Jesus shouted out, “The one who believes in me does not believe in me, but in the one who sent me, 45 and the one who sees me sees the one who sent me.

46 I have come as a light into the world, so that everyone who believes in me should not remain in darkness.

47 If anyone hears my words and does not obey them, I do not judge him. For I have not come to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 The one who rejects me and does not accept my words has a judge; the word I have spoken will judge him at the last day.

49 For I have not spoken from my own authority, but the Father himself who sent me has commanded me what I should say and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is eternal life. Thus the things I say, I say just as the Father has told me.”

Passion Week—Return to Bethany (Sunday, March 29, 33)

Matthew 21:17	Mark 11:11b
17 And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.	11b And after looking around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the twelve since it was already late.

Chronological Notes

- 1) I will be following Steinmann’s order of events as presented in Chapter 13 (“Holy Week, Crucifixion, and Resurrection”, pp. 288–89) of From Abraham to Paul. See that chapter for details on specific issues.

Passion Week—Cursing the Fig Tree (Monday, March 30, 33)

Matthew 21:18–19a	Mark 11:12–14
18 Now early in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. 19a After noticing a fig tree by the road he went to it, but found nothing on it except leaves. He said to it, “Never again will there be fruit from you!”	12 Now the next day, as they went out from Bethany, he was hungry. 13 After noticing in the distance a fig tree with leaves, he went to see if he could find any fruit on it. When he came to it he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 He said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

Passion Week—Second Cleansing of the Temple (Monday, March 30, 33)

Matthew 21:12–13	Mark 11:15–19	Luke 19:45–48
12 Then Jesus entered the temple area and drove out all those who were selling and buying in the temple courts, and turned over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. 13 And he said to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ [Isa 56:7] but you are turning it into a den of robbers!” [Jer 7:11]	15 Then they came to Jerusalem. Jesus entered the temple area and began to drive out those who were selling and buying in the temple courts. He turned over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves, 16 and he would not permit anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. 17 Then he began to teach them and said, “Is it not written: ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations?’ But you have turned it into a den of robbers!” 18 The chief priests and the experts in the law heard it and they considered how they could assassinate him, for they feared him, because the whole crowd was amazed by his teaching. 19 When evening came, Jesus and his disciples went out of the city.	45 Then Jesus entered the temple courts and began to drive out those who were selling things there, 46 saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house will be a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of robbers!” 47 Jesus was teaching daily in the temple courts. The chief priests and the experts in the law and the prominent leaders among the people were seeking to assassinate him, 48 but they could not find a way to do it, for all the people hung on his words.

Passion Week—Lesson of the Fig Tree (Tuesday, March 31, 33)

Matthew 21:19b–22	Mark 11:20–26
19b And the fig tree withered at once. 20 When the disciples saw it they were amazed, saying, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?” 21 Jesus answered them, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ it will happen. 22 And whatever you ask in prayer, if you believe, you will receive.”	20 In the morning as they passed by, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots. 21 Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has withered.” 22 Jesus said to them, “Have faith in God. 23 I tell you the truth, if someone says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he says will happen, it will be done for him. 24 For this reason I tell you, whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. 25 Whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him, so that your Father in heaven will also forgive you your sins.”

Passion Week—Jesus’ Authority Challenged (Tuesday, March 31, 33)

Matthew 21:23–27	Mark 11:27–33	Luke 20:1–8
23 Now after Jesus entered the temple courts, the chief priests and elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?” 24 Jesus answered them, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. 25 Where did John’s baptism come from? From heaven or from people?” They discussed this among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’” 26 But if we say, ‘From people,’ we fear the crowd, for they all consider John to be a prophet.” 27 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Then he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.	27 They came again to Jerusalem. While Jesus was walking in the temple courts, the chief priests, the experts in the law, and the elders came up to him 28 and said, “By what authority are you doing these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?” 29 Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question. Answer me and I will tell you by what authority I do these things: 30 John’s baptism—was it from heaven or from people? Answer me.” 31 They discussed with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’” 32 But if we say, ‘From people—’” (they feared the crowd, for they all considered John to be truly a prophet). 33 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.” Then Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”	1 Now one day, as Jesus was teaching the people in the temple courts and proclaiming the gospel, the chief priests and the experts in the law with the elders came up 2 and said to him, “Tell us: By what authority are you doing these things? Or who it is who gave you this authority?” 3 He answered them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell me: 4 John’s baptism—was it from heaven or from people?” 5 So they discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’” 6 But if we say, ‘From people,’ all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet.” 7 So they replied that they did not know where it came from. 8 Then Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by whose authority I do these things.”

Passion Week—Parable of the Sons and the Wicked Tenants (Tuesday, March 31, 33)

Matthew 21:28–46	Mark 12:1–12	Luke 20:9–19
28 “What do you think? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’ 29 The boy answered, ‘I will not.’ But later he had a change of heart and went. 30 The father went to the other son and said the same thing. This boy answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but did not go. 31 Which of the two did his father’s will?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “I tell you the truth, tax collectors and prostitutes will go ahead of you into the kingdom of God! 32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes did believe. Although you saw this, you did not later change your minds and believe him. 33 “Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for its winepress, and built a	1 Then he began to speak to them in parables: “A man planted a vineyard. He put a fence around it, dug a pit for its winepress, and built a	9 Then he began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard,

watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went on a journey. 34 When the harvest time was near, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his portion of the crop. 35 But the tenants seized his slaves, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. 36 Again he sent other slaves, more than the first, and they treated them the same way. 37 Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and get his inheritance!' 39 So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. 40 Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" 41 They said to him, "He will utterly destroy those evil men! Then he will lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him his portion at the harvest." 42 Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. This is from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?' [Ps 118:22–23] 43 For this reason I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit. 44 The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and the one on whom it falls will be crushed." 45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. 46 They wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, because the crowds regarded him as a prophet.	watchtower. Then he leased it to tenant farmers and went on a journey. 2 At harvest time he sent a slave to the tenants to collect from them his portion of the crop. 3 But those tenants seized his slave, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. 4 So he sent another slave to them again. This one they struck on the head and treated outrageously. 5 He sent another, and that one they killed. This happened to many others, some of whom were beaten, others killed. 6 He had one left, his one dear son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him and the inheritance will be ours!' 8 So they seized him, killed him, and threw his body out of the vineyard. 9 What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others. 10 Have you not read this scripture: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. This is from the Lord, and it is marvelous in our eyes?' 12 Now they wanted to arrest him (but they feared the crowd), because they realized that he told this parable against them. So they left him and went away.	leased it to tenant farmers, and went on a journey for a long time. 10 When harvest time came, he sent a slave to the tenants so that they would give him his portion of the crop. However, the tenants beat his slave and sent him away empty-handed. 11 So he sent another slave. They beat this one too, treated him outrageously, and sent him away empty-handed. 12 So he sent still a third. They even wounded this one, and threw him out. 13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my one dear son; perhaps they will respect him.' 14 But when the tenants saw him, they said to one another, 'This is the heir; let's kill him so the inheritance will be ours!' 15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When the people heard this, they said, "May this never happen!" 17 But Jesus looked straight at them and said, "Then what is the meaning of that which is written: 'The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone?' 18 Everyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, and the one on whom it falls will be crushed." 19 Then the experts in the law and the chief priests wanted to arrest him that very hour, because they realized he had told this parable against them. But they were afraid of the people.
