- 1) Another step in preparing to enter Canaan involved documenting all the _____ God required the priests to offer for the nation during the year. God's purpose in requiring these sacrifices was to remind the people that the key to the successful _____ of Canaan and prosperous _____ within the promised land was continual _____ with Him. This teaches us that _____ and _____ and _____ reading need to be our top priorities, for they facilitate our daily fellowship with God. God also gave Israel laws concerning vows. A vow was a solemn _____ to God in which a person committed themselves to perform some action in the future. God took vows seriously, and once made, they could not be undone without _____. This teaches us that promises to God are not to be made _____, and that we should be careful to _____ our word. Jesus later rebuked the Jews for breaking their word and then excusing themselves because of the _____ of their vow (Matt 5:33–37). The final verdict: "Let your 'yes' be yes and your 'no' be no" (James 5:12).
