

April 7 Questions

- 1) Israel once again left God for the Baals, and God sold them into the hands of the _____ and the _____. They cried out to God for help, but He refused to listen to them: “Go and cry out to the _____ whom you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress” (Jdg 10:14). God’s rejection was designed to _____ their sincerity (cf. Matt 15:21–28). Would they genuinely _____ and turn away from their idols? Sure enough, they did! The people “put away the foreign gods from among them and served the LORD; and He could bear the misery of Israel no longer” (Jdg 10:16 NASB). How great is God’s _____! It was no coincidence that God used Jephthah to bring peace to the Transjordan. The man they had _____ aside was the one who became their savior. Jephthah was not perfect; in fact, he is a sobering example of someone who made a _____ vow (cf. Deut 23:21–23). His daughter, his one and _____ child, ended her life in either permanent service to the _____ as a _____ sacrifice (cf. Num 3:12–13; Exod 38:8; 1 Sam 2:22) or in _____ as a burnt offering. While we aren’t certain of the girl’s fate, we are certain that Jephthah’s mistake stands as a _____ to us against making foolish vows (cf. Ecc 5:4–6). It also shows us that people have a tendency to make _____ promises in order to realize _____ benefits. We need to watch out for this tendency in our own lives.
