

April 16 Questions

- 1) After his escape from Gath, David hid in the cave of _____. Those who were in distress, in debt or were discontent joined him, and he became captain of about _____ men. David _____ out his heart to God at Adullam and told Him how _____ he felt (Ps 142:1–3). This teaches us to bring our feelings of grief, anger and discouragement to God in _____. Saul soon got word that people were allying with David, and he accused his servants of betraying him (1 Sam 22:6–8). Doeg, seeing an opportunity to curry favor with Saul, told him that Ahimelech had helped David in Nob. Saul sent for Ahimelech, ignored his protest of innocence, and ordered all the priests to be _____. Saul's servants refused, but Doeg was only too pleased to obey. When _____ escaped and told David, David was heartsick and angry. To comfort himself, he wrote a song that contrasted the _____ of evil with the _____ of godliness (Ps 52:1–9). This psalm teaches us that it's appropriate to call for God's _____ on the wicked and to take _____ in the fact that righteousness will triumph over evil (Ps 52:5–7). David continued to evade Saul and even managed to save Keilah from the Philistines. Sadly, his only thanks was treachery and _____. When the Ziphites alerted Saul to David's presence among them, David asked God for _____ and _____ (Ps 54:1, 5). This teaches us to make room for God's _____. God will exalt those who wait on Him!