

April 28 Questions

- 1) The Davidic Covenant. After God gave David _____ from _____ his enemies, David became concerned that the ark, the symbol of God's presence, sat in a _____ while he lived in a beautiful palace. David's desire to build a temple was pleasing to God, but God told him '_____' . This teaches us that there will be times when we want to do something good for God, but the _____ is wrong or _____ may not be the one God wants to perform the task. David's willingness to _____ to God's will is an excellent example of showing deference to His direction. David _____ his part in God's plan and did not try to go _____ it. Although God turned down David's request, He did not reject David himself. In fact, God took the occasion to establish a _____ with him. David wanted to build God a house (a _____ ), and instead, God promised to build David a house (a _____ ). Not only that, God also promised that his house would last _____ ! David's earthly dynasty ended four centuries later, but _____ , a direct descendant of David, is the ultimate fulfillment of this promise (Acts 2:22–36). Jesus will reign for eternity. He reigns now in our _____ , and one day He will reign here on _____ (Luke 1:30–33; Rev 20:4). David rejoiced in God's promise and was humbled at the thought of how God had taken him from following _____ to being the _____ of your people. This teaches us that the proper response to God's blessing is humility and _____ .
