- 1) The fall of Jerusalem in July 587 BC. Everything God predicted through the prophets was fulfilled. God said that there would be _____ : the people would eat their bread with care (Ezek 4:16), and finally, they would eat their own _____ (Ezek 5:10). Just as God said, it happened (2 Kgs 25:3). Babies cried out for thirst, children begged for food, and women _____ and ate their own children (Lam 4:4, 10). God said that the temple would be destroyed and burned with _____ (Isa 64:11; Jer 7:14). Just as God said, it happened (Jer 52:13). Nebuzaradan, the captain of the king's bodyguard, came to Jerusalem and burned the temple with fire (2 Kgs 25:9). God said that Zedekiah would not escape. He would see and talk with Nebuchadnezzar face-to-face (Jer 34:3). Just as God said, it happened (Jer 39:3–5). Zedekiah tried to escape by _____ , but he was captured on the plains of Jericho and brought before the king of Babylon. God said that Zedekiah would be brought to Babylon, yet he would not _____ it (Jer 32:5; Ezek 12:13). Just as God said, it happened (Jer 39:6–7). Nebuchadnezzar killed Zedekiah's sons "before his eyes," then had him _____ so it would be the last thing he ever saw (2 Kgs 25:7). If there's anything today's reading teaches us, it's that what God says will come to pass.
