

September 4 Questions

1) Six months later, news of Jerusalem's destruction finally reached Ezekiel and the exiles. In response, Ezekiel proclaimed God's word concerning five groups of people:

- Jews left in Judah and Israel. We cannot claim God's promises while we're _____ His commands.
- Exiles in Babylon. We should _____ those who speak God's word lest we ignore their message to our own destruction.
- Leaders and rulers of Judah. We will be held _____ for how we lead those under our authority.
- Edom. We should not take _____ in the misfortune of others, especially those who have a right to expect our compassion and support.
- The house of Israel. Christ's Kingdom will surely come to pass. We can _____ God and be a part of it, or we can _____ God and be cast aside. The choice is up to us.
