

September 5 Questions

- 1) Ezekiel's famous "Gog and _____" prophecy (Ezek 38–39). The people of Judah had lost their _____, their city and their _____, and they had been _____ to the land of their conquerors. Why give them a vision of another invasion? Because in the future, the nations who gathered together to conquer them would be _____. Why? Because in that day, Israel would be living in _____ to God. This taught the people that their true _____ lay in their commitment and loyalty to God, and it teaches us the same lesson. When we _____ God with our whole heart, we can rest securely in his love. God said, "Though I say to the righteous that he shall surely live, yet if he trusts in his righteousness and does injustice, _____ of his righteous deeds shall be remembered, but in his injustice that he has done he shall _____" (Ezek 33:13). This is a sobering reminder that saving faith is not the _____ of a moment but the _____ of a lifetime. We must have a present, _____ faith!
