

October 10 Questions

- 1) When Jesus “marveled” at the _____ faith of the centurion, He was amazed by the _____ of the man’s faith, not the quantity. Many people believed Jesus could heal, and large crowds followed Him, but the centurion not only believed, he _____ correctly about the implications of Jesus’ power. He recognized that when Jesus spoke, it was with God’s _____ and _____. That meant that Jesus didn’t need to _____ to his house. Jesus could simply _____ the word and his slave would be healed. This teaches us that “great” faith reasons correctly and draws necessary _____ from what God has said. John the Baptist struggled with _____ while he was in prison. His doubt came from the fact that Jesus’ ministry did not meet his _____ (cf. Matt 3:10). Jesus responded by telling John that the Scriptures concerning the Messiah were being fulfilled, for _____ and _____ must precede judgment (cf. Isa 61:1–2). This teaches us the importance of keeping our expectations grounded in God’s _____. The remedy for doubt is to _____ ourselves in Scripture. We must allow what God has said to permeate our minds and _____ our thinking.