Jesus' woes to them teach us that: a) if we disregard _____ for God and _____ for others, then our strict adherence to God's other commands is vain; b) if we refuse to seek _____ cleansing and purity, then our outward washing is useless; c) if we act like a godly person while still clinging to self and sin, then our influence will _____ others; d) if we demand _____ than God's Word requires, then our teaching hinders others; e) if we proclaim our own _____ instead of expounding Scripture, then our preaching has taken away the key to knowledge—God's Word.
