

October 27 Questions

- 1) In the story of Jesus healing ten lepers in a border town between Galilee and Samaria: 1) The racial and social _____ between Jews and Samaritans had been set aside because of the affliction the lepers shared. Everyone is _____ at the foot of the cross, for we all need Jesus' cleansing touch; 2) Jesus didn't heal the lepers and then send them to the priest. Instead, He told them to _____, and "as they _____ they were cleansed." His command carried the implication that they would be healed, but they had to _____ and _____ before they were cured. True faith takes action in _____ to God's Word; 3) Only a Samaritan, a "foreigner," returned to give thanks and praise to God. The other lepers were glad for the gift, but they did not value the _____. A grateful heart comes from recognizing how _____ we are and how worthy God is. The Pharisees tested Jesus by asking him about divorce. His response teaches us that: a) Genesis is a record of _____ historical events; b) Adam and Eve were a _____ man and woman; c) God designed marriage to be the _____ of one man and one woman—they become "one _____"; d) Marriage is meant to last for _____; e) Certain sins can _____ a marriage; f) Divorce is a last _____, and it must be never be done lightly or without explicit grounds; g) Moses' law concerning divorce was meant to _____ women, not give men an excuse to satisfy their flesh.