

November 3 Questions

- 1) Jesus' Olivet Discourse is a sweeping overview of the future, from the destruction of _____ in AD 70 to His return at the end of the _____. This discourse teaches us that: (1) we should never put our trust in the grandeur and beauty of _____ structures, for they are destined to _____ away (2 Pet 3:7); (2) we should not be terrified when we hear of wars and famines, for they are part of this _____ age (Luke 21:9); (3) we should expect _____ for the sake of the gospel, for the world will hate _____ as it hated Jesus (Mark 13:9); (4) we should use persecution as an opportunity to share the _____, for the Holy Spirit will be there to support and _____ us (Mark 13:11); (5) we should be on guard against false teachers and prophets, for _____ will come in Jesus' name and try to lead believers _____ (Luke 21:8); (6) we should not believe those who claim to know the exact time of Jesus' return, for "concerning that day and hour _____ knows" (Matt 24:36); (7) we should avoid getting caught up in the _____ and concerns of life, for Jesus has warned us to "stay awake" (Matt 24:38–39).