

November 4 Questions

- 1) Jesus' revelation of the future was given to motivate us to live holy, godly lives in the _____ . His first command—Stay _____ !—teaches us that the cares of this life have a way of _____ down our hearts (Luke 21:34). If we're not careful, we can become _____ in fleshly pursuits, and that day will come on us suddenly like a trap. We need to be sober and _____ , praying for strength to follow God's commands. His second command—Be _____ !—reminds us of the importance of being a faithful _____ of the gifts, talents and skills that God has given us. We need to live each day as though Jesus' coming was _____ . His last command—Prepare for _____ !—impresses on us the necessity of living a _____ life. It's not enough to claim a right relationship with God. We must be active in the work of the Kingdom, _____ and ministering to those who are in need. If we ignore the hungry, the sick, and the imprisoned, we will discover to our shame that we ignored our _____ and _____ , Jesus Christ.
