

November 7 Questions

- 1) Jesus' actions in the garden teach us several crucial lessons:¹ (1) Jesus saw the companionship and support of his friends as a legitimate _____. In this, He modeled the importance of _____ out to others in times of trouble, rather than withdrawing and trying to go it alone; (2) Jesus didn't pretend to be _____ or try to hide His emotions. People in leadership often think they can't be real for fear of looking _____; (3) Jesus chose to _____ when He was at His lowest point. Jesus reminds us that finding spiritual _____ through prayer is the way to handle trials; (4) An angel appeared to Jesus the first time He prayed, but it came to strengthen His resolve, not _____ him from the fight. So many times we want to get _____ when God's will is for us to go _____! (5) Jesus didn't let His _____ lead His will. He freely admitted that He didn't want to go through the terrible torture of the cross, but He brought those feelings _____ to the sovereignty of God's will; (6) Jesus didn't pray only _____. He poured out His heart to God _____ times before He was ready to pick Himself up and say, "Rise, let us be going." This teaches us that there will be times when we need to wrestle _____ to bring our mind, will and emotions in subjection to God's will. We must not give up before we have _____ to follow God no matter what.

¹ Matt, "Looking at Gethsemane Anew: The Fall and Rise of Jesus." Web blog post. Theology in Tension, 22 Nov 2015. Web. 14 Mar 2016.