

November 8 Questions

- 1) The difference between how Jesus and Peter acted in the garden is due to how these two men _____ for their hour of temptation. Peter had given little _____ to the difficult time that was coming, while Jesus had been thinking and preparing for _____. Peter had argued with the other disciples about who was the _____, while Jesus had taken a bowl and _____ their feet. Peter had loudly proclaimed that he would never _____ Jesus, while Jesus had gently _____ Peter of his coming trial. Peter had openly promised to lay down his _____ for Jesus, while Jesus had purposed to suffer and _____ for Peter. Peter _____ while Jesus counseled. Peter _____ while Jesus prayed. Peter _____ while Jesus healed. And when Jesus was arrested, Peter _____ while Jesus stayed. What happened to Peter teaches us: (1) The danger of _____. Peter thought himself above temptation (Matt 26:33), and he didn't take Jesus' warnings seriously. (2) The danger of _____. Peter kept saying that he would do this and he would do that. (3) The danger of the _____. Peter was tired after a long day, and his body wanted to sleep when his spirit wanted to pray. (4) The danger of going _____. Peter was one of only two disciples who followed Jesus, but he stayed out in the _____ rather than standing by Jesus' side. Those who go halfway will find to their dismay that they haven't gone at all!