

November 10 Questions

- 1) Jesus' sayings on the cross leave us an _____ to follow. First, Jesus told the women who mourned him, "Do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children." This means we should be more concerned about what will happen to _____ than about what will happen to us. Second, Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." This means we should _____ our enemies rather than seeking retribution and revenge. Third, Jesus told Mary and John, "Woman, behold, your son! Behold, your mother!" This means we should _____ and _____ for those who depend on us for their needs. Fourth, Jesus said to the thief on the cross, "Today you will be with me in Paradise." This means we should take every opportunity to share the _____ with those who are lost. Fifth, Jesus cried out to God, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Ps 22:1). This means we should bring our sorrow and suffering to God in _____ and then trust Him to _____ all our needs in Christ Jesus (Phil 4:19). Sixth, Jesus said, "I thirst" (Ps 22:15). This means we should be faithful to fulfill _____ that God has commanded, for Jesus refused to die until he had fulfilled every _____ concerning his ministry (Ps 69:21). Seventh, Jesus said "It is finished." This means we should _____ to the end by faith, so that when our death is near, we can say with confidence that we have done God's will. Last, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" This means we should put all things in God's mighty hands, even the time and nature of our _____, so that when our spirits leave our bodies, we will be _____ into God's glorious presence!
