- 1) The story of Ananias and Sapphira teaches us several important lessons: (1) _____ is the natural result of genuine faith. If there's not unity in our family or our church, there's either a lack of _____ or a lack of _____ (or both). (2) _____ flows from a heart of love and gratitude. If we're grateful for all God has done for us and we truly love others, then we will use what we have to bless and _____ our neighbor. (3) _____ is a deadly serious matter. When we sin, we're rebelling against the _____, and although God is kind and forgiving, His patience is meant to lead us to repentance, not embolden us to sin. (4) _____ is a vital part of worship. So often we mistakenly think that if we _____ sin, people will turn away from God. But if done in the proper way (1 Tim 5:19–20), the opposite is true, for people are _____ to something that is real. As our fear of God increases, so does our sense of _____, because we understand more fully the riches of His grace to us in Jesus Christ.
