

December 29 Questions

- 1) When Jesus broke the seventh seal, all activity in heaven stopped and there was _____ for about half an hour. This was fitting, for the seven _____ judgments were about to sound, and they were more terrible than the seals. Before the angels blew their trumpets, another angel came and offered incense to God mingled with the _____ of the saints. This teaches us that our prayers are like a sweet smelling _____ which God _____ in satisfaction and delight. God also takes what we say _____, for after the angel offered the incense and prayers, he filled a censer with fire and threw it on the earth. The world shook and shuddered under the impact of God's _____ in response to His people's prayers! The seven angels sounded their trumpets, but men would not _____ of their idolatry or their murders or their immorality or their thefts. Yet God is _____ and longsuffering, not willing that any should perish, and He sent two _____ to preach a message of repentance. Instead of listening to them, the people did everything they could to _____ them. God knew that when He _____ the witnesses from the dead, some of the people would "give _____ to God" (Rev 11:13). This teaches us that God gives the wicked every _____ to repent before the end.
